Ways Power Of Love Techniques Of Moral Transformation:

Ways & Power Of Love Pitirim A. Sorokin, 2002-03-04 The Ways and Power of Love was originally published in 1954 when Pitirim Sorokin was in the twilight of his career and leading the Harvard Research Center in Creative Altruism His elaborate scientific analysis of love with regard to its higher and lower forms its causes and effects its human and cosmic significance and its core features constitutes the first study on this topic in world literature to date Sorokin was the one absolutely essential twentieth century pioneer in the study of love at the interface of science and religion Bringing The Ways and Power of Love back into print allows a new generation of readers to appreciate Sorokin s genius and to move forward with his endeavor at a time when civilization itself continues to be threatened by a marked inability to live up to the ideal of love for all humankind It is certainly right to hope with Sorokin that progress in knowledge about love can move humanity forward to a better future Turning the sciences toward the study of love is no easy task but it can and must be done The

Ways and Power of Love Pitirim Aleksandrovič Sorokin (Soziologe), 1957 The Ways and Power of Love Pitirim Aleksandrovich Sorokin, 1957 The Ways and Power of Love, Types, Factors and Techniques of Moral Transformation, by Pitirim A. Sorokin Pitirim Aleksandrovič Sorokin, 1954 Love and Sexuality in Social Theory Emiliano

Bevilacqua, Mariano Longo, Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2024-11-27 Love and Sexuality in Social Theory considers the role that love and sexuality play in private and public life Drawing on both classical and contemporary social theory this book presents both theoretical and empirical studies of love and sexuality as social factors from the earliest reconstructions of modern emotional life to the most recent analyses of liquid love With attention to the consequences that passions and desires have both on morals and behaviour it departs from the analysis of society in terms of the division of labour and utilitarian mechanisms to consider how a society based on performances values human energy and emotional behaviour in a contradictory way This book therefore presents and discusses classic authors from Georg Simmel and Pitirim Sorokin to Marianne Weber and Simone De Beauvoir through the work of Erving Goffman and ending with contemporary authors such as Michel Foucault Anthony Giddens Zygmunt Bauman Ulrich Beck and Eva Illouz By presenting love as the social foundation of altruism an essential element in modern conceptions of subjectivity and a force shaping intimacy and contemporary social life this book will appeal to scholars of sociology particularly those interested in social theory and the sociology of emotions

Defining Love Thomas Jay Oord, 2010-06-01 Some scientific studies suggest that human beings are innately selfish and that Christian virtues like self sacrifice are a delusion In this intriguing volume esteemed theologian Thomas Jay Oord interprets the scientific research and responds from a theological and philosophical standpoint providing a state of the art overview of love and altruism studies He offers a definition of love that is scientifically theologically and philosophically adequate As Oord helps readers arrive at a clearer understanding of the definition recipients and forms of love he mounts a case for Christian agape and ultimately for a loving God Love in Contemporary Technoculture Ania

Malinowska,2022-03-31 This Element outlines the environments of loving in contemporary technoculture and explains the changes in the manner of feelings including the experience of senses spaces and temporalities in technologically mediated relationships Synchronic and retrospective in its approach this Element defines affection romance companionship intimacy etc in the reality marked by the material and affective intangibility that has emerged from the rise of digitalism and technological advancement Analysing the re constructions of intimacy it describes our sensual and somatic experiences in conditions where the human body believed to be extending itself by means of the media and technological devices is in fact the extension of the media and their technologies It is a study that outlines shifts and continuums in the practices of togetherness and which critically rereads late modern paradigms of emotional and affective experiences filling a gap in the existing critical approaches to technological and technologized love Marriage and the Family Julie Xuemei Hu,Shondrah Tarrezz Nash,2019-04-23 Marriage and the Family Mirror of a Diverse Global Society is a comprehensive text about marriage and the family in sociology family science and diversity studies The book is divided into four parts studying marriage patterns and understanding family diversity developing and maintaining intimate relationships tackling family issues and managing household crises and appreciating contemporary living arrangements in a diverse American society and across the global community Marriage and the Family is unique in its focus on diversity as well as its global perspective Diversity Overview boxes feature vignettes of family diversity in America Global Overview boxes invite students to experience family life in different areas of the world Indeed families become a mirror that helps students see a diversifying American society and a globalizing world The Heart of Religion Matthew T. Lee,Margaret M. Poloma,Stephen G. Post,2013-01-10 Drawing on a random survey of 1 200 men and women across the United States this book sheds new light on how Americans wake up to the reality of divine love and how that transformative experience expresses itself in concrete acts of benevolence Godly Love Matthew T. Lee,Amos Yong,2012-03-01 Godly Love Impediments and Possibilities examines the theory of Godly Love understood as including a vertical axis denoting the love of God and a horizontal axis involving the love of others is at the core of a new field of research that studies how divine love influences the love of others and vice versa It is a multidisciplinary research program into the benevolent expressions of the Great Commandment of the Christian tradition involving the theological and social sciences Theological and social scientific essays that ask why there is not more Godly Love in this world and what might be done to change the situation This book focuses on the problems confronting challenging prohibiting and perhaps even resisting the concrete expression of Godly Love in the world utilizing a range of theological and especially social scientific methodologies
