A Financial Revolution in the Habsburg Netherlands James D. Tracy, 2023-09-01 This book delves into the financial revolution that took place in the Habsburg Netherlands focusing specifically on the County of Holland from 1515 to 1565 It investigates the evolution of public debt with a particular emphasis on the introduction and widespread use of life term and perpetual annuities These financial instruments which became central to state borrowing were initially issued by the provincial parliaments and funded by taxes such as the annual bedde subsidy The study outlines how during the 1540s the government was able to induce provincial parliaments to create new taxes and annuities sparking the development of a voluntary market for state annuities in Holland Through a detailed examination of fiscal records and market practices the book highlights how these innovations reshaped the financial landscape of the region It explores how Holland despite being smaller and less populous than other provinces like Flanders became a leader in adopting long term public debt instruments In the 1550s ordinary citizens willingly invested unprecedented sums in state annuities marking a significant shift in public finance The study further traces the subsequent history of long term debt in the Dutch Republic linking these early developments to the financial revolution in England which would follow in the late 17th century This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1985

Shopping Spaces and the Urban Landscape in Early Modern Amsterdam, 1550-1850 Clé Lesger, 2025-10-01 In this study the appearance and location of shops in Amsterdam during the early modern period is linked to major changes in the urban economy the size and socio spatial distribution of its population and the structure of the urban grid Not only is there ample attention for the spatial distribution of shops across the urban landscape but for the first time it is also accurately charted what the exterior and interior of Amsterdam shops looked like and how they changed in the course of the centuries Partly as a result of this it has proved possible to give an impression of the ways in which retailers and customers interacted

Power and Urban Space in Pre-Modern Holland Clé Lesger, 2024-02-22 Cities and urban societies have many faces In this study the pre modern cities of Holland are presented as arenas where power relations between social classes are expressed in a more or less permanent appropriation of physical space and through discursive strategies The continuity of the power relations in the cities of Holland spanning centuries makes it urgent to look not only at the assumption of urban space as an expression of power relations within society but also at the contribution of this appropriation to the acceptance and continuity of the existing power relations in pre modern Holland Within this broad area extensive attention is paid to the very prominent and enduring appropriation of urban space in the field of housing the less permanent but violent appropriation of urban space during the public execution of scaffold punishments the maintenance of public order by civic militias and appropriation during riots and revolts In addition city descriptions maps and pictures of the pre modern cities of Holland are scrutinised for what they can reveal about the appropriation of urban spaces These themes each have an extensive historiography but they have never been brought together in an interpretative framework that fits in with Pierre Bourdieu's model of society and the work of especially John Allen on power until now

Metamorfose van stad en devotie Mariëlle Callenbach,Tom Gaens,Koen Goudriaan,Patrick Vlegels,2022-03-10 Tussen 1385 en 1435 groeide Amsterdam van een klein maar ambitieus stadje aan de Amstel uit tot een middelgrote stad met internationale handelscontacten en pretenties Van een onbetekenend lokaal handelscentrum werd Amsterdam tot een gewilde partner van graven en een gevreesde vijand van de Hanzesteden Er kwamen nieuwe stadspoorten een nieuw stadhuis een nieuw marktplaats plein nieuwe straten en stegen Maar de meest markante verandering onderging de stad door een keur aan nieuwe kerkelijke religieuze en charitatieve gebouwen die vanaf de late veertiende eeuw verrezen Van n naar twee parochiekerken van drie naar vijf stadskapellen van n naar zes gasthuizen en als meest prominent fenomeen van nul naar zestien kloosters In dit boek belicht Bas de Melker deze nieuwe stichtingen Zij kunnen onmogelijk los gezien worden van de mentaliteits en gedragsveranderingen van de poorter vooral wat betreft de wijze waarop hij zijn geloof beleefde en daaraan uiting gaf In de halve eeuw die in dit boek centraal staat veranderde hier misschien wel evenveel in als in de voor ons zichtbare ruimtelijke wereld van de stad zelf De vraag welke wisselwerking er bestond tussen de metamorfose van de devotie en die van de stad staat centraal
