as well as professionals in the industry Her World, Women and Fashion in Singapore 1974-1989 Nadya Wang, 2025-07-24 Between 1974 and 1989 significant changes were taking place in the lives of Singaporean women and in their local fashion industry These shifts were not only reflected in but actively shaped by the magazine Her World In Her World Women and Fashion in Singapore Nadya Wang uses dress as a lens through which to view fragments of the magazine over 15 years Advocating for a new and decentred understanding of the evolution of the Singapore woman Wang's writing also traces the creation of a fashion industry that pivoted from seeking validation from global fashion cities to establishing itself as the lead of a Southeast Asian fashion community Visual analysis of archival materials is combined with oral history interviews to demonstrate how the women of Singapore engaged with local and global ideas fashion and beauty commodities and imagery of models and beauty queens in their self fashioning Challenging existing understandings of their agency this book attests to the creativity and adaptability of Singapore women and Singapore fashion designers On Femininities in the Song of Songs and Beyond Vita Daphna Arbel, 2022-01-13 Vita Daphna Arbel uses critical theories of gender to offer an alternative reading of the multilayered conceptualization of the Song of Songs's feminine protagonist the most beautiful woman Arbel treats the most beautiful woman as a culturally constructed and performed representation of woman and situates this representation within the cultural discursive contexts in which the Song partly emerged She examines the gender norms and cultural ideologies it both reflects and constructs and considers the manner in which this complex representation disrupts rigid ahistorical notions of femininity and how it consequently indirectly characterizes womanhood as dynamic and diverse Finally Arbel examines the reception and impact of these ideas on later conceptualizations of the Song of Songs's female protagonist with a heuristic examination of Mark Chagall's Song of Songs painting cycle Le Cantique des Cantiques These compositions selected for their diverse depictions of the Song's protagonist their impact on European art and their vast popularity and bearing in the broader cultural imagination illustrate a fascinating dialogue between the present and the past about the most beautiful woman and about multiple femininities Fashioning Identity Maria Mackinney-Valentin, 2017-02-09 We dress to communicate who we are or who we would like others to think we are telling seductive fashion narratives through our adornment Yet today fashion has been democratized through high low collaborations social media and real time fashion mediation complicating the basic dynamic of identity displays and creating tension between personal statements and social performances Fashioning Identity explores how this tension is performed through fashion production and consumption by examining a diverse series of case studies from ninety year old fashion icons to the paradoxical rebellion in normcore and from soccer jerseys in Kenya to heavy metal band T-shirts in Europe Through these cases the role of time gender age memory novelty copying the body and resistance are considered within the context of the contemporary fashion scene Offering a fresh approach to the subject by readdressing Fred Davis's seminal concept of identity ambivalence in Fashion Culture and Identity 1992 Mackinney Valentin argues that we are in an epoch of status ambivalence in which fashioning one's own identity has become increasingly complicated Dressing Judeans and Christians in Antiquity Kristi Upson-Saia, Carly Daniel-Hughes, Alicia J. Batten, 2016-05-13 The past two decades have witnessed a proliferation of scholarship on dress in the ancient world. These recent studies have established the extent to which Greece and Rome were vestimentary cultures and they have demonstrated the critical role dress played in communicating individuals' identities, status, and authority. Despite this emerging interest in ancient dress, little work has been done to understand religious aspects and uses of dress. This volume aims to fill this gap by examining a diverse range of religious sources including literature, art, performance, coinage, economic markets, and memories. Employing theoretical frames from a range of disciplines, contributors to the volume demonstrate how dress developed as a topos within Judean and Christian rhetoric, symbolism, and performance from the first century BCE to the fifth century CE. Specifically, they demonstrate how religious meanings were entangled with other social logics, revealing the many layers of meaning attached to ancient dress as well as the extent to which dress was implicated in numerous domains of ancient religious life. The Encyclopedia of Human Ecology Julia R. Miller, Richard M. Lerner, Lawrence B. Schiamberg, Pamela M. Anderson, 2003-08-13 The first and only source to integrate the multiple disciplines and professions exploring the many ways people interact with the natural and designed environments in which we live. Comprising more than 250 informative entries, The Encyclopedia of Human Ecology examines the interdisciplinary and complex topic of human ecology. Knowledge gathered from disciplines that study individuals and groups is blended with information about the environment from the fields of family science, geography, anthropology, urban planning, and environmental science. At the same time, professions intended to enhance individual and family life—marriage and family therapy, clinical psychology, social work, dietetic, and other health professions—are represented alongside those concerned with the preservation, conservation, and management of the environment and its resources. How rampant are eating disorders among our youth? Are AIDS educational programs effective? What problems do adolescents transitioning into adulthood encounter? Here, four leading scholars in the field have assembled a team of top-tier psychologists, sociologists, anthropologists, and other experts to explore these and hundreds of other timely issues. Survey of Historic Costume Phyllis G. Tortora, Sara B. Marcketti, 2015-03-12 Survey of Historic Costume presents a thorough overview and chronology of Western dress from the ancient world to the trends of today. Fashion Media
