Beyond Berlin Gavriel D. Rosenfeld, Paul B. Jaskot, 2008-02-27 Beyond Berlin breaks new ground in the ongoing effort to understand how memorials buildings and other spaces have figured in the larger German struggle to come to terms with the legacy of Nazism The contributors challenge reigning views of how the task of coming to terms with the Nazi Past Vergangenheitsbewältigung has been pursued at specific urban and architectural sites Focusing on west as well as east German cities whether prominent metropolises like Hamburg dynamic regional centers like Dresden gritty industrial cities like Wolfsburg or idyllic rural towns like Quedlinburg the volume's case studies of individual urban centers provide readers with a more complex sense of the manifold ways in which the confrontation with the Nazi past has directly shaped the evolving form of the German urban landscape since the end of the Second World War In these multidisciplinary discussions of important intersections with historical art historical anthropological and geographical concerns this collection deepens our understanding of the diverse ways in which the memory of National Socialism has profoundly influenced postwar German culture and society Scholars and students interested in National Socialism modern Germany memory studies urban studies and planning geography industrial design and art and architectural history will find the volume compelling Beyond Berlin will appeal to general audiences knowledgeable about the Nazi past as well as those interested in historic preservation memorials and the overall dynamics of commemoration

Bernd & Hilla Becher Jeff L. Rosenheim, Gabriele Conrath-Scholl, Virginia Heckert, Lucy Sante, 2022-07-11 For more than five decades Bernd 1931 2007 and Hilla 1934 2015 Becher collaborated on photographs of industrial architecture in Germany France Belgium Holland Great Britain and the United States This sweeping monograph features the Bechers quintessential pictures which present water towers gas tanks blast furnaces and more as sculptural objects Beyond the Bechers iconic Typologies the book includes Bernd's early drawings Hilla's independent photographs and excerpts from their notes sketchbooks and journals The book's authors offer new insights into the development of the artists process their work's conceptual underpinnings the photographers relationship to deindustrialization and the artists legacy An essay by award winning cultural historian Lucy Sante and an interview with Max Becher the artists son make this volume an unrivaled look into the Bechers art alongside their career life and subjects

Building for Industry Kurt Ackermann, 1991 An illustrated history of the development of industrial architecture The book covers developments in the period from 1779 to the present day

Spaces of Uncertainty - Berlin revisited Kenny Cupers, Markus Miessen, 2018-03-05 How has Berlin's urban landscape changed in its remarkable transformation from divided city to creative capital Despite the monumental heritage and grand development projects Berlin still conjures up images of urban fragmentation and vacant inner city land The book reveals the changing nature and complex politics of this open space A rephotographing of sites between 2001 and 2016 shows how no man's land has made way for new apartments and underground hangouts have changed into commercial hubs but it also transports us to remaining pockets of urban wilderness and unexpected freedom right next to the city's most iconic squares The accompanying essays by noted urban thinkers explore this little known but vital reserve forcing us to reflect on our unrelenting efforts to chart the future of the city at large

Ever since its invention photography has enjoyed a close and mutually stimulating relationship with architecture an association underlined by one description of photography as building with light So well established is this link that photography is now regarded as the easiest and most reliable means of making architecture and its ideas accessible to a wider public Our first sometimes our only impression of a building often comes from a photograph and the skilled photographer can help us to see even the most familiar structures with a fresh eye This book offers a lively exploration of the development of architectural photography and some of its key themes From the earliest examples of the genre in the nineteenth century to today's digital revolution Robert Elwall skilfully focuses on the changing aesthetic of the medium worldwide Included are such topics as the early influence of architectural drawing the growth of specialist photographic firms documenting the nineteenth century building boom the influence of photography on both architectural practice and history the invention of half tone reproduction the role of photography in the spread of Modernism the impact of colour photography during the 1970s and 1980s and the increasing use of computers to shape a new direction Authoritatively written by a world renowned expert and illustrated with arresting images from collections throughout the world this study is essential reading for anyone interested in architecture photography and the history of their special relationship Book jacket Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition Bernd and Hilla Becher Susanne Lange, 2007 The compelling story of the collaboration of the most important husband and wife team in the history of photography a lavishly illustrated critical assessment of their lifelong project of documenting the industrial landscape of the twentieth century Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals, 1995 Avery
