Zen Spaces Neon Places Reflections On Japanese Architecture And Urbanism:

Zen Spaces and Neon Places Vinayak Bharne, 2014 This book shifts the emphasis on how we choose to read Japanese architecture and urbanism. It focuses on phenomena and meanings rather than forms and objects and prioritizes intentions and legacies over the mechanics of design. The terms architecture and urbanism in the book's subtitle must therefore be understood in the broadest possible sense. They encompass all aspects that shape the built environment at all scales: buildings, cities, materials, public spaces, rituals, landscapes, processes, perceptions, semantics, urban form, urban life, people, all woven together.

The Routledge Handbook on Historic Urban Landscapes in the Asia-Pacific Kapila Silva, 2019-12-23 The Routledge Handbook on Historic Urban Landscapes in the Asia Pacific sheds light onto the balancing act of urban heritage management, focusing specifically on the Asia Pacific regions in which this challenge is imminent and in need of effective solutions. Urban heritage, while being threatened amid myriad forces of global and ecological change, provides a vital social, cultural, and economic asset for regeneration and sustenance of liveability of inhabited urban areas worldwide. This six-part volume takes a critical look at the concept of Historic Urban Landscapes, the approach that UNESCO promotes to achieve holistic management of urban heritage through the lens of issues, prospects, and experiences of urban regeneration of the selected geo-cultural context. It further discusses the difficult task that heritage managers encounter in conceptualizing, mapping, curating, and sustaining the plurality, poetics, and politics of urban heritage of the regions in question. The connective thesis that weaves the chapters in this volume together reinforces for readers that the management of urban heritage considers cities as dynamic entities, palimpsests of historical memories, collages of social diversity, territories of contested identities, and sites for sustainable liveability. Throughout this edited collection, chapters argue for recognizing the totality of the eco-cultural urban fabric, embracing change, building social cohesion, and initiating strategic socio-economic progress in the conservation of Historic Urban Landscapes. Containing thirty-seven contributions written by leading regional experts and illustrated with over 200 black and white images and tables, this volume provides a much-needed resource on Historic Urban Landscapes for students, scholars, and researchers.

The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in The Asia-Pacific Kapila D. Silva, Ken Taylor, David S. Jones, 2022-07-29 The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in the Asia Pacific revisits the use, growth, and potential of the cultural landscape methodology in the conservation and management of culture/nature heritage in the Asia Pacific region. Taking both a retrospective and prospective view of the management of cultural heritage in the region, this volume argues that the plurality and complexity of heritage in the region cannot be comprehensively understood and effectively managed without a broader conceptual framework like the cultural landscape approach. The book also demonstrates that such an approach facilitates the development of a flexible strategy for heritage conservation. Acknowledging the effects of rapid socio-economic development, globalization, and climate change, contributors examine the pressure these issues place on the sustenance of cultural heritage. Including chapters from more than 20 countries across the Asia Pacific region the volume reviews the effectiveness of theoretical and practical potentials afforded by the cultural landscape approach and examines how they have been utilized in the Asia Pacific context for the last three decades The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in the Asia Pacific provides a comprehensive analysis of the processes of cultural landscape heritage conservation and management As a result it will be of interest to academics students and professionals who are based in the fields of cultural heritage management architecture urban planning landscape architecture and landscape management

Routledge Companion to Global Heritage Conservation Vinayak Bharne, Trudi Sandmeier, 2019-02-12 The act of identifying protecting restoring and reusing buildings districts and built landscapes of historic and cultural significance is at its best a reflective and consequential process of urban and socio economic reform It has the potential to reconcile conflicting memories meanings and cultural tensions bridging and expanding the perceived boundaries of multiple disciplines towards bigger aspirations of city making and social justice How and where do such aspirations overlap and differ across nations and societies across the world In places with different histories governance structures regulatory stringency and populist dispositions who are the specific players and what are the actual processes that bring about bigger and deeper change beyond just the conservation of an architectural or urban entity of perceived value This collection of scholarly articles by theorists academics and practitioners explores the global complexity guises and potential of heritage conservation Going from Tokyo to Cairo Shenzhen to Rome and Delhi to Moscow this volume examines a vast range of topics indigenous habitats urban cores vernacular infrastructure colonial towns squatters burial sites war zones and modern landmarks It surfaces numerous inherent issues water stress deforestation social oppression poverty religion immigration and polity expanding the definitions of heritage conservation as both a professional discipline and socio cultural catalyst This book argues that the intellectual and praxis limits of heritage conservation as the agency of reading defining and intervening with built heritage can be expansive aimed at bigger positive change beyond a specific subject or object plural enmeshed with multiple fields and specializations and empathetic born from the actual socio political realities of a place

The New Companion to Urban Design Tridib Banerjee, Anastasia Loukaitou-Sideris, 2019-06-19 The New Companion to Urban Design continues the assemblage of rich and critical ideas about urban form and design that began with the Companion to Urban Design Routledge 2011 With chapters from a new set of contributors this sequel offers a more comparative perspective representing multiple voices and perspectives from the Global South The essays in this volume are organized in three parts Part I Comparative Urbanism Part II Challenges and Part III Opportunities Each part contains distinct sections designed to address specific themes and includes a list of annotated suggested further readings at the end of each chapter Part I Comparative Urbanism examines different variants of urbanism in the Global North and the Global South produced by a new economic order characterized by the mobility of labor capital information and technology Part II Challenges discusses some of the contemporary challenges that cities of the Global North and the Global South are facing and the possible role of urban design This part discusses spatial claims and conflicts challenges generated by urban informality explosive growth or dramatic shrinkage of the urban settlement gentrification and displacement and mimesis simulacra and lack of authenticity Part III Aspirations discusses some normative goals that urban design interventions aspire to bring about in cities of the Global North and the Global South These include resilience and sustainability health conservation restoration justice intelligence access and mobility and arts and culture The New Companion to Urban Design is primarily intended for scholars and graduate students interested in cities and their built environment It offers an invaluable and up to date guide to current thinking across a range of disciplines including urban design planning urban studies and geography

The City Observed Pallavi Shrivastava, 2016-09-12 The City Observed by Pallavi Shrivastava reads like dispatches from a battlefield by a seasoned war correspondent Each chapter is a stimulating vignette of some memorable place or recently contrived artifact through which Pallavi unravels counter intuitive conclusions Pallavi has two eyes and many voices Those two eyes see things often unnoticed bringing into focus a collage of real life issues and human circumstances She has an uncanny ability to conceive of the metropolis as an everyday person would yet to catalyze unique understandings and conclusions from her choreographies She navigates the metropolis building narratives out of keen insights speaking for those without voices giving eyes to people who have eyes but no vision Pallavi's most provocative ability is to reveal contradictions between the emerging urban form and the critical needs of the everyday Mumbaikar who emerges forgotten in the unfolding scenario Her written landscapes reveal disturbing images of the bad within the good and of poverty within plenty From bright images emerge a sense of charm tinged by nostalgia for the city's past yet a warning of pathos in times to come
