Poems of the Bridge Richard Alan Ruof, 2008-05-14 POEMS OF THE BRIDGE presents incidents and insights from experiences that the author found enlightening during a lifetime of service as a pastor and family man The use of poetry allows presentation in brief form and helps reveal the amazing acts of God in everyday life A simple factual statement would only invite attempts to explain away the unexplainable And so they are presented as faith experiences that simply arise among believers inspired by the promises of Christ and the Scriptures The poems also question who this amazing martyr is who enters our confusing and modern world to bring compassion understanding and restore the bridge between divided couples family members and warring factions even those we shall join again in a world beyond death So much of what is precious has been neglected in search of money belongings and real estate Shall we forget forever family solidarity love faith those matters most rewarding and our constant source of joy Or shall we turn from shopping shallow entertainment material obsession to rediscover our true identity Shall we take time to consider those treasures offered to us forever The strain of the world has a way of unveiling false assumptions and presenting the need for that final bridge Our quest for a stable world falters daily In an effort to achieve everything by human efforts our age has given its respect to the clever powerful and worldly and put aside the lovely miracles of the God of compassion and eternal blessings God still rewards those who continue in Christ's faith and service Yet in a broader spectrum POEMS OF THE BRIDGE rejects the prevailing philosophic viewpoint of positivism advocating that neither God nor the spiritual has any effect upon the course of history the plight of the human race or individual persons

The Complete Poems of Louis Daniel Brodsky: Volume Three, 1976-1980 Louis Daniel Brodsky, 1996 The third volume of The Complete Poems of Louis Daniel Brodsky presents over seven hundred poems written from July 1976 through December 1980 By this period in his life Brodsky had a wife and two children a thriving business that kept him traveling and a passion for acquiring Faulkneriana sparked by his deep appreciation of the author's literature that had led him on increasingly frequent journeys to Oxford Mississippi and elsewhere to meet those who knew Faulkner and those who might supplement Brodsky's expanding collection. Spending considerably more time away from home than ever before, he began to compose most of his poems while driving, eating in small town cafés, staying in motels and retreating to bars after twelve-hour workdays, always filling his omnipresent notebook with new images and metaphors. It was during these trips that Brodsky conceived many of his poetic personae: Willy Sypher, the Jewish ragman; road peddler; a man who, though he lost no family in it, still feels he's a victim of the Holocaust; the Northern outlander who appears in many of his Southern poems; the nature poet who captures the beauty of rural America; and the cynical city poet who observes its bigotry and vulgarity and the unhappy family man who feels he must escape home for the freedom of the open road but nevertheless suffers guilt and remorse. The poems from this segment of Brodsky's literary career reflect a man in his mid and late thirties facing growing desperation as he attempts to fulfill the complex responsibilities of his day-to-day commitments and yet address an unrelenting compulsion to record his frenetic life in verse.
