Infidel Behind the Paradoxical Veil Jeanette M. English, 2011-02 Most Western non Muslim women couldn t envision surrendering their freedom and being forced to comply with Saudi women s entrapped customs which have existed for the past 1 400 years Did you know that Saudi Arabia s religious police known as the Mutawa can take any woman to jail for not covering her hair or wearing an abaya How would you imagine yourself living a life being compelled to abide by the power and values of men not being able to drive talk with your driver shop alone without a male escort leave the country without a male escort or be seen alone with a non related male

INFIDEL BEHIND THE PARADOXICAL VEIL A Western Woman s Experience in Saudi Arabia is a personal story of startling encounters such as mentioned above while Jeanette English lived in Riyadh the most restrictive city in Saudi Arabia where women who by Shariah law and culture are considered to be the weaker sex Jeanette candidly unmask a unique experience which exposes the enigmatic issues affecting Saudi women Their struggle for equality and freedom of choice is a hot topic with an accelerating interest in the subject of male dominance over them stirring an intrinsic controversy over which many Westerners are confused This is a timely book offering extraordinary insight into the real Saudi woman before during and after the author's year in Riyadh which will turn a few cynical heads toward understanding the issues and challenges in their achieving fair treatment particularly now in the 21st century. Forced to wear the hijab, Jeanette read the Quran and in learning about Islam and talking with Saudi women was able to look behind the veil which many Westerners can only read about. Most authors and journalists who write on this subject have not lived her experience.

Lifting the Veil Ramona Forrest, Judith Corcoran, 2013-12. Saudi Arabia is an ancient culture as old as time itself yet filled with all the modern conveniences that money provides. Restless and looking for something new and exciting, two nurses traveled to this ancient kingdom to ply their skills and practice close personal contact along with modern medical care with people for whom slavery, buying wives and female subjugation is just a way of life. Living in a culture far different from their own, they met many wonderful people both locally and from several other countries, all the while walking on eggshells with the religious police of Saudi Arabia lest they do something that as females was forbidden and could have gotten them deported or worse, thrown in jail. Join Ramona Forrest and Judith Corcoran as they explore life in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia from a woman's point of view. Challenging the Red Lines, 2013. The Beheading and Other True Stories Bob Crew, 2003. The Beheading is the title piece of this collection of true stories, some witty based on the author's own experiences as the Saudi Arabia correspondent for The Times. Included in this collection is the author's account of an adulterous woman stoned to death. Women Are Always to Blame Bob Crew is one of the few Westerners ever to have witnessed it at first hand and in an extract from his diary he explains how his predictions regarding what has not changed in Saudi Arabia in the new Millennium have been remarkably prescient.
