

The background of the book cover features a collection of green Depression glass items. On the left is a tall, fluted glass tumbler with a textured pattern. In front of it is a smaller, similar glass. To the right is a large, ornate glass butter dish with a lid and a decorative knob. In the foreground, there is a large, flat glass platter with a scalloped edge and a central decorative motif. The items are arranged on a light-colored surface against a light blue background.
