Yearbook National Institute for Policy and Strategic Studies (Nigeria),2016 Netherlands Yearbook of International Law 2019 Otto Spijkers,Wouter G. Werner,Ramses A. Wessel,2020-12-02 This volume of the Netherlands Yearbook of International Law NYIL is the fiftieth in the Series which means that the NYIL has now been with us for half a century The editors decided not to let this moment go by unnoticed but to devote this year s edition to an analysis of the phenomenon of yearbooks in international law Once the decision was made that this would be the subject of this year s NYIL the editors asked themselves a number of questions For instance Not many academic disciplines have yearbooks so what is the reason we do What is the added value of having a yearbook alongside the abundance of international law journals regular monographs and edited volumes that are published on a yearly basis Does the existence of yearbooks tell us something about who we are or who we think we are or what we have to contribute to the world These questions will be addressed both in a general and in a specific sense whereby a number of yearbooks published all over the world will be looked at in further detail The Netherlands Yearbook of International Law was first published in 1970 It offers a forum for the publication of scholarly articles in a varying thematic area of public international law The Social Imperative H. Koon Wee,2021-07-21 This book contains multiple short critiques reflections and manifestos affording each contributing architect and intellectual the time and space to imagine new social paradigms in China Emerging from a tumultuous history of high culture and complex territorial conditions there is nothing straightforward about the social development of China The complexity of the social practices developed by architects and shapers of the built environment can be explained in part by the last three decades of an intensified adoption of the market economy by the Communist Party of China after an equally short three decades of closed door communist control There is no political meltdown like the democratization of the former Communist Bloc but there is a constant managing of discontent and resistance across China At the apex of the many creative and intellectual forces in China architects harbor and give form to many tactics of resistance Unfortunately architects are also the instruments and minds complicit with profit mongering developers and governments pursuing unchecked urbanization degradation of the environment exploitation of the marginalized and the creation of a very inequitable China This book begins with an introduction that defines the forms and tendencies of China s society as it stands today and it positions the work of a small number of architects and intellectuals who are at the forefront of reforming rethinking and even revolutionizing the Chinese society Beneath the veneer of a very successful China that the world readily acknowledges a quiet revolution is taking place within the realms of architecture and the city The social architectural and urban theories documented in this book are organized around the established canons of social actions from mobilizing laboring resisting and mediating to networking controlling rationalizing and aestheticizing This book aims to put the social agenda squarely back in the rapid development of the built environment in China This publication is the culmination of a three year study of social issues in the architecture and cities of China It involved visits to sites undergoing massive change discussions and debates

among architects and critics reflections by practitioners about their own work and activists lobbying for social change Supported by the non profit AA Asia the edition of the contents relied heavily on original input and exchanges between architects and theorists committed to China from Asia and beyond Since the 1990s AA Asia remains one of a few unique think tanks committed to the study of architecture and cities in Asia As an advocacy with strong academic roots it seeks to establish the differences across various postcolonial and Asian contexts and recalibrate the role of architecture in a technocratic era dominated by the global economy With Contributions of Robert Adams Lee Ambrozy Yung Ho Chang Chen Ling Jeremy Chia Cui Kai Dong Gong Dong Yugan Mario Gandelsonas Han Tao Andrei Harwell He Jianxiang Hu Yan Hua Li Huang Weiwen Huang Wenjing Jiang Jun Jeffrey Johnson Michael Kokora Kengo Kuma Andrew Lee Joan Leung Lye Li Han Li Hu Li Shiqiao Nartano Lim William S W Lim Liu Jiakun Liu Kecheng Liu Yichun Long Ying Ma Qingyun Robert Mangurian Meng Yan Ou Ning Alan Plattus Mary Ann Ray Daan Roggeveen Ruan Hao Eunice Seng Shi Jian Victor Su Sun Yimin Wang Fei Wang Shu Wang Yan H Koon Wee Shirley Woo Wu Gang Wu Liangyong Xu Tiantian Rocco Yim Yu Kongjian Zhang Ke Zhao Liang Zhou Yi Zhu Tao Zhu

Nicol,2019-11-04 The North American Arctic addresses the emergence of a new security relationship within the North American North It focuses on current and emerging security issues that confront the North American Arctic and that shape relationships between and with neighbouring states Alaska in the US Yukon Northwest Territories and Nunavut in Canada Greenland and Russia Identifying the degree to which domain awareness has redefined the traditional military focus while a new human rights discourse undercuts traditional ways of managing sovereignty and territory the volume s contributors question normative security arrangements Although security itself is not an obsolete concept our understanding of what constitutes real human centred security has become outdated The contributors argue that there are new regionally specific threats originating from a wide range of events and possibilities and very different subjectivities that can be brought to understand the shape of Arctic security and security relationships in the twenty first century Artificial Intelligence for Knowledge Management Eunika Mercier-Laurent, 2020-07-15 This book features a selection of extended papers presented at the 6th IFIP WG 12.6 International Workshop on Artificial Intelligence for Knowledge Management AI4KM 2018 held in Stockholm Sweden in July 2018 in the framework of the International Joint Conference on Artificial Intelligence IJCAI 2018 The 11 revised and extended papers were carefully reviewed and selected for inclusion in this volume They present new research and innovative aspects in the field of knowledge management such as machine learning knowledge models KM and Web knowledge capturing and learning and KM and AI intersections

Cross-border Marriages and Mobility Avital Binah-Pollak, 2025-10-01 Cross border Marriages and Mobility Female Chinese Migrants and Hong Kong Men focuses on cross border marriages between mainland Chinese women and Hong Kong men a phenomenon which is of critical importance to the transformation of Hong Kong By examining the women s motivations for migration and lived experiences in relation to the discursive political economic and social circumstances of mainland China and Hong Kong Avital Binah Pollak demonstrates how these marital practices are causing the expanding and blurring of borders so that there is a much wider strip of border in which the dichotomies of the rural urban periphery center and hybrid national identities become more complex and negotiable While this is particularly interesting and valid in the case of the border between mainland China and Hong Kong because of the particular nature of the relationship between these two societies it may also apply to borders between many other societies worldwide This book focuses on cross border marriages between mainland Chinese women and Hong Kong men a phenomenon which is of critical importance to the transformation of Hong Kong World Cities and Nation States Greg Clark, Tim Moonen, 2016-12-19 World Cities and Nation States takes a global perspective to show how national governments and states provinces regions continue to play a decisive and often positive partnership role with world cities The 16 chapter book comprised of two introductory chapters 12 central chapters that draw on case studies and two summary chapters draws on over 40 interviews with national ministers city government officials business leaders and expert academics From Summits to Solutions Hiroshi Kato, Raj M. Desai, Homi Kharas, 2018-07-24 A positive agenda for achieving the Sustainable Development Goals by 2030 All 193 member nations of the United Nations agreed in September 2015 to adopt a set of seventeen Sustainable Development Goals to be achieved by 2030 Each of the goals in such areas as education and health care is laudable in and of itself and governments and organizations are working hard on them But so far there is no overall positive agenda of what new things need to be done to ensure the goals are achieved across all nations In a search of fresh approaches to the longstanding problems targeted by the Sustainable Development Goals the Japan International Cooperation Agency and the Global Economy and Development program at Brookings mounted a collaborative research effort to advance implementation of Agenda 2030 This edited volume is the product of that effort The book approaches the UN s goals through three broad lenses The first considers new approaches to capturing value Examples include Nigeria s first green bonds practical methods to expand women s economic opportunities benchmarking to reflect business contributions to achieving the goals new incentives for investment in infrastructure and educational systems that promote cross sector problem solving The second lens entails new approaches to targeting places including oceans rural areas fast growing developing cities and the interlocking challenge of data systems including geospatial information generated by satellites The third lens focuses on updating governance broadly defined Issues include how civil society can align with the SDG challenge how an advanced economy like Canada can approach the goals at home and abroad what needs to be done to foster new approaches for managing the global commons and how can multilateral institutions for health and development finance evolve

Remaking the American College Campus Jonathan Silverman, Meghan M. Sweeney, 2016-10-03 The built and landscaped spaces of colleges and universities radiate and absorb the values of the cultures in which they were created As economic and political forces exert pressure on administrators and as our understanding of higher education shifts these spaces can transform dramatically Focusing on the utopian visions and the dystopian realities of American campus life this collection of new essays examines campus spaces from the perspective of those who live and work there Topics include disability sustainability first year writing underrepresented groups on campus online education adjunct labor and the way profit driven agendas have shaped colleges and universities

Violence, Discourse, and Politics in China's Uyghur Region Pablo A. Rodríguez-Merino, 2022-12-30 This book investigates how Uyghur related violent conflict and Uyghur ethnic minority identity religion and the Xinjiang region more broadly became constituted as a terrorism problem for the Chinese state Building on securitization theory Critical Terrorism Studies CTS and the scholarly definitional debate on terrorism it develops the concept of terroristization as a critical analytical framework for the study of historical processes of threat construction Investigating the violent events reported in Xinjiang since the early 1980s the evolving discursive patterns used by the Chinese state to make sense of violent incidents and the crackdown policies that the official terrorism discourse has legitimized the book demonstrates how the securitization and later terroristization of Xinjiang and the Uyghurs is the result of a discursive and political choice of the Chinese state The author reveals the contingent and unstable nature of such construction and how it problematizes the inevitability of the rationale behind China's war on terror that has prescribed a brutal crackdown as the most viable approach to governing the tensions that have historically characterized China's rule over the Turkic Muslim ethnic minorities in Xinjiang. This book will be of interest to scholars and students of the politics of contemporary China, security and ethnic minority issues, International Relations and Security, as well as those adopting discursive approaches to the study of security, notably those within the critical security and terrorism studies fields. OECD Environmental Performance Reviews: Estonia 2017 OECD, 2017-03-01.
