View from the Imperium Jody Lynn Nye, 2011-04-05 P G Wodehouse meets space opera as Ensign Thomas Innes Loche Kinago fresh from the Academy is given his first command A crumb from the upper crust he s eager to uphold the traditions of his family and in particular his mother a distinguished Admiral of the Imperium Of course he s aware of the importance of always having simply smashing tailored uniforms on hand and having his camera ready to record memorable moments for his scrapbook In the meantime a charismatic leader has arisen who seems able to control the minds of anyone he meets and may be on his way to taking over the entire galaxy Can Kinago s aristocratic bearing and unbridled snobbery stand up to such a challenge Fortunately his constant companion the unflappable Jeeves er Parsons is on hand to look after the young impulsive master and somehow help his charge bumble his way through perhaps even saving the galaxy in the process At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management The Challenge to the Auspices C. F.

Konrad, 2022-07-28 No public action of the Roman state the populus Romanus at home or at war was to be carried out without prior permission from Iuppiter Optimus Maximus Permission was obtained in a procedure known as auspices by the magistrate in charge of the intended action usually a Consul Praetor or Dictator Auspices thus occupy a fundamental place in the unwritten constitution of the Roman State Yet especially in the 3rd century BCE acceptance of the principle was not always universal The Challenge to the Auspices presents an investigation into the interaction of Roman magistrates during the Middle Republic with the practice of auspices with a focus on attempts to avoid ignore or resist this requirement Proceeding from an examination of the Roman concepts of imperium and auspices auspicia especially as they relate to the realm of war and of the constitutional position and powers of the Dictator and the Master of Horse magister equitum relative to each other and to the Consuls and lower magistrates the work offers six case studies in which Roman commanders questioned violated or openly rejected the need for auspices It is argued that these instances reflect a not insignificant minority view within the Roman ruling class regarding the efficacy of auspices and the necessity of observing them The catastrophic outcome in several of these events particularly during the early years of the Second Punic War rendered further resistance to the practice politically unsustainable and by the second century resulted in its universal acceptance regardless of personal belief Triumphus H. S. Versnel, 1970 From the Gracchi to Nero H.H. Scullard, 2021-11-18 thought which had an impact on Carolingian ideas of state rulership and ethics It focuses on Alcuin of York and Hincmar of Rheims authors and political advisers to Charlemagne and to Charles the Bald respectively It examines how they used Augustinian political thought and ethics as manifested in the De civitate Dei to give more weight to their advice A comparative approach sheds light on the differences between Charlemagne's reign and that of his grandson It scrutinizes Alcuin's and Hincmar's discussions of empire rulership and the moral conduct of political agents during which both drew on the De civitate Dei although each came away with a different understanding By means of a philological historical approach the book offers a deeper reading and treats the Latin texts as political discourses defined by content and language
