Homer: Iliad Book VI Homer, Barbara Graziosi, Johannes Haubold, 2010-11-04 The first commentary in English entirely devoted to the Iliad Book 6 illuminating some of the best loved episodes in the whole poem Homer: Iliad Book VI

Barbara Graziosi, Johannes Haubold, 2010-11-04 The sixth book of the Iliad includes some of the most memorable and best loved episodes in the whole poem it holds meaning and interest for many different people not just students of ancient Greek Book 6 describes how Glaucos and Diomedes though fighting on opposite sides recognise an ancient bond of hospitality and exchange gifts on the battlefield It then follows Hector as he enters the city of Troy and meets the most important people in his life his mother Helen and Paris and finally his wife and baby son It is above all through the loving and fraught encounter between Hector and Andromache that Homer exposes the horror of war This edition is suitable for undergraduates at all levels and students in the upper forms of schools The Introduction requires no knowledge of Greek and is intended for all readers interested in Homer Homer in the Twentieth Century Barbara Graziosi, Emily Greenwood, 2010-07-29 This collection of essays explores the crucial place of Homer in the shifting cultural landscape of the twentieth century It argues that Homer was viewed both as the founding father of the Western literary canon and as sharing important features with poems performances and traditions which were often deemed neither literary nor Western the epics of Yugoslavia and sub Saharan Africa the keening performances of Irish women the spontaneous inventiveness of the Blues The book contributes to current debates about the nature of the Western literary canon the evolving notion of world literature the relationship between orality and the written word and the dialogue between texts across time and space Homer in the Twentieth Century contends that the Homeric poems play an important role in shaping those debates and conversely that the experiences of the twentieth century open new avenues for the interpretation of Homer s much travelled texts Homer: A Guide for the

some previously published but revised for this collection and others appearing here in print for the first time offers literary interpretations of the Iliad the Odyssey and the Homeric Hymn to Aphrodite While some chapters closely study the diction meter style and thematic resonance of particular passages and episodes in the Iliad and the Odyssey others follow diverse pathways into the interpretation of the epics including mythological allusion intertextuality the metrics of the Homeric hexameter and the fundamental contrast between divinity and humanity Also included are two chapters which focus on the work of Milman Parry and Ioannis Kakridis founders of the two most fruitful twentieth century scholarly approaches to Homeric scholarship the study of the Iliad and the Odyssey as traditional oral formulaic poetry Parry and the study of the poems adaptations and transformations of traditional mythology folktales and poetic motifs in accordance with their distinctive themes and poetic purposes Kakridis The volume draws to a close with three chapters which discuss some of the most compelling poetic and critical receptions of the Iliad and the Odyssey since the late nineteenth century and the institutional reception of the epics in colleges and universities in the United States over the past two centuries Written over a period of 45 years this collection reflects the author's long standing interest in and scholarly and critical approaches to the literary interpretation of Homeric poetry

The Author's Voice in Classical and Late Antiquity Anna Marmodoro, Jonathan Hill, 2013-10-04 What significance does the voice or projected persona in which a text is written have for our understanding of the meaning of that text This volume explores the persona of the author in antiquity from Homer to late antiquity taking into account both Latin and Greek authors from a range of disciplines The thirteen chapters are divided into two main sections the first of which focuses on the diverse forms of writing adopted by various ancient authors and the different ways these forms were used to present and project an authorial voice The second part of the volume considers questions regarding authority and ascription in relation to the authorial voice In particular it looks at how later readers and later authors may understand the authority of a text's author or supposed author The volume contains chapters on pseudo epigraphy and fictional letters as well as the use of texts as authoritative in philosophical schools and the ancient ascription of authorship to works of art

The Metaphysics of Text Sukanta Chaudhuri, 2010-03-11 This book develops a stimulating new way of looking at texts with case studies from Western and Indian literature

"Cast in Later Grecian Mould", Quintus of Smyrna's Reception of Homer in the Posthomeric Vincent Edward Tomasso, 2010 This dissertation examines the relationship between the Homeric epics the Iliad and the Odyssey and Quintus of Smyrna's Posthomeric a 14 book epic of the third century CE It argues that Quintus bridges the narratives of the Iliad and the Odyssey and redeploys Homeric style in order to re-activate the cultural power of Homer under the Roman Empire The first chapter analyzes Quintus' depiction of the Muses The ways in which the goddesses are represented encodes the contemporary conflict of constructing a Greek identity as panhellenic or epichoric in the language of the past This demonstrates the Posthomeric s deep engagement with the position of Hellenism and its connection to the past The lack of an opening invocation to the Muses is part of Quintus strategy for tapping into Homeric power he connects the Iliad with the Posthomeric but also respects the boundaries of the Homeric text The second chapter explores how Quintus occasionally draws his audience s gaze away from the primary narrative of the heroic past and towards their own present This is done through landscapes a simile involving the arena Odysseus testudo maneuver and Calchas prophecy about the Roman empire These passages fuse the two time frames together which implicates the past in the construction of the present In the third chapter specific nodes of intertextuality between the Posthomeric and the Iliad Odyssey are the primary focus It is argued that the intertextual web is incomplete and that the audience must engage their education paideia to fill in the narrative gaps This engages them in creating a Hellenic identity from the narratives of the past with knowledge derived from the present The fourth chapter contextualizes Quintus with other hexameter poets of the first through fourth centuries CE who treated the Trojan War narrative including Nestor and Pisander of Laranda Triphiodorus and hexameter papyrus fragments
