Hopkins Robert Bernard Martin, 2011-06-16 Will surely rank as one of the foremost literary biographies of our time John Carey Sunday Times In his lifetime Gerard Manley Hopkins 1844 1889 published just a single poem only a few close friends were aware he wrote Much of his work was burnt by fellow Jesuits on his death And yet Hopkins is today a huge figure in English literature Homosexual but terribly repressed he channeled his emotions toward nature and God with profound results Princeton emeritus professor Martin the only biographer to have unrestricted use of Hopkins private papers tells this extraordinary story from Hopkins early life and studies at Oxford through his tortuous conversion from Anglicanism to Catholicism to his struggle in later years to retain his very sanity In Martin the unhappy and tormented genius has found the most sympathetic and intelligent interpreter The book goes to the heart of Hopkins and plants him firmly before us as a Victorian and a great one Allan Massie Sunday Telegraph Martin follows Hopkins through his toils with sympathy and a great unshowy command of the facts In this magnificently solicitous biography he has re established the contours of the story definitively and made the homosexual drama integral to the better known drama of conversion and poetics Seamus Heaney Independent on Sunday The triumph of this learned scrupulously detailed and persuasive biography is that it brings the reader as near as it is perhaps possible to come to living Hopkins life to sensing the mysterious crushing pressures that were for him intimately bound up with the richness and complexity of his writing Hilary Spurling Daily Telegraph Bread for the Journey Thomas W. Currie, 2015-08-31 Preparing for ministry involves more than the acquisition of certain skills The shape of a disciple's soul as he or she embarks on this journey is as important if not more so than learning how to exegete a text or engage in pastoral care Ministry is not easy and the preparation for this form of Christian discipleship is open to a variety of temptations not least of which is a kind of despair over the paucity of one's own resources or worse the illusion that one is better off relying on one's own talents and virtues What is needed is bread for this journey not necessarily exhortations to work harder but words of encouragement and grace that bear witness to the surprising reality that ministry is in fact a joyful gift These notes from a dean who sought to help his students discover that joy in their study and preparation bear witness to the One whose life provides bread for every journey especially for the journey of pastoral ministry
