The Women Of Brewster Place Penguin Contemporary American Fiction Series:

The Women of Brewster Place Gloria Naylor, 2021-05-11 The National Book Award winning novel and contemporary classic that launched the brilliant career of Gloria Naylor now with a foreword by Tayari Jones A shrewd and lyrical portrayal of many of the realities of black life Naylor bravely risks sentimentality and melodrama to write her compassion and outrage large and she pulls it off triumphantly The New York Times Book Review Brims with inventiveness and relevance NPR's Fresh Air In her heralded first novel Gloria Naylor weaves together the stories of seven women living in Brewster Place a bleak inner city sanctuary creating a powerful moving portrait of the strengths struggles and hopes of black women in America Vulnerable and resilient openhanded and openhearted these women forge their lives in a place that in turn threatens and protects a common prison and a shared home Naylor renders both loving and painful human experiences with simple eloquence and uncommon intuition in this touching and unforgettable read The Women of Brewster Place Gloria Naylor, 1994

The Other Black Church Joseph L. Tucker Edmonds, 2020-12-02 The Other Black Church Alternative Christian Movements and the Struggle for Black Freedom examines the movements led by Father Divine Charles Mason and Albert Cleage later known as Jaramogi Abebe Agyeman as alternative Christian movements in the middle of the twentieth century that radically re envisioned the limits and possibilities of Black citizenship These movements not only rethink the value and import of Christian texts and reimagined the role of the Black Christian prophetic tradition but they also outlined a new model of protest that challenged the language and logic of Black essentialism economic development and the role of the state By placing these movements in conversation with the long history of Black theology and Black religious studies this book suggests that alternative Christian movements are essential for thinking about African American critiques of and responses to the failures of U S based democracy These prophets of Black theological thought and their attention to the limits of the state and traditional Black religious formations are most fully appreciated when studied in light of their conversations and interactions with other key Black prophetic and theological figures of the mid twentieth century Ultimately The Other Black Church will use those conversations and archives from these movements to highlight their protest of the racial state to explore the limits of the Black church and to argue for their continued significance for thinking about the variety and vibrancy of Black protest specifically Black religious protest during the twentieth century The Encyclopedia

Memories of Africa Toyin Falola, 2023-03-24 2023 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Memories of Africa Home and Abroad in the United States suggests a new lens for viewing African Diaspora studies the experiences of African memoirists who live in the United States The book shows how African Diaspora memoirs beautifully and grippingly depict the experiences of African migrants over time through political social and cultural spheres In reading African Diaspora memoirs from the transatlantic slave trade period to the present a reader can understand the complexity of the African migrant legacy and evolution Author Toyin Falola argues that memoirs are significant not only in their interpretation of events conveyed by the memoirists but also in demonstrating how interpersonal and human the stories told can be Memoirs are powerful because they are emotionally captivating and because important themes and events circulate around a particular person in this case the memoirist Undoubtedly a memoir is significant because it can teach anyone about a part of the human experience even if the facts are not described without bias Through this sort of narrative the reader cannot help but enter into the memoirist's mind and therefore feel more empathy for them In doing so the reader can feel what the memoirist feels and see what the memoirist sees as clearly as is humanly possible In this way the historical events and life lessons become tangible and poignantly real to the reader Contemporary American Women Writers Lois Parkinson Zamora, 2017-09-29 This collection brings together critical essays that examine questions of identity and community in the fiction of contemporary American women writers among them Alice Walker Toni Morrison and Sandra Cisneros The essays consider how identities and societies are dramatized in particular works of fiction and how these works reflect cultural communities outside the fictional frame often the communities in which their authors live and work The essays included here concern fictional representations of African American Latino Asian American Native American Anglo and Euro American communities and their working interactions in the multicultural United States Each critic asks in his or her own way how a particular writer transforms her social grounding into language and literature The introduction includes an overview of the range of literary criticism devoted to contemporary American women writers and an extensive bibliography of complementary critical readings is provided to encourage further study Undergraduate and postgraduate students of contemporary literature will find the text an invaluable guide to contemporary women's writing in America and the range of criticism that this has given rise to Black Enterprise, 1985-08 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Library Journal, 1994

Performing La Mestiza Ellen M. Gil-Gomez, 2017-10-06 This book first published in 2000 explores the intersections of race gender and gay identities in writings by contemporary American lesbians of colour in order to show how this subject is sometimes ignored sometimes brutalised and is very rarely able to survive on her own terms by constructing her own identity acts of cultural revision The author places the lesbian of colour in the context of current identity theories showing the ever present blind spots within current theoretical paradigms she then reads a variety of writings by lesbians of colour describing the possibilities that exist for these subjects in textual and social realities The author shows the varied communities that threaten the existence of this subject as well as the limits that dictate the subject's ability to create her self By bridging Judith Butler's Gender Trouble and Gloria Anzaldua's New Mestiza she describes how lesbians of colour can survive numerous sites of hostility by constructing a positive identity within her home community through revising cultural traditions and history After considering the power of these acts of revision the author calls for the empowered performance of the mestiza state the state of contradiction wherein the lesbian of colour finds herself This book is the first to analyse creative and theoretical works by African American Asian American Latina and Native American communities and writers through the lens of lesbian studies Authors include recognised figures such as Audre Lorde Ana Castillo and Paula Gunn Allen as well as lesser known authors like Best Brant Natasha Lopez and Willyce Kim It provides a corrective to Butler's empowering but essentially white vision of performing identity so that lesbians of colour can claim their identities and remain tied to their own cultural traditions Ultimately the author asks for a reconsideration of the value of identity studies that articulate monolithic identities and whose analyses perpetuate what they seek to disrupt The Tragedy and Comedy of Resistance Carole Anne Taylor, 2017-01-30 A major contribution to literary and cultural studies bold illuminating and persuasively argued Karla Holloway Duke University Books in Series , 1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Heterosexual Plots and Lesbian Narratives Marilyn Farwell, 1996 What is lesbian literature Must it contain overtly lesbian characters and portray them in a positive light Must the author be overtly or covertly lesbian Does there have to be a lesbian theme and must it be politically acceptable Marilyn Farwell here examines the work of such writers as Adrienne Rich Marion Zimmer Bradley Jeanette Winterson Gloria Naylor and Marilyn Hacker to address these questions Dividing their writings into two genres the romantic story and the heroic or quest story Farwell addresses some of the most problematic issues at the intersection of literature sex gender and postmodernism Illustrating how the generational conflict between the lesbian feminists of twenty years ago and the queer theorists of today stokes the critical fires of contemporary lesbian and literary theory Heterosexual Plots and Lesbian Narratives concludes by arguing for a broad and generous definition of lesbian writing A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2010-02-12 A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past 200 years Sets the short story in context paying attention to the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles Contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon with close attention to the achievements of women writers as well as such important genres as the ghost story and detective fiction Embraces diverse traditions including African American Jewish American Latino Native American and regional short storywriting Includes a section focused on specific authors and texts from Edgar Allan Poe to John Updike The Nonhuman in American Literary Naturalism Karin M. Danielsson, Kenneth K. Brandt, 2023-09-05 The Nonhuman in American Literary Naturalism responds to a need to expand and refine the connections among nonhuman studies and American literary naturalism and to productively expand the scholarly discourse surrounding this vital movement in American literary history This collection focuses on that which becomes visible when the human subject is skirted or moved off center in other words the representation of nonhuman animals and other vital or inert species things entities cityscapes and seascapes that play an important part in American literary naturalism Informed by animal studies ecocriticism posthumanism new materialism and other recent theoretical perspectives the essays in this collection discuss early naturalist texts as well as more recent naturalistic oriented authors American Gothic Literature Ruth Binstock Anolik, 2018-12-14 American Gothic literature inherited many time worn tropes from its English Gothic precursor along with a core preoccupation anxiety about power and property Yet the transatlantic journey left its mark on the genre the English ghostly setting becomes the wilderness haunted by spectral Indians The aristocratic villain is replaced by the striving independent young man The dispossession of Native Americans and African Americans adds urgency to traditional Gothic anxieties about possession The unchanging role of woman in early Gothic narratives parallels the status of American women even after the Revolution Twentieth century Gothic works offer inclusion to previously silent voices including immigrant writers with their own cultural traditions The 21st century unleashes the zombie horde the latest incarnation of the voracious American
