Yoruba Nine Centuries Of African Art And Thought:

Yoruba Henry John Drewal, John Pemberton, Rowland Abiodun, 1989 The Yoruba people of Nigeria and Benin over 15 million strong are heirs to one of the oldest and greatest artistic traditions in West Africa This text offers a look at Yoruba civilization Over 200 photographs illustrate rarely seen objects from museums and private collections Yoruba Henry John Drewal, John Pemberton, Rowland Abiodun, 1991 Yoruba Art and Language Rowland Abiodun, 2014-11-13 The Yoruba was one of the most important civilizations of sub Saharan Africa While the high quality and range of its artistic and material production have long been recognized the art of the Yoruba has been judged primarily according to the standards and principles of Western aesthetics In this book which merges the methods of art history archaeology and anthropology Rowland Abiodun offers new insights into Yoruba art and material culture by examining them within the context of the civilization s cultural norms and values and above all the Yoruba language Abiodun draws on his fluency and prodigious knowledge of Yoruba culture and language to dramatically enrich our understanding of Yoruba civilization and its arts The book includes a companion website with audio clips of the Yoruba language helping the reader better grasp the integral connection between art and language in Yoruba culture The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study Art and Risk in Ancient Yoruba Suzanne Preston Blier, 2015-04-06 This book examines the intersection of art risk and creativity in early African arts from the Yoruba center of Ife It offers a unique lens into one of Africa s most important and least understood early civilizations one whose historic arts have long been of interest to local residents and Westerners alike because of their tour de force visual power and technical complexity Sources and Methods in African History Toyin Falola, Christian Jennings, 2004 An overview of the ongoing methods used to understand African history Spurred in part by the ongoing re evaluation of sources and methods in research African historiography in the past two decades has been characterized by the continued branching and increasing sophistication of methodologies and areas of specialization The rate of incorporation of new sources and methods into African historical research shows no signs of slowing This book is both a snapshot of current academic practice and an attempt to sort through some of the problems scholars face within this unfolding web of sources and methods The book is divided into five sections each of which begins with a short introduction by a distinguished Africanist scholar The first section deals with archaeological contributions to historical research The second section examines the methodologies involved in deciphering historically accurate African ethnic identities from the records of the trans Atlantic slave trade The third section mines old documentary sources for new historical perspectives The fourth section deals with the method most often associated with African historians that of drawing historical data from oral tradition The fifth section is devoted to essays that present innovative sources and methods for African historical research Together the essays in this cutting edge volume represent the current state of the art in African historical research Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin Christian Jennings is a Doctoral Candidate in History at the University of Texas at Austin

Heroic Africans Alisa LaGamma, 2011 Issued in connection with an exhibition held Sept 20 2011 Jan 29 2012 Metropolitan Museum of Art New York and at the Rietberg Museum Zurich at later dates

Art and Religion in Africa Rosalind Hackett, 1998-10-01 Africa's religious and artistic traditions constitute a primary example of its intellectual and cultural vitality Artistic works play a vital role especially where oral traditions dominate in communicating ideas about the relationship between the human spiritual and natural worlds This work is a comparative study of Africa's visual and performing arts concentrating on their geographical material and gendered diversity and focusing on the relation of these arts to African religion The author combines ethnographic and art historical methodology but does not assume any prior knowledge of African art or African religion The text seeks a greater understanding of the philosophical and religious aspects of African art thus challenging western perceptions of what is important in terms of artistic representation This approach reveals the transformative capacities and multi dimensionality of African art The work also highlights the changes brought about by Christianity Islam and the newer religious movements in post colonial Africa

The Palgrave Handbook of African Social Ethics Nimi Wariboko, Toyin Falola, 2020-03-30 This Handbook provides a robust collection of vibrant discourses on African social ethics and ethical practices It focuses on how the ethical thoughts of Africans are forged within the context of everyday life and how in turn ethical and philosophical thoughts inform day to day living The essays frame ethics as a historical phenomenon best examined as a historical movement the dynamic ethos of a people rather than as a theoretical construct It thereby offers a bold incisive and fresh interpretation of Africa's ethical life and thought

Methodology, Ideology and Pedagogy of African Art Moyo Okediji, 2024-02-14 This edited volume including contributions from scholars with different areas of specialization investigates a broad range of methodologies ideologies and pedagogies focusing on the study of the art of Africa using theoretical reflections and applications from primitivism to metamodernism Chapters break the externally imposed boundaries of Africa related works beyond the conventional fragments of traditional contemporary and diaspora The contributions are significantly broad in their methodologies ideologies and pedagogical coverage yet they all address various aspects of African artistic creativity demonstrating the possibilities for analytical experiments that art history presents to scholars of the discipline today The w character of each approach is unique nevertheless each is useful toward a fuller understanding of African art studies as an independent aspect of art historical research that is a branch or bud of the larger family of art history The volume respects highlights and celebrates the distinctiveness of each methodical approach recognizing its contribution to the overall character or w of African art studies The book will be of interest to students in undergraduate or graduate intermediate or advanced courses as well as scholars in art history and African studies

African Art Alexandre Marc,1998-01-01 African artistic expression has helped to construct culture form social identity and support spiritual communication The choice of the World Bank s African collection for a catalogue stems from the recognition by many art experts that the Bank is home to a rich and valuable collection that deserves to be better known by staff representatives from member countries and the public at large The book displays African art from past to present African art at the World Bank and African art and society Santeria Enthroned David H. Brown,2003-10-15 Ever since its emergence in colonial era Cuba Afro Cuban Santer a or Lucum has displayed a complex dynamic of continuity and change in its institutions rituals and iconography In Santer a Enthroned David H Brown combines art history cultural anthropology and ethnohistory to show how Africans and their descendants have developed novel forms of religious practice in the face of relentless oppression Focusing on the royal throne as a potent metaphor in Santer a belief and practice Brown shows how negotiation among ideologically competing interests have shaped the religion s symbols rituals and institutions from the nineteenth century to the present Rich case studies of change in Cuba and the United States including a New Jersey temple and South Carolina s Oyotunji Village reveal patterns of innovation similar to those found among rival Yoruba kingdoms in Nigeria Throughout Brown argues for a theoretical perspective on culture as a field of potential strategies and usable pasts that actors draw upon to craft new forms and identities a perspective that will be invaluable to all students of the African Diaspora American Acemy of Religion Award for Excellence in the Study of Religion Analytical Descriptive Category

Yoruba Culture Kola Abimbola,2006 Masquerades in African Society Walter E. A. Van Beek,Harrie M. Leyten,2023 What is the meaning of masks and masquerades in African traditions and how can we understand their role in rituals and performances Why do we find masks in some African regions and not in others and what does this mask habitat say about the general dynamics of masquerades in Africa Though masks are among the most famous art icons of Africa exploration of their uses and the way in which they articulate social characteristics of African societies has been underexamined This book takes an anthropological perspective on the phenomenon of masquerades on the African continent to show how mask rituals are an integral part of African indigenous religions and societies and are informed by and linked to specific types of social and ecological conditions Having established the commonalities of mask rituals and a mask typology the authors look at the varieties of mask performances and the types of rituals in which masks function in rites of passage and in rituals of gender
