Later Byzantine Painting Robert S. Nelson, 2024-10-28 Written over nearly three decades the fifteen essays involve the three aspects of the title art agency and appreciation The first refers to the general subject matter of the book Byzantine art chiefly painting of the twelfth through the fourteenth centuries the second to its often human like agency and the last to its historical reception Responding to different issues and perspectives that have animated art history and Byzantine studies in recent decades the essays have wide theoretical range from art historical formalism iconography archaeology and its manuscript equivalent codicology to statistics patronage narratology and the histories of science and collecting The series begins with art works themselves and with the imagery and iconography of church decoration and manuscript illumination shifts to the ways that objects act in the world and affect their beholders and concludes with more general appreciations of Byzantine art in case studies from the thirteenth century to the present

Johnson, Amy Papalexandrou, 2016-12-05 The fourteen essays in this collection demonstrate a wide variety of approaches to the study of Byzantine architecture and its decoration a reflection of both newer trends and traditional scholarship in the field The variety is also a reflection of Professor Curcic's wide interests which he shares with his students These include the analysis of recent archaeological discoveries recovery of lost monuments through archival research and onsite examination of material remains reconsidering traditional typological approaches often ignored in current scholarship fresh interpretations of architectural features and designs contextualization of monuments within the landscape tracing historiographic trends and mining neglected written sources for motives of patronage The papers also range broadly in terms of chronology and geography from the Early Christian through the post Byzantine period and from Italy to Armenia Three papers examine Early Christian monuments and of these two expand the inquiry into their architectural afterlives Others discuss later monuments in Byzantine territory and monuments in territories related to Byzantium such as Serbia Armenia and Norman Italy No Orthodox church being complete without interior decoration two papers discuss issues connected to frescoes in late medieval Balkan churches Finally one study investigates the continued influence of Byzantine palace architecture long after the fall of Constantinople Byzantine Art Robin Cormack, 2018-03-10 The opulence of Byzantine art with its extravagant use of gold and silver is well known Highly skilled artists created powerful representations reflecting and promoting this society and its values in icons illuminated manuscripts and mosaics and wallpaintings placed in domed churches and public buildings This complete introduction to the whole period and range of Byzantine art combines immense breadth with interesting historical detail Robin Cormack overturns the myth that Byzantine art remained constant from the inauguration of Constantinople its artistic centre in the year 330 until the fall of the city to the Ottomans in 1453 He shows how the many political and religious upheavals of this period produced a wide range of styles and developments in art This updated colour edition includes new discoveries a revised bibliography and in a new epilogue a rethinking of Byzantine Art for the present day Glass, Wax and Metal: Lighting Technologies in Late Antique, Byzantine and Medieval Times Ioannis Moutsianos, Karen S.
