An Electronic Patient Referral Application: A Case Study from Zambia Niamh Darcy, Chris Kelley, Eileen Reynolds, Gordon Cressman, Wm. Perry Killam, 2010-03-30 Electronic medical records EMRs benefit health systems especially in low income developing countries EMR systems can give medical personnel access to patients records and can reduce time needed for data management and record keeping The report discusses the design implementation and results of an installed electronic perinatal patient referral system supporting health personnel who referred patients through a closed network Web based system in the Lusaka health district in Zambia It demonstrates how the patient referral module laid the groundwork for a larger EMR system Handbook of Research on Discourse Behavior and Digital Communication: Language Structures and Social Interaction Taiwo, Rotimi,2010-05-31 A compendium of over 50 scholarly works on discourse behavior in digital communication Sustainable Development and Planning VIII C.A. Brebbia,S.S. Zubir,A.S. Hassan,2017-01-30 The 8th International Conference on Sustainable Development and Planning is part of a series of biennial conferences on the topic of sustainable regional development which began in Greece in 2003 The papers included in these proceedings report on the latest advances from scientists specialising in the range of subjects included within sustainable development and planning Planners environmentalists architects engineers policy makers and economists have to work together in order to ensure that planning and development can meet our present needs without compromising the ability of future generations The use of modern technologies in planning gives us new potential to monitor and prevent environmental degradation Problems related to development and planning which affect both rural and urban areas are present in all regions of the world and accelerated urbanisation has resulted in both the deterioration of the environment and quality of life Urban development can also intensify problems faced by rural areas such as forests mountain regions and coastal areas which urgently require solutions in order to avoid irreversible damage The papers in the book cover the following topics City planning Regional planning Rural developments Sustainability and the built environment Sustainability indicators Policies and planning Environmental planning and management Energy resources Cultural heritage Quality of life Community planning and resilience Sustainable solutions in emerging countries Sustainable tourism Learning from nature Transportation Social and political issues and Community planning Not Ever Absent: Storytelling in Arts, Culture and Identity Formation ,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 Storytelling has always played a central role in the formation of cultures and communities All cultures define themselves and their place in the world through their stories Similarly our identities are largely constructed as narratives and it is with the aid of storytelling that we manage to conceive of ourselves our selves as meaningful wholes Thus storytelling is not ever absent it is to be found in literature social life in the places we visit and the buildings we live in This volume presents storytelling in various appearances from ancient myths and oral history to transmedia narratives and digital stories Different forms of narrative are analysed as is the use of storytelling as a method for e g counselling education and research Throughout twenty five chapters a compelling overview of recent research on the topic is provided both stressing the omnipresence of storytelling and exploring what storytelling is and isn't Mergers and Alliances in Higher Education Adrian Curaj,Luke Georghiou,Jennifer Cassingena Harper,Eva Egron-Polak,2015-03-31 This volume casts light on mergers and alliances in higher education by examining developments of this type in different countries It combines the direct experiences of those at the heart of such transformations university leaders and senior officials responsible for higher education policy with expert analysts of the systems concerned Higher education in Europe faces a series of major challenges The economic crisis has accelerated expectations of an increased role in addressing economic and societal challenges while at the same time putting pressure on available finances Broader trends such as shifting student demographics and expectations globalisation and mobility and new ways of working with business have contributed to these increased pressures In the light of these trends there have been moves both from national or regional agencies and from individual institutions to respond by combining resources either through collaborative arrangements or more fundamentally through mergers between two or more universities After an introductory chapter by the editors which establishes the context for mergers and alliances the book falls into two main parts Part 1 takes a national or regional perspective to give some sense of the historical context the wider drivers and the importance of these developments in these cases Included are both systemic accounts for countries as France Sweden Romania Russia Wales and England and specific cross cutting initiatives including a major facility at Magurele in Romania and a Spanish programme for promoting international campuses of excellence Part 2 is built from specific cases of universities either in mergers or alliances with examples from different countries such as France UK Romania Spain Germany Denmark Finland Switzerland A concluding chapter by the editors assesses these experiences and indicates the implications and future needs for understanding in this domain

Memoirs of a Born Free
Malaika Wa Azania, 2018-11-20 Apartheid isn't over so Malaika Wa Azania boldly argues in Memoirs of a Born Free her account of growing up black in modern day South Africa Malaika was born in late 1991 as the white minority government was on its way out making her a Born Free the name given to the generation born after the end of apartheid But Malaika's experience with institutionalized racism offers a view of South Africa that contradicts the implied racial liberation of the so called Rainbow Nation Recounting her upbringing in a black township racked by poverty and disease the death of a beloved uncle at the hands of white police and her alienation at multiracial schools she evokes a country still held in thrall by de facto apartheid She takes us through her anger and disillusionment with the myth of black liberation to the birth and development of her dedication to the black consciousness movement which continues to be a guiding force in her life A trenchant audacious and ultimately hopeful narrative Memoirs of a Born Free introduces an important new voice in South African and indeed global activism
