Walter Benjamin's Antifascist Education Tyson E. Lewis, 2020-02-01 Walter Benjamin s Antifascist Education is the first comprehensive analysis of educational themes across the entirety of the critical theorist s diverse writings Starting with Benjamin s early reflections on teaching and learning Tyson E Lewis argues that the aesthetic and cultural forms to which Benjamin so often turned namely radio broadcasts children s theatrical productions collections cityscapes public cinemas and word games swell with educational potentialities What emerges from Lewis s reading is a constellational curriculum composed of minor practices such as poor teaching absentminded learning and nondurational studying This curriculum carries political significance offering an antidote to past and present forms of fascist manipulation hardness and coldness Walter Benjamin s Antifascist Education is a testimony to Benjamin s belief that everyone is an educator and everyone needs to be educated and everything is education Totalitarian Space and the Destruction of Aura Saladdin

Ahmed, 2019-02-14 We live today within a system in which state and corporate power aim to render space flat transparent and uniform for only then can it be truly controlled The gaze of power and the commodity form are capable of infiltrating even the darkest of corners and often we invite them into our most private spaces We do so as a matter of convenience but also to placate ourselves and cope with the alienation inherent in our everyday lives The resulting dominant space can best be termed totalitarian It is space stripped of uniqueness deprived of the spatial aura necessary for authentic experience In Totalitarian Space and the Destruction of Aura Saladdin Ahmed sets out to help us grasp what has been lost before no trace remains He draws attention to that which we might prefer not to see but despite the bleakness of this indictment of reality the book also offers a message of hope Namely it is only once we comprehend the magnitude of the threat to our spatial experience and our own complicity in sustaining this system that we can begin to resist the totalizing forces at work

Wanted, More than Human Intellectual Property Johanna Gibson, 2024-12-27 This book analyses animal creativity in order to unsettle the dominant assumptions that underpin current ideas of authorship and ownership in intellectual property Drawing upon theories of animal behaviour and cognitive ethology the book exposes and disrupts the anthropocentrism that informs prevailing assumptions about creativity intentionality and authorship within the field of intellectual property towards a new theory of authorship and personhood through play and the playful Moving on to challenge the invocation of a more general human nonhuman distinction in this context the book also engages the challenge to this distinction posed by artificial intelligence Incorporating critical animal studies behavioural science ethology critical legal studies and legal philosophy the book presents a new idea of creativity which undermines the kind of rivalrous models now common in the field of intellectual property This book will be of considerable interest to those studying and teaching in the area of intellectual property as well as in animal law It will also appeal to legal theorists and others working in the social sciences in the areas of posthumanism and animal studies Adorno's Critique of Political Economy Dirk Braunstein,2022-11-21 To this day there persists a widespread assumption that Adorno s references to Marx and especially to Marx s critique of political economy represent a relic from an early and short lived stage of Adorno s theoretical development On the basis of relevant and largely unpublished textual sources this book refutes this thesis while showing that the centre of Adorno s critical theory of society is occupied by a critique not only of political economy but of economy in general Faulkner, Aviation, and Modern War

Michael Zeitlin,2021-12-02 Faulkner Aviation and Modern War frames William Faulkner s airplane narratives against major scenes of the early 20th century the Great War the rise of European fascism in the 1920s and 30s the Second World War and the aviation arms race extending from the Wright Flyer in 1903 into the Cold War era Placing biographical accounts of Faulkner s time in the Royal Air Force Canada against analysis of such works as Soldiers Pay 1926 All the Dead Pilots 1931 Pylon 1935 and A Fable 1954 this book situates Faulkner s aviation writing within transatlantic historical contexts that have not been sufficiently appreciated in Faulkner s work Michael Zeitlin unpacks a broad selection of Faulkner s novels stories film treatments essays book reviews and letters to outline Faulkner s complex and ambivalent relationship to the ideologies of masculine performance and martial heroism in an age dominated by industrialism and military technology Screening

Fears Francesco Casetti,2023-08-15 A historical and theoretical investigation of the unexpected ways screen based media protect and excite viewers fears and anxieties of the world In this brilliant contribution to contemporary media studies acclaimed theorist Francesco Casetti advances a provocative hypothesis instead of being prostheses that expand or extend our perceptions modern screen based media are in fact apparatuses that shelter and protect us from exposure to the world Rather than bringing us closer to external reality dominant forms of visual media function as barriers or enclosures that defend against the apparent threats and dangers that seem increasingly to surround us Working with an original historical overview that begins with the Phantasmagoria of the late eighteenth century then the shared interior spaces of the movie theater in the early to mid twentieth century and finally the solitary digital milieus of the present Casetti traces the outlines of the protective bubbles that disconnect us from our immediate surroundings To be provided with a shield of immunity to the hazards and uncertainties of the world while experiencing them at a safe remove might seem a positive development But he asks what if these media instead of providing invulnerability ensnare individuals in a suffocating enclosure What if in their effort to keep reality under control they exercise a violence equal to that of the dangers they resist In a dialectical exercise and through a vivid range of cultural artifacts Screening Fears traces the emergence of modern protective media and the way they changed our forms of mediation with the world in which we live Design Issues ,2009 Selected Writings: 1927-1934 - Walter Benjamin - Vol. 2 Marcus Bullock,1996 Selected Writings: 1927-1934 Walter Benjamin,1996
