Marine Corps Doctrinal Publication MCDP 1 Warfighting April 2018 United States Governmen

Us Marine Corps,2020-06-07 This is United States Marine Corps Doctrinal Publication MCDP 1 Warfighting April 2018 which describes the philosophy which distinguishes the U S Marine Corps The thoughts contained here are not merely guidance for action in combat but a way of thinking This publication provides the authoritative basis for how we fight and how we prepare to fight This book contains no specific techniques or procedures for conduct Rather it provides broad guidance in the form of concepts and values It requires judgment in application Warfighting is not meant as a reference manual it is designed to be read from cover to cover Its four chapters have a natural progression Chapter 1 describes our understanding of the characteristics problems and demands of war Chapter 2 derives a theory about war from that understanding This theory in turn provides the foundation for how we prepare for war and how we wage war chapters 3 and 4 respectively Publication Control Number PCN 142 000006 01 Marine Corps Doctrinal Publication Mcdp 1 Warfighting 20 June 1997 Us Marine Corps,2016-10-08 Very simply this publication describes the philosophy which distinguishes the U S Marine Corps The thoughts contained here are not merely guidance for action in combat but a way of thinking This publication provides the authoritative basis for how we fight and how we prepare to fight This book contains no specific techniques or procedures for conduct Rather it provides broad guidance in the form of concepts and values It requires judgment in application Warfighting is not meant as a reference manual it is designed to be read from cover to cover Its four chapters have a natural progression Chapter 1 describes our understanding of the characteristics problems and demands of war Chapter 2 derives a theory about war from that understanding This theory in turn provides the foundation for how we prepare for war and how we wage war chapters 3 and 4 respectively Marine Corps Doctrinal Publication McDp 6 Command and Control 4 October 1996 United States Marine Corps,2017-02-14 Marine Corps Doctrinal Publication MCDP 6 Command and Control 4 October 1996 This doctrinal publication describes a theory and philosophy of command and control for the U S Marine Corps Put very simply the intent is to describe how we can reach effective military decisions and implement effective military actions faster than an adversary in any conflict setting on any scale In so doing this publication provides a framework for all Marines for the development and exercise of effective command and control in peace in crisis or in war This publication represents a firm commitment by the Marine Corps to a bold even fundamental shift in the way we will view and deal with the dynamic challenges of command and control in the information age The Marine Corps view of command and control is based on our common understanding of the nature of war and on our warfighting philosophy as described in Fleet Marine Force Manual 1 Warfighting to be superseded by Marine Corps Doctrinal Publication 1 Warfighting It takes into account both the timeless features of war as we understand them and the implications of the ongoing information explosion that is a consequence of modern technology Since war is fundamentally a clash between independent hostile wills our doctrine for command and control accounts for animate enemies actively interfering with our plans and actions to further their own aims Since we recognize the turbulent nature of war our doctrine provides for fast flexible and decisive action in a complex environment characterized by friction uncertainty fluidity and rapid change Since we recognize that equipment is but a means to an end and not the end itself our doctrine is independent of any particular technology Taking a broad view that accounts first for the human factors central in war this doctrine provides a proper framework for designing appraising and deploying hardware as well as other components of command and control support This doctrinal publication applies across the full range of military actions from humanitarian assistance on one extreme to general war on the other It applies equally to small unit leaders and senior commanders Moreover since any activity not directly a part of warfighting is part of the preparation for war this doctrinal publication is meant to apply also to the conduct of peacetime activities in garrison as well as in the field This publication provides the authority for the subsequent development of command and control doctrine education training equipment facilities procedures and organization This doctrinal publication provides no specific techniques or procedures for command and control rather it provides broad guidance which requires judgment in application Other publications in the command and control series will provide specific tactics techniques and procedures for performing various tasks MCDP 5 Planning discusses the planning side of command and control more specifically Operation VERBAL IMAGE the short story with which this publication begins offers a word picture of command and control in action done well and done poorly and illustrates various key points that appear in the text It can be read separately or in conjunction with the rest of the text Chapter 1 works from the assumption that in order to develop an effective philosophy of command and control we must first come to a realistic appreciation for the nature of the process and its related problems and opportunities Based on this understanding chapter 2 discusses theories of command and control looking at the subject from various aspects such as leadership information management and decisionmaking Building on the conclusions of the preceding chapters chapter 3 describes the basic features of the Marine Corps approach to command and control
