The Way The Hen Kicks:

The South Pole: An Account of the Norwegian Antarctic Expedition in the "Fram" 1910-12 □ Volumes 1 and 2

Roald Amundsen, 2020-09-28 On February 10 1911 we started for the South to establish depots and continued our journey until April 11 We formed three depots and stored in them 3 tons of provisions including 22 hundredweight of seal meat As there were no landmarks we had to indicate the position of our depots by flags which were posted at a distance of about four miles to the east and west The first barrier afforded the best going and was specially adapted for dog sledging Thus on February 15 we did sixty two miles with sledges Each sledge weighed 660 pounds and we had six dogs for each The upper barrier surface was smooth and even There were a few crevasses here and there but we only found them dangerous at one or two points The barrier went in long regular undulations The weather was very favourable with calms or light winds The lowest temperature at this station was 49 F which was taken on March 4 When we returned to winter quarters on February 5 from a first trip we found that the Fram had already left us With joy and pride we heard from those who had stayed behind that our gallant captain had succeeded in sailing her farther south than any former ship So the good old Fram has shown the flag of Norway both farthest north and farthest south The most southerly latitude reached by the Fram was 78 41 Before the winter set in we had 60 tons of seal meat in our winter quarters this was enough for ourselves and our 110 dogs We had built eight kennels and a number of connecting tents and snow huts When we had provided for the dogs we thought of ourselves Our little hut was almost entirely covered with snow Not till the middle of April did we decide to adopt artificial light in the hut This we did with the help of a Lux lamp of 200 candle power which gave an excellent light and kept the indoor temperature at about 68 F throughout the winter The ventilation was very satisfactory and we got sufficient fresh air The hut was directly connected with the house in which we had our workshop larder storeroom and cellar besides a single bathroom and observatory Thus we had everything within doors and easily got at in case the weather should be so cold and stormy that we could not venture out

Not Just for Kicks Lee Reynolds,Angela Elwood,2007-03-21 Two eleven year olds Beth and Suzy become soul mates through their passion for dancing In the hedonistic days of the mid sixties they bring chaos and laughter to the harsh world of show business Time passes and 20 years on Beth reaches a crisis in her life and realising she needs her dearest friend the search for Suzy begins Alive and Kicking David Bryce,2011-11-04 From running with the infamous Calton Tongs to running Calton Athletic David Bryce s life story is a remarkable account of crime violence alcoholism and drug addiction in Glasgow s gangland A respected hard man Bryce worked his way through most of HM s prisons in Scotland before an epiphany in 1977 made him realise that he was a hopeless alcoholic who needed help A five year battle followed during which he sank into the abyss of heroin addiction before finally getting clean In 1985 in an effort to help others who were struggling against substance abuse Bryce set up Calton Athletic a football team and social group made up solely of recovering drug addicts Reformed gangster Jimmy Boyle was one of the first to have faith in Bryce and Calton Athletic but the club eventually won widespread respect Gordon Brown then a young MP was so impressed that he wrote an article for The Observer which led to a TV film starring Lenny Henry and Robbie Coltrane In the 90s Ewan McGregor Irvine Welsh and the Trainspotting crew sought Bryce s advice and friendship during the making of the internationally acclaimed cult film while Robbie Williams begged to switch nationality and play for Calton Athletic in an England v Scotland celebrity charity match Bryce s uncompromising belief that the only way to come off drugs is to go cold turkey and stay completely clean saw him clash with government agencies over the harm reduction policy of recent years The club s statutory funding was withdrawn in 1998 but today Calton Athletic are still providing an invaluable lifeline while the official drugs policy has become increasingly discredited Alive and Kicking is an inspirational tale of survival and success against the odds The South Pole
