Here Comes the Sun Leza Lowitz, 2015-06-01 A YOGA MEMOIR At thirty Californian Leza Lowitz is single and traveling the world which suits her just fine Coming of age in Berkeley California during the sexual and feminist revolutions of the 1970s she learned that marriage and family could wait Or could they When Leza moves to Japan and meets the man of her dreams her heart opens in ways she never thought possible But she s still an outsider and home is far away Rather than struggle to fit in she opens a yoga studio and makes a home for others Then at forty four Leza and her Japanese husband seek to adopt in a country where bloodlines are paramount and family ties are almost feudal in their cultural importance She travels to India to work on herself and back to California to deal with her past Something is still not complete until she learns that when you give a little love to a child you get the whole world in return This inspiring memoir reflects the author s deep connection to yoga that allows her to realize that infertile does not mean inconceivable Through teaching meditation and community she transcends her struggles and embraces the joys of adoption and motherhood Leza Lowitz lives in Tokyo with her husband the writer Shogo Oketani and their ten year old son She has edited and published over seventeen books many on Japan and has run her own yoga studio in Tokyo for a decade She travels throughout Japan and Asia to teach yoga and write Her debut YA novel Jet Black and the Ninja Wind won the 2013 2014 Asian Pacific American Award in Young Adult Literature
