Verdwaalde Post Roman:

Visions of Community in the Post-Roman World Walter Pohl, Clemens Gantner, Richard Payne, 2016-03-03 This volume looks at visions of community in a comparative perspective from Late Antiquity to the dawning of the age of crusades. It addresses the question of why and how distinctive new political cultures developed after the disintegration of the Roman World and to what degree their differences had already emerged in the first post Roman centuries. The Latin West, Orthodox Byzantium and its Slavic periphery and the Islamic world each retained different parts of the Graeco Roman heritage while introducing new elements. For instance, ethnicity became a legitimizing element of rulership in the West, remained a structural element of the imperial periphery in Byzantium and contributed to the inner dynamic of Islamic states without becoming a resource of political integration. Similarly, the political role of religion also differed between the emerging post Roman worlds. It is surprising that little systematic research has been done in these fields so far. The 32 contributions to the volume explore this new line of research and look at different aspects of the process with leading western Medievalists, Byzantinists and Islamicists covering a wide range of pertinent topics. At a closer look, some of the apparent differences between the West and the Islamic world seem less distinctive and the inner variety of all post Roman societies becomes more marked. At the same time, new variations in the discourse of community and the practice of power emerge. Anybody interested in the development of the post Roman Mediterranean but also in the relationship between the Islamic World and the West will gain new insights from these studies on the political role of ethnicity and religion in the post Roman Mediterranean.

Post-Roman Towns, Trade and Settlement in Europe and Byzantium: Byzantium, Pliska, and the Balkans Joachim Henning, 2007 In this collection, leading international authorities analyse the structures and economic functions of non agrarian centres between ca 500 and 1000 A.D., their trade, their surrounding settlements and the agricultural and cultural milieux. The thirty-one papers presented at an international conference held in Bad Homburg focus on recent archaeological discoveries in Central Europe (Vol 1) as well as on those from southeastern Europe to Asia Minor (Vol 2). Het verloren weekend Charles Jackson, 2014-01-30 Het waarom was allang niet meer van belang. Je was een dronkaard, meer kon je er niet van maken. Je dronk punt uit. En als je eenmaal dronk, als je op gang kwam, wat maakte het waarom dan nog uit? Je dronk en je ging eraan dood. Waarom? Omdat alcohol iets was wat je niet kon beheersen, het kreeg je eronder. Waarom? Omdat je het punt had bereikt waar n glas te veel was en honderd niet genoeg. Manhattan 1936. Would be schrijver Don Birnam besluit een borrel te nemen. En nog een en dan nog een, wat uiteindelijk uitmondt in een drankfestijn dat vijf dagen zal duren. Zijn neergang omringd door een liefdevolle vriendin en broer, maar onmachtig die liefde te beantwoorden, wordt in een bezwerende hypnotische stijl verteld, de lezer kan niet anders dan meegaan in Dons onverbiddelijke helletocht. Het verloren weekend is een van de grote klassiekers van de twintigste eeuw, niet alleen omdat het op rauwe wijze de gevolgen van alcoholisme laat zien, maar tegelijkertijd een onvergetelijke parabel is over de menselijke conditie.
