The Way We Were A Story Of Conversion And Renewal:

The Way We Were Joan Chittister, 2008-01-01 Drawing on the story of her own monastic community a best selling author shows how to redefine the essentials of faith in a time when old ways and formulas no longer serve Way We Were Joan Chittister, 2008

The Arms of God Sherrie Reynolds, 2011-03-21 The Arms of God is a love story in which the author weaves together the life stories of the Sisters of St Mary of Namur from their first call to religious life to teaching and mission work to a deeper sense of community during the challenging times that followed Vatican II As beautifully expressed by Sister Gabriella Falling in love with God determines if I will get up in the morning it is the WHY I am moved to do all these things am I called to do it is necessary to continue to remember and cherish our call to listen again to the language of love of the first love of what or Who drew you What gift do I give in return The Sisters journey carries them from the early days of Catholic education in Texas to Africa and the terrible years of the Rwandan genocide and to carrying God's message today in Fort Worth Texas Their intimate stories draw the reader into the Sisters lives sharing laughter in one moment and tears in the next Join these remarkable teachers nurses and missionaries as they accomplish the seemingly impossible while following the path God has placed before them Sister Patricia shares when you move from believing something to doing something uncomfortable having once done that then there's a freedom a different way of feeling a different way of understanding what might need to be done This is a timely story of love faith and freedom that challenges readers to listen for the call of God in their own lives

Veiled Desires Maureen Sabine, 2013-08-22 Ingrid Bergman's engaging screen performance as Sister Mary Benedict in The Bells of St Mary's made the film nun a star and her character a shining standard of comparison She represented the religious life as the happy and rewarding choice of a modern woman who had a complete understanding of both erotic and spiritual desire How did this vibrant and mature nun figure come to be viewed as girlish and naive Why have she and her cinematic sisters in postwar popular film so often been stereotyped or selectively analyzed so seldom been seen as women and religious In Veiled Desires a unique full length in depth look at nuns in film Maureen Sabine explores these questions in a groundbreaking interdisciplinary study covering more than sixty years of cinema She looks at an impressive breadth of films in which the nun features as an ardent lead character including The Bells of St Mary's 1945 Black Narcissus 1947 Heaven Knows Mr Allison 1957 Sea Wife 1957 The Nun's Story 1959 The Sound of Music 1965 Change of Habit 1969 In This House of Brede 1975 Agnes of God 1985 Dead Man Walking 1995 and Doubt 2008 Veiled Desires considers how the beautiful and charismatic stars who play chaste nuns from Ingrid Bergman and Audrey Hepburn to Susan Sarandon and Meryl Streep call attention to desires that the veil concealed and the habit was thought to stifle In a theologically and psychoanalytically informed argument Sabine responds to the critics who have pigeonholed the film nun as the obedient daughter and religious handmaiden of a patriarchal church and the respectful audience who revered her as an icon of spiritual perfection Sabine provides a framework for a more complex and holistic picture of nuns onscreen by showing how the films dramatize these women's Christian call to serve, sacrifice and dedicate themselves to God and their erotic desire for intimacy, agency, achievement and fulfillment

American Catholicism Transformed Joseph P. Chinnici, 2021-04-27 Situating the church within the context of post World War II globalization and the Cold War, American Catholicism Transformed draws on previously untapped archival sources to provide deep background to developments within the American Catholic Church in relationship to American society at large and Vatican Council II. During this time the Catholic community entered a transitional stage in which those on the right and those on the left battled for control of the Church's vision. This convergence of international and national forces of renewal and resistance to them will continue to shape the American Catholic community's global identity in the twenty-first century.

Discipleship: A Lifelong Spiritual Pilgrimage Vernon T. Jones, 2013-08-16 For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. Jeremiah 29:11. How do we know God's plans for us? How do we know God leads and talks to us daily? How do we become more disciplined in our spiritual walk in order to better hear God's voice and guidance in our lives? There are no easy answers to these questions. However, when we are intentional in our times of prayer, Bible study and reflection, the Holy Spirit opens our hearts to God's love, allowing us to see opportunities for further direction and growth. Discipleship: A Lifelong Spiritual Pilgrimage offers guidance and gives support to those already involved in this pilgrimage, plus encouragement to those wanting to do more in developing good discipleship practices.

Habits of Change Carole Garibaldi Rogers, 2011-06-01 A collection of extraordinary oral histories of American nuns. Habits of Change captures the experiences of women whose lives over the past fifty years have been marked by dramatic transformation. Bringing together women from more than forty different religious communities, most of whom entered religious life before Vatican II, the book shows how their lives were suddenly turned around in the 1960s, perhaps more so than any other group of contemporary women Here these women speak of their active engagement in the events that disrupted their church and society and of the lives they lead today offering their unique perspective on issues such as peace activism global equality for women and the clergy sexual abuse crisis The interviewees include a Maryknoll missionary who spent decades in Africa most recently in the Congo an inner city art teacher whose own paintings reflect the vibrancy of Haiti a recovering alcoholic who at age 71 has embarked on her fourth ministry a life long nurse educator and hospital administrator and an outspoken advocate for the gay and lesbian community Told with simplicity honesty and passion their stories deserve to be heard

Fictive Orders and Feminine Religious Identities, 1200-1600 Alison More, 2018-02-17 Any visitor to Belgium or the Netherlands is immediately struck by the number of convents and beguinages begijnhoven in both major cities and small towns Their number and location in urban centres suggests that the women who inhabited them once held a prominent role Despite leaving a visible mark on cities in Europe much of the story of these women known variously as beguines tertiaries klopjes recluses and anchoresses remains to be told Instead of aspiring to live as traditional religious they transcended normative assumptions about religion and gender and had a very real impact on their religious and secular worlds The sources for their tale are often fragmentary and difficult to interpret However careful scrutiny allows their voices to be heard Drawing on an array of sources including religious rules sermons hagiographic vitae and rapiaria Fictive Orders and Feminine Religious Identities traces the story of pious laywomen between the thirteenth and sixteenth centuries It both emphasizes the innovative roles of women who transcended established forms of institutional religious life and reveals the ways in which historiographical habits have obscured the dynamic and fluid nature of their histories By highlighting the development of irregular and extraregular communities and tracing the threads of monasticisation that wove their way around pious laywomen this book draws attention to the vibrant and dynamic culture of feminine lay piety that persisted from the later middle ages onwards

Prophetic Women of Bold Love Shawn Madigan, PhD, CSJ, 2010-03-15 This book introduces women from various parts of the world who have experienced violence in some form and used that experience to actively foster peace Some of the women may be better known than others for they are Nobel Peace Laureates Yet each woman is equally prophetic in the bold love that creates a better world The women represent a variety of countries and religious traditions Yet there is a unity in the underlying spirituality of non violence that grounds each prophetic life and the loving work for human dignity reconciliation and peace The women are models for living in ways that transform the world

Stewart,Jerome W. Berryman,1989-01-01 The authors have devised an exciting way to introduce three to seven year olds to the wonder of worship Activities are developed around the order of worship commonly used in Reformed churches assemble in God s name proclaim give thanks to and go in God s name The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian,James D. Smith III,2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles Political Justice and Religious Values Charles Andrain,2009-06-02 Why do individuals and groups hold distinctive theological views Why do these beliefs change In what ways do theological interpretations influence concepts of spiritual and political justice How and why do these concepts of justice affect policy preferences held by religious liberals and conservatives Much has recently been written about the relationship between power conservative politics and evangelical religious groups but very little attention has been paid to so called progressive religious groups among Protestants Catholics and Jews and their relationship to political thought and action This wide ranging and interdisciplinary work ideal for use in college courses on religion and social issues explores the impact of theological interpretations about God the individual society church and government on attitudes toward procedural and distributive justice Major issues revolve around civil liberties sexual choice gender equality world peace prison reform and income distribution From Maintenance to Mission Robert S. Rivers, 2005 Evangelization contrary to what many people believe is not just a Protestant concern in fact writes Robert Rivers it is Catholic to the core In this practical approachable work he suggests that the Catholic parish is a wonderful setting to carry out the evangelizing work of the church He makes the case that evangelization holds the key to the future of the church because it was in fact the centerpiece of post Vatican Council reform Drawing from the USCCB document Go and Make Disciples which offers a comprehensive plan and strategy for evangelization he explores ways to challenge us to become Catholic evangelizers And he proposes ways to move from maintenance to mission oriented parishes My purpose affirms the author is to try to place before the reader a compelling vision of Catholic evangelization and share some strategic thinking that might enable us to implement the great vision to which we have been called He attains that goal convincingly practically and hopefully Book Review Digest ,1913
