the Future of Advertising and Brands in the New Entertainment Landscape Miguélez-Juan, Blanca,Bonales-Daimiel, Gema,2023-01-09 In a globalized world full of noise brands are constantly launching messages through different channels For the last two decades brands marketers and creatives have faced the difficult task of reaching those individuals who do not want to watch or listen to what they are trying to tell them By producing fewer ads or making them louder or more striking more brands and communications professionals are not going to get those people to pay more attention to their messages they will only want to avoid advertising in all media The Handbook of Research on the Future of Advertising and Brands in the New Entertainment Landscape provides a theoretical reflective and empirical perspective on branded content and branded entertainment in relation to audience engagement. How to Steal a Piano John Hughes, 2017-11-07. How to Steal a Piano and Other Stories is a set of intriguing tales of our time, some dark and challenging, others light and comical. The title story tells of a young piano salesman in Harrods who comes across a Bechstein grand in storage that appears to have been forgotten about. Would anyone miss it? There's only one way to find out. Grasshopper and Unlucky for Some narrate the trials and tribulations of single women and online dating. It should be so straightforward but even something as simple as meeting up with the correct man can be problematic. Pirates invade a usually quiet Derbyshire town in Matlock. Meg and the Riber Hoard and in Runner, a trio of yobs get the shock of their lives when they try to avoid paying the bill at Mr Ping's Chinese restaurant. Zulu, the police dog, will entertain telling his own story in Woof. Justiss, an octogenarian, Dotty extends her vocabulary when she researches the history of the c word in Sevenoaks library. Beneath the savoury and unsavoury characters and the twists and turns of their stories flow some thought provoking themes: Status based on ill gotten gains, the self destructiveness of road rage, lifelong barriers between fathers and sons, the therapeutic nature of a good limerick and the convoluted sex life of the clergy. John Hughes has skilfully interwoven adventures from his own life with the fruits of his imagination in thirteen stories that will have you laughing one moment, gasping the next and quite possibly shedding a tear or two.
