Thomas,2016-08-15 Get back to the roots on Revelation Through the centuries since its writing the book of Revelation has captured the fascination of the Christian church The earliest Christians were unanimous in understanding it along a premillennial view of Jesus second coming but other hermeneutical approaches began to emerge in the third century These clouded and added complexity to the task of explaining the book's meaning For most of the Christian era consequently many readers have viewed this last of the NT writings as though it were hopelessly embedded in an aura of deep mystery An avalanche of interpretive literature has evidenced remarkable interest in the book's contents but along with the interest has come widespread bewilderment Written especially for the informed layman student and scholar this commentary seeks to clear the air The book is interpreted according to a historical and grammatical hermeneutic and propounds a conservative evangelical theology but the reader will not get a narrow view on areas of disagreement This commentary interacts with a range of major views both evangelical and nonevangelical It reaffirms the basic framework of eschatology espoused by ancient Christianity but with added help from centuries of maturing thought and doctrinal progress

End Time Rewind: An Exploration In Bible Prophecy And The Fate Of The World Steven Sabatino, Remember when End Time Rewind warned you not to fall for the Doomsday Rapture theories of Dispensational Premillennialism and their Zionist partners Well now that we ve survived John Hagee s Four Blood Moons Jonathan Cahn s Super Shemitah and the menacing tentacles of the now defunct European Union and Islamic State the supposed Beast Kingdoms of Revelation 17 the Futurist s next false claim centers around the 70 year anniversary of Israel s founding Is the Jewish State really the prophetic clock by which God aligns world events and the return of Christ Many Doomsday Rapture forecasts have been put forth in the name of Futurism since the 2nd century AD none of which have come to fruition This is disconcerting because failed predictions and false expectations promoted by our Christian counterparts diminishes the credibility of the Bible and scars the reputation and integrity of the Prophetic Office of Jesus Christ The age old tried and true Orthodox aka Partial or Classical Preterist approach maintains that the majority of Bible prophecies were already fulfilled by the end of the first century AD and included Jesus appearing in an Old Testament styled non physical manifestation with power and great glory All that remains to be accomplished in the future is for Jesus Christ to physically return to raise the dead which is when the rapture also occurs preside over the final judgment and create a new heaven and earth devoid of sin and death where the new and holy Jerusalem from heaven descends as per Revelation 20 7 Revelation 22 5
