TIME MANAGEMENT Ibrahim Al Faki, All praise belongs only to Allah the Lord of hosts thanks to His permission and mercy we are still given the opportunity to live the rest of our lives filled with His infinite gifts and sometimes we are rarely grateful especially the gift of time and opportunity given to us after the gifts of faith and Islam given to us Prayers and greetings may still be poured out to the great Prophet Muhammad Peace and salutation be upon him the prophet of the last days the prophet of humanity who has taught us how to use and manage time in living life to be happy on earth and in the hereafter get heaven I translated this book initially as an interest in psychology and in Arabic literature After I read some of the books of the late Dr Ibrahim Al Faki I am of the view that his works are suitable for consumption by non Arabic people Several works have been translated by Zaman publishers into Indonesian language including Quwwat Al Tafkir The book that is in front of this dear reader is a book that thoroughly explores the importance of managing time The author uses a practical point of view that is easy to understand and understood by all circles He gave concrete examples from the experiences of great people in the world including his own In this book you will be taught how to change our paradigm towards wrong times how to use time as effectively as possible and what are the things that prevent time that we should stay away from as well as other important things that you will encounter Hopefully this translation effort will be a little contribution that can change our mistaken paradigm about the importance of time In this translation of course there are many shortcomings therefore I am eagerly awaiting criticism and suggestions on the shortcomings of this translation both in terms of diction or grammar that is not quite right For his criticisms and suggestions or ordering his book paper you can contact us at dilarizapress gmail com Happy reading
