The Voice Of One Crying:

The Voice of One Crying in the Wilderness Havis A. Crawford, 2004-04 THE CRUSADE OF THE CHILDREN is a fictionalized story about a young French shepherd boy who believed he was called by God to preach a crusade of children to free the Holy Land from the Moslems The fever spread as he preached before thousands of people and he attracted a following of about 30 000 children many under the age of twelve This seething mass of children set out for Marseilles where they believed ships would carry them to the Holy Land which was under control of the Moslems After many days many of the children deserted and returned to their homes However about five thousand sailed away in ships provided by two unsavory characters Two ships were wrecked off the island of San Pietro but the others reached a Mohammedan port and slave market

Or, The Business of a Christian* Samuel Shaw, 1668 The Voice of one crying in the Wilderness; or, the business of a Christian both antecedaneous to, concomitant of, and consequent upon, a sore and heavy visitation, represented in several sermons Samuel Shaw, 1830

The Voice of One Crying in a Wilderness. Or, the Business of a Christian, Both Antecedaneous To, Concomitant Of, and Consequent Upon, a Sore and Heavy Visitation:

Represented in Several Sermons ... By S. S. a Servant of God in the Gospel of His Son [i.e. Samuel Shaw]. S. S. (a Servant of God in the Gospel of his Son.), 1667 The Voice of One Crying in the Desert James BLACKWELL (of London.), 1832 Old Testament Quotations in the Fourth Gospel M. J. J. Menken, 1996

From the very beginning of Christianity Jesus followers have tried to legitimize their views of him with the help of the Scriptures This means that if we wish to understand the beginning of the Christian church and of Christian theology we have to examine the early Christian use of the Old Testament A conspicuous way of using the Scriptures consists in directly quoting from them Eleven OT quotations in the Fourth Gospel are the topic of this study These eleven quotations in fact the majority of John's OT quotations differ from the known versions of the OT but are not free paraphrases of the OT text in some cases it is not immediately clear from which passage precisely the evangelist quotes This state of affairs raises the questions which OT passages in which versions John used and how and why the quotations were modified In this study the questions of source and of redaction are dealt with in their interrelationship Can we adequately explain the form of a quotation by taking into account Johannine redaction of an OT passage in a textual form which we know which we can reasonably argue Results of research in the field of early Jewish and early Christian exegetical techniques and devices are of course taken into account

Each of the eleven quotations is scrutinized on the points of source and redaction. It appears that John mostly used the LXX but that where that translation did not suit his purposes he either translated the Hebrew himself or used another translation. He modified the quotations in agreement with extant exegetical rules and for christological reasons. This study gives new insight into an aspect of the early Christian use of Scripture. Find It Fast in the Bible Thomas Nelson, 2000-05-06

Noticing a frequently used Bible phrase often precedes a breakthrough in understanding Scripture's teaching on key Bible topics. But computer-based searches and single word concordances quickly overwhelm learners with raw unconnected data. This phrase concordance compiles over 5,000 Bible expressions giving their exact Scriptural quotations complete with surrounding sentences. Additionally, their alphabetical listing offers the chance to explore similar and related topics without starting a new search. Find It Fast in the Bible presents the exact chapter and verse locations of specific passages where the same wording expresses a Bible theme such as Day of the Lord, Kingdom of Heaven, and I tell you the truth. This handy reference resource contains Over 5,000 best-loved and most used Bible phrases. The New King James Version as the primary translation. Cross references to other major translations: NIV, NRSV, KJV, and NASB. An alphabetical arrangement by the first word in the phrase. More than 30,000 references. An extensive Key Word Index. These features make Find It Fast in the Bible a trusted time-saving companion resource and stand-alone aid for personal and group discovery. Bishop Desmond Tutu, the Voice of One Crying in the Wilderness Desmond Tutu, 1982 Quotations in John Michael A. Daise, 2019-12-26

Michael A. Daise identifies literary features found in six quotations in the Fourth Gospel suggesting they should be revisited as clusters rather than as discrete units. Three quotations are the only ones whose introductory formulae explicitly ascribe them to Isaiah; three are the only ones cast as being remembered by Jesus' disciples, and each of these groupings forms an inclusio within the Book of Signs, which when combined with the other produces a chiasmus to Jesus' public ministry. Daise examines these clusters in three studies addressing their exegetical issues and theological implications. After an introductory apologia for an historical-critical and theological approach, the first two studies distill narrative themes embedded in the Isaianic and remembrance inclusions. The third study then reconstructs the synthesis of these themes created by the chiasmus and translates its key elements into theological categories. Daise concludes that while the Isaianic inclusio brings closure to the Book of Signs by disclosing the angelic cause of the Jews' unbelief, the remembrance inclusio creates an anticipation of the Book of Glory by casting Jesus as poised to establish a new dynasty with the casting out of that angelic cause. Daise further argues that this broader storyline carries ramifications for an array of motifs in the Fourth Gospel's theological taxonomy, in particular its christology, soteriology, eschatology, ecclesiology, and pneumatology.
