Contemporary Fiction and the Ethics of Modern Culture J. Karnicky,2007-03-05 This book argues for the ethical relevancy of contemporary fiction at the beginning of the twenty first century Through reading novels by such writers as David Foster Wallace Richard Powers and Irvine Welsh this book looks at how these works seek to transform the ways that readers live in the world The Picador Book of Contemporary Scottish Fiction Peter Kravitz,1997 A People's

History of Scotland Chris Bambery,2014-06-17 A People's History of Scotland looks beyond the kings and queens the battles and bloody defeats of the past It captures the history that matters today stories of freedom fighters suffragettes the workers of Red Clydeside and the hardship and protest of the treacherous Thatcher era With riveting storytelling Chris

Bamberg recounts the struggles for nationhood. He charts the lives of Scots who changed the world as well as those who fought for the cause of ordinary people at home from the poets Robbie Burns and Hugh MacDiarmid to campaigners such as John Maclean and Helen Crawford. This is a passionate cry for more than just independence but also for a nation based on social justice.

Transgressive Fiction R. Mookerjee, 2013-05-07 Often dismissed as sensationalist transgressive fiction is a sophisticated movement with roots in Menippean satire and the Rabelaisian carnal folk sensibility praised by Bakhtin. This study, the first of its kind, provides a thorough literary background and analysis of key transgressive authors such as Acker, Amis, Carter, Ellis, and Palahniuk.

The Routledge Handbook of International Beat Literature A. Robert Lee, 2018-05-16 Beat literature has not the great canonical names long grown familiar: Ginsberg, Kerouac, Burroughs. Likewise, the frontline texts still controversial in some quarters assume their place in modern American literary history. On the Road serves as Homeric journey epic; Howl amounts to Beat anthem; confessional outcry against materialism and war; Naked Lunch with its dark satiric laughter envisions a dystopian world of power and word virus. But if these are all essentially America-centered, Beat has also had quite other literary exhalations and which invite far more than mere reception study. These are voices from across the Americas of Canada and Mexico, the Anglophone world of England, Scotland, or Australia, the Europe of France or Italy, and from the Mediterranean of Greece and the Maghreb, and from Scandinavia and Russia together with the Asia of Japan and China. This anthology of essays maps relevant other kinds of Beat voice, names texts. The scope is hemispheric, Atlantic and Pacific, West and East. It gives recognition to the Beat inscribed in languages other than English and reflective of different cultural histories. Likewise, the majority of contributors come from origins or affiliations beyond the US, whether in a different English or languages spanning Spanish, Danish, Turkish, Greek, or Chinese. The aim is to recognize an enlarged Beat literary map, its creative internationalism.

Edinburgh Companion to Contemporary Scottish Literature Berthold Schoene, 2007-04-11 The Edinburgh Companion to Contemporary Scottish Literature examines the ways in which the cultural and political role of Scottish writing has changed since the country's successful referendum on national self-rule in 1997. In doing so, it makes a convincing case for a distinctive post-devolution Scottish criticism. Introducing over forty original essays under four main headings: Contexts, Genres, Authors, and Topics, the volume covers the entire spectrum of current interests and topical concerns in the field of Scottish studies and heralds a new era in Scottish writing, literary criticism, and cultural theory. It records and critically outlines prominent literary trends and developments, the specific political circumstances and aesthetic agendas that propel them, as well as literature's capacity for envisioning new and alternative futures. Issues under discussion include class, sexuality, and gender, nationhood, and globalisation, the New Europe, and cosmopolitan citizenship, postcoloniality.
