Waiting With Gabriel A Story Of Cherishing A Babys Brief Life:

Waiting with Gabriel Amy Kuebelbeck,2003 Amy Kuebelbeck shares how she and her husband made the decision to forgo extreme measures to save her son Gabriel after learning at five months pregnant he suffered from hypoplastic left heart syndrome and discusses how they prepared for his inevitable death after being born Parenting Your Premature Baby and Child Deborah L. Davis,2016-10-19 The premature birth of a baby is both a medical and family crisis Within the pages of this comprehensive guide parents will find compassionate support practical suggestions for coping and adjusting and advice that empowers them to handle an array of emotions A Gift of Time Amy Kuebelbeck,Deborah L. Davis,2023-09-05 Now updated and expanded a gentle and comprehensive guide for parents expecting a baby with a prenatal diagnosis of a life limiting condition When prenatal testing reveals that a baby is expected to die before or shortly after birth many parents choose to proceed with the pregnancy and embrace the time they are able to have with their baby before birth as well as afterward With compassion and support A Gift of Time walks these parents step by step through this challenging and emotional experience from receiving the diagnosis to coping with the pregnancy and making plans for the baby s birth and peaceful death The second edition of this gentle guide offers inspiration and reassurance through the voices of numerous parents who have walked this path with their beloved baby Their moving experiences are stories not only of grief but of joy and peace This edition Expands the content substantially to incorporate new research and guidelines Features additional vignettes from more than 160 parents about their experiences and coping strategies Offers encouragement and more practical ideas for moving forward including updated guidance for decision making and ideas for embracing the time with the baby from before birth to after death Describes the importance of perinatal hospice and palliative care which has continued to grow worldwide since the first edition was published and how to access this care Drawing from parent experiences and published research this new edition is full of practical suggestions for parents as well as health care professionals Caring and thoughtful A Gift of Time helps parents navigate this difficult news and the journey that follows God's Word, Your World! 2010-2011 Kristine Neumayer Jenkins,2010-07-08 Perinatal and Pediatric Bereavement in Nursing and Other Health Professions Beth Perry Black,Patricia Moyle Wright,Rana Limbo,2015-09-10 This is a definitive state of the art resource for professionals who provide bereavement care to families when a baby or older child dies Culling the most important new evidence from scholars and practitioners worldwide it links theoretical knowledge and clinical practice recommendations to fill a gap in the current literature The text is distinguished by its provision of different and even competing perspectives that address the complexities of the tragic human experience of perinatal and pediatric death Expert contributors from the fields of nursing and other health professions disseminate new theoretical approaches and reexamine current concepts in light of new research They discuss the theoretical underpinnings of perinatal and pediatric bereavement examine current thought on the dimensions of loss deliver evidence based clinical interventions and offer the perspective of grieving families in regard to their experiences and needs Baby Doe H. William Taeusch, 2021-03-21 It's 1984 and after an unexpected pregnancy assistant professor Sophia Shulder learns that her newborn baby has Down syndrome and life threatening anomalies that require immediate risky surgeries Under pressure to give consent Sophia is not sure whether that is best for her baby or for herself The hospital threatened by the Reagan administration's new Baby Doe laws launches legal proceedings to force surgery Is a severely disabled baby's death ever preferable to life Who decides They Were Still Born Janel C. Atlas, 2010-12-16 Stillbirth defined as the death of an infant between 20 weeks gestation and birth is a tragedy repeated thirty thousand times every year in the United States That means more than eighty mothers a day feel their babies slip silently from their bodies the only sound in the delivery room their own sobs Eighty stillborn babies a day means heartbroken families mourn the death of children who will never breathe gurgle learn to walk or go to school In 2006 Janel Atlas became one of those mothers who left the hospital with empty arms her second daughter Beatrice Dianne was stillborn at 36 weeks Reaching out for comfort she realized a dire need shared by so many others like her and so was born a collection of new essays by writers each sharing their firsthand experiences with stillbirth Atlas includes selections not only from mothers but also fathers and grandparents all of whom have intimate stories to share with readers In addition there are selections that answer many of the medical questions families have in the wake of a stillbirth and that offer the latest research on this devastating loss and how it might be prevented Grieving parents will find in these pages the comfort of knowing they are not alone on this painful path validation of their babies' lives and guidance from those who have suffered this tragedy In addition They Were Still Born both inspires and shows readers how to honor and remember their own babies and stories of loss No parent or grandparent to be sets out planning to purchase They Were Still Born Unfortunately there will always be readers devastated grieving and searching for voices to help them through who need it Perinatal
