Reappraisals Tony Judt, 2008-04-17 Exhilarating brave and forthright The New York Times Book Review Perhaps the greatest single collection of thinking on the political diplomatic social and cultural history of the past century Forbes We have entered an age of forgetting Our world we insist is unprecedented wholly new The past has nothing to teach us Drawing provocative connections between a dazzling range of subjects from Jewish intellectuals and the challenge of evil in the recent European past to the interpretation of the Cold War and the displacement of history by heritage the late historian Tony Judt takes us beyond what we think we know of the past to explain how we came to know it showing how much of our history has been sacrificed in the triumph of myth making over understanding and denial over memory Reappraisals offers a much needed road map back to the historical sense we urgently need Judt s book Ill Fares the Land republished in 2021 featuring a new preface by bestselling author of Between the World and Me and The Water Dancer Ta Nehisi Coates

Children's Literature and Transnational Knowledge in Modern China Shih-Wen Sue Chen, 2019-04-29 This book examines the development of Chinese children s literature from the late Qing to early Republican era It highlights the transnational flows of knowledge texts and cultures during a time when children s literature in China and the West was developing rapidly Drawing from a rich archive of periodicals novels tracts primers and textbooks the author analyzes how Chinese children s literature published by Protestant missionaries and Chinese educators in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries presented varying notions of childhood. In this period of dramatic transition from the dynastic Qing empire to the new Republican China, young readers were offered different models of childhood, some of which challenged dominant Confucian ideas of what it meant to be a child. This volume sheds new light on a little explored aspect of Chinese literary history. Through its contributions to the fields of children's literature, book history, missionary history, and translation studies, it enhances our understanding of the negotiations between Chinese and Western cultures that shaped the publication and reception of Chinese texts for children.

Feminism and the Politics of Travel After the Enlightenment Yaël Schlick, 2012-01-12 Taking the Enlightenment and the feminist tradition to which it gave rise as its historical and philosophical coordinates, Feminism and the Politics of Travel After the Enlightenment explores the coincidence of feminist vindications and travel in the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries: the way travel's utopian dimension and feminism's utopian ideals have intermittently fed off each other in productive ways. Travel's gender politics is analyzed in the works of J. J. Rousseau, Mary Wollstonecraft, St. Phanie, F. Licit de Genlis, Germaine de Staël, Frances Burney, Flora Tristan, Suzanne Voilquin, Gustave Flaubert, George Sand, Robyn Davidson, and Sara Wheeler.

An Apology for Pictures Detlev Gohrbandt, 2024-11-25 Illustrierte Bücher sind für viele Kinder der Einstieg ins eigene Lesen, nachdem Oma oder Papa ihnen vorgelesen und ihren Leseappetit geweckt haben. Mit etwas Glück werden sie bald eifrige sprachgewandte und weltoffene Leser:innen. Die Bilder in einem gedruckten Text erleichtern den Zugang zu den sperrigen Buchstabenfolgen, indem sie ein Vorverständnis bereitstellen. Das gilt auch für erwachsene Leser:innen, denen das Lesen durch Illustrationen auf diese Weise attraktiv und gelingend wird, dass es bald zu ihrem Alltag gehört. So haben viele Menschen in der Zeit zwischen den Weltkriegen in Frankreich, Deutschland und Großbritannien immer öfter zu den in großer Zahl angebotenen preiswerten Büchern mit Holzschnitten gegriffen und sind selbst zu Leser:innen und Sammler:innen geworden. Die vergleichende Untersuchung dieser illustrierten Erzähltexte zeigt, wie verschieden die Entwicklung in den drei Ländern war, und bietet eine systematische Einführung in die verschiedenen Illustrationsformen und ihre Wechselwirkungen mit den Texten.

Youth and Memory in Europe Félix Krawatzek, Nina Friess, 2022-06-06 This volume contends that young individuals across Europe relate to their country's history in complex and often ambivalent ways. It pays attention to how both formal education and broader culture communicate ideas about the past and how young people respond to these ideas. The studies collected in this volume show that such ideas about the past are central to the formation of the group identities of nations, social movements, or religious groups. Young people express received historical narratives in new, potentially subversive ways. As young people tend to be more mobile and ready to interrogate their own roots than later generations, they selectively privilege certain aspects of their identities and their identification with their family or nation while neglecting others. This collection aims to correct the popular misperception that young people are indifferent towards history and prove instead that historical narratives are constitutive to their individual identities and their sense of belonging to something broader than themselves.

Enfants Terribles Susan Weiner, 2001 Weiner highlights the new importance of youth as a social category of identity in the context of the postwar explosion of the mass media and explores the ways in which girls both defined and disrupted this category

Between the Sheets Hannah Frydman, 2025-07-15 Between the Sheets reveals a space hidden in plain sight in Third Republican Paris where deviant sexualities and lives could be experimented with and financed despite republican attempts at growing and norming the population through the heterosexual family That space was the newspaper which was not simply a tool of normalization and a site of dominant discourse as it has frequently been imagined Reading between the lines Hannah Frydman shows how through the Belle poque classifieds the newspaper became a tool for living lives otherwise as information flowed from it not just vertically but also laterally facilitating person to person communication The sexual relationships exchanges and services enabled by this communication were far from utopian Surviving and thriving outside of social norms often required exploiting others Yet by attending to the lives and livelihoods enabled by the classifieds ethical or otherwise Between the Sheets demonstrates that thanks to new innovations in media technologies queer and nonnormative lives in this period were lived in the center as well as on the margins It was this centrality however that inspired efforts to place new moral controls on mass cultural forms and technologies After World War I in an interwar moment often characterized as one of sexual liberation the press's queerness was subjected to ever increasing surveillance and control with repercussions for press freedom writ large These repercussions echo into our age of social media with its promise of unfettered connection which inspires repressive legislation to keep sexuality and with it freedom in its crosshairs
