Guide to Indian Periodical Literature , 1997 Glittering Threads Farida Jalees, 1989 Indian Textiles John Gillow, Nicholas Barnard, 2008 The production of textiles in India continues to flourish just as it has for many centuries The interactions of peoples indigenous tribes invaders traders explorers through history has built a culture legendary for its variety and colour From the Rann of Kutch to the Coromandel coast from city and village handloom weavers block printers painters dyers and embroiderers are all creating the most extraordinary textiles This all encompassing survey of textiles from every region of the Indian subcontinent runs the gamut of commercial tribal and folk textiles The authors first place them in context by examining the cultural background the history the materials and the techniques weaving printing painting and tie and dye They then give a detailed region by region account of traditional textile production including chapters on Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka An array of images provides an unsurpassed visual representation of the textiles while a detailed reference section with further reading museums and information on technical terms completes this essential guide BOOK

JACKET Divyāmbara Lotika Varadarajan, Sushmit Sharma, 2018 This is a worthy addition to the publications of the National Museum New Delhi The novelty of the textile collection in the National Museum is that unlike the Indian Museum Kolkata and the Maharaja Sawai Man Singh II Museum Jaipur it has no heritage collections upon which it can draw This has its advantages The collections based on gifts and purchase offer a heterogeneity which a scholar can utilize while alluding to the continuity between the past and present As the catalogue is devoted to the master pieces of the costume from the collection pagris head gear have not been included and the same applies to the unstitched garment the sari However India has a vast continuum from which it is possible to elicit information and the costume collection mirrors this While Lotika Varadarajan as Tagore Fellow brings her wide knowledge of textiles to bear on the subject Sushmit Sharma adds another dimension to the work by his understanding of visual language in its many dimensions This has opened up further avenues of investigation adding additional depth to the subject The work has been envisaged keeping in mind the transformation of the role of museum in modern times from being geared to the needs of a research scholar to that of translating works of art into quotidian language The Arts of the Sikh Kingdoms Susan Stronge, 1999 Contributed research papers
