The Woman in the Violence M. Cristina Alcalde, 2010-12-10 Combating abuse and violence in a South American capital

Sexual Violence during War and Peace J. Boesten, 2014-04-16 Using the Peruvian internal armed conflict as a case study this book examines wartime rape and how it reproduces and reinforces existing hierarchies Jelke Boesten argues that effective responses to sexual violence in wartime are conditional upon profound changes in legal frameworks and practices institutions and society at large

The Aesthetic and Political Practices of Trans Women in Peru Paola Patiño Rabines, 2023-12-27 This book explores the political aesthetic practices of transgender women in Lima Peru and how they use these to survive and fight for recognition and full citizenship through drawing on ethnographic research and on decolonial feminist and aesthetic theories Chapters analyze how the vulnerability and precariousness of trans women coexist with modes of feminist agency resistance and resilience as well as with proposals for political action to transform a heteropatriarchal society toward a more diverse and accepting one Finally the author draws on the Viennese artist Friedensreich Hundertwasser s metaphor of the five skins whereby the first skin is the epidermis the second is the clothes the third is the house the fourth is identity which refers to primary socialization spaces such as the neighbourhood and the fifth is the world environment The author uses this metaphor to analyze the corporal practices of trans women in a cumulative way paying special attention to the different stages of their lives to those skins that embody and accompany them from childhood to adulthood This book will be of interest to scholars of transgender studies decolonial feminist studies and aesthetic particularly those with a focus on gender and sexuality in Latin America

International Handbook on Gender and Demographic Processes Nancy E. Riley, Jan Brunson, 2018-05-02 This handbook presents a comprehensive and up to date

overview of gender in demography addressing the many different influences of gender that arise from or influence demographic processes It collects in one volume the key issues and perspectives in this area whereby demography is broadly defined The purpose in casting a wide net is to cover the range of work being done within demography but at the same time to open up our perspectives to neighboring fields to encourage better conversations around these issues The chapters in this handbook carefully document definition and measurement issues and take up parts of the demographic picture and focus on how gender plays a role in outcomes In other cases gender often plays a cross cutting role in social processes rather than having a single or easily distinguishable role it often combines with other social institutions and even other statuses and inequalities to affect outcomes Thus a key factor in this volume is how gender interacts with race ethnicity class nationality and sexuality in any demographic setting While each section contains chapters that are broad overviews of the current state of knowledge and behavior the handbook also includes chapters that focus on specific cultures or events in order to examine how gender operates in a particular circumstance

Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty-First Century Ellen Lewin, Leni M. Silverstein, 2016-07-07 Feminist anthropology emerged in the 1970s as a much needed corrective to the discipline's androcentric biases Far from being a marginalized subfield it has been at the forefront of developments that have revolutionized not only anthropology but also a host of other disciplines This landmark collection of essays provides a contemporary overview of feminist anthropology's historical and theoretical origins the transformations it has undergone and the vital contributions it continues to make to cutting edge scholarship Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty First Century brings together a variety of contributors giving a voice to both younger researchers and pioneering scholars who offer insider perspectives on the field's foundational moments Some chapters reveal how the rise of feminist anthropology shaped and was shaped by the emergence of fields like women's studies black and Latina studies and LGBTQ studies Others consider how feminist anthropologists are helping to frame the direction of developing disciplines like masculinity studies affect theory and science and technology studies Spanning the globe from India to Canada from Vietnam to Peru Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty First Century reveals the important role that feminist anthropologists have played in worldwide campaigns against human rights abuses domestic violence and environmental degradation It also celebrates the work they have done closer to home helping to explode the developed world's preconceptions about sex gender and sexuality

Feminist and Human Rights Struggles in Peru Pascha Bueno-Hansen, 2015-07-30 In 2001 following a generation of armed conflict and authoritarian rule the Peruvian state created a Truth and Reconciliation Committee TRC Pascha Bueno Hansen places the TRC feminist and human rights movements and related non governmental organizations within an international and historical context to expose the difficulties in addressing gender based violence Her innovative theoretical and methodological framework based on decolonial feminism and a critical engagement with intersectionality facilitates an in depth examination of the Peruvian transitional justice process based on field studies and archival research Bueno Hansen uncovers the colonial mappings and linear temporality underlying transitional justice efforts and illustrates why transitional justice mechanisms must reckon with the societal roots of atrocities if they are to result in true and lasting social transformation Original and bold Feminist and Human Rights Struggles in Peru elucidates the tension between the promise of transitional justice and persistent inequality and impunity Transition Towards Gender Equality Sonja Gierse-Arsten ,2024-01-30 Worldwide Namibia ranks high regarding gender equality However many women are intimidated by violence perpetrated by men This book is based on a social anthropological field research in the small town of Outjo situated in Northern Central Namibia over a period of 14 months Gender is learnt lived and reproduced in a societal frame Violence against women too is perpetrated by men in a societal context By using mainly qualitative research methods Sonja Gierse Arsten looks at male and female perspectives to reach a holistic understanding and to provide a basis for sustainable changes towards equal gender relations She traces the transition from a hierarchical gender system during colonial times to the aspired equal gender relations in present Namibia Current challenges characterised by poverty and great economic inequalities form the framework in which gender is performed and violence perpetrated This study offers inspirations to re think gender to reach substantive gender equality and to overcome the normalisation of violence The Trouble with

Marriage Srimati Basu,2015-01-03 The Trouble with Marriage is part of a new global feminist jurisprudence around marriage and violence that looks to law as strategy rather than solution In this ethnography of lawyer free family courts and mediations of rape and domestic violence charges in India Srimati Basu depicts everyday life in legal sites of marital trouble reevaluating feminist theories of law marriage violence property and the state Basu argues that alternative dispute resolution originally designed to empower women in a less adversarial legal environment has created new subjectivities but paradoxically has also reinforced oppressive socioeconomic norms that leave women no better off individually or collectively

The Popular Economy in Urban Latin America Eveline Dürr,Juliane Müller,2019-05-14 The Popular Economy in Urban Latin America Informality Materiality and Gender in Commerce advances comparative knowledge and theoretical reflections on urban popular economies in Latin America by going beyond the lenses of so called informal and street economies Contributors address case studies in Brazil Bolivia Cuba Ecuador Mexico and Peru to provide new insights in key concepts such as informality materiality and gender These case studies work to understand which actors and with what agencies are forming and transforming street markets and other place based economies and to what effects Remaining sensitive to history power and urban politics this book offers an ethnographically informed cultural and socio material perspective on how popular economies and commerce thrive transform and persist in Latin American cities today Scholars of anthropology economics Latin American studies urban studies and sociology will find this book particularly useful Decolonising Andean Identities Rebecca Irons,Phoebe Martin,2024-06-03 Decolonising Andean Identities presents ground breaking work from scholars carrying out social science research in and from Andean Latin America It addresses themes of central importance to contemporary perspectives on interdisciplinary gender studies and politics in societies undergoing significant social transformation The collection aims to develop the field of decolonial gender studies by showcasing interdisciplinary work at the forefront of scholarship It draws on international expertise through its diverse contributors including predominately Latin American scholars There is an urgent need to broaden the perspectives on gender and gender based activism in Latin America beyond the Southern Cone and Mexico in order to bring the region as a whole into dialogue with global scholarship The contributors use the term Andinx as a provocation to encourage scholars of the region to reconsider approaches the politics of gender sexuality and de coloniality By responding to the question Who are Andinx Andin exs the collection interrogates the postcolonial gendered and political subjectivities currently undergoing dramatic social change in Andean Latin America Praise for Decolonising Andean Identities Decolonizing Andean Identities is a brilliant contribution to the scholarship of the Andean region that offers readers a new grammar for thinking about gender and feminist activism in a decolonial register Irons and Martin introduce the term Andinx as a critical reevaluation of andeanism pushing the boundaries of academic discourse to encompass the rich multifaceted experiences of those living in the Andes today Julieta Chaparro Buitrago University of Cambridge This is a timely and inspirational collection that captures the power and potential of intersectional feminist activism in the Andes Breaking new ground conceptually through the term Andinx it also provides fascinating decolonial insights into gender sexualities indigeneity and feminism Cathy McIlwaine King s College London

Desired States Lessie Jo Frazier, 2020-06-12 Desired States challenges the notion that in some cultures sex and sexuality have become privatized and located in individual subjectivity rather than in public political practices and institutions Instead the book contends that desire is a central aspect of political culture Based on fieldwork and archival research Frazier explores the gendered and sexualized dynamics of political culture in Chile an imperialist context asking how people connect with and become mobilized in political projects in some cases or in others become disaffected or are excluded to varying degrees The book situates the state in a rich and changing context of transnational and localized movements imperialist interests geo political conflicts and market forces to explore the broader struggles of desiring subjects especially in those dimensions of life that are explicitly sexual and amorous free love movements marriage the sixties sexual revolution in Cold War contexts prostitution policies ideas about men s gratification the charisma of leaders and sexual domestic violence against women

STRUKTURAL 2020 Nina Setyaningsih, Sri Mulatsih, Neni Kurniawati, 2021-09-10 We proudly present the proceedings of 2nd International Seminar on Translation Studies Applied Linguistics Literature and Cultural Studies 2020 STRUKTURAL 2020 It focuses on how disruptive era influences participants field of researches especially in Humanities and Social Studies As we know the world today is changing and the world we are facing now is the one where everything is connected Not only are our PCs our tablets our hand phones and other devices connected but everything that happens in societies is also now connected Today even a robbery incident in a small village has a possibility to make a city in another part of the world collapse This butterfly effect of social change may also give a big impact in our understanding and our field of study of social sciences and humanities More than 70 manuscripts were presented at this conference with around 41 of them selected to be published in proceedings We hope by this conference discussions on how research on humanities and social studies is possible in a disruptive era will give a perspective for the social and humanities studies development The Prism of Human Rights Karin Friederic, 2023-08-11 The Prism of Human Rights illustrates how women's human rights campaigns have taken off in rural Ecuador Drawing on two decades of research and activism Friederic shows how the initial promises of legal empowerment often give way to self blame social isolation and more extreme structural violence and she demonstrates how one rural community is renegotiating beliefs about gender the family the meaning of violence and even community development Teacher, Scholar, Mother Anna M. Young, 2015-10-08 Teacher Scholar Mother advances a more productive conversation across disciplines on motherhood through its discussion on intersecting axes of power and privilege This multi and trans disciplinary book features mother scholars who bring their theoretical and disciplinary lenses to bear on questions of identity practice policy institutional memory progress and the gendered notion of parenting that still pervades the modern academy Marital Rape Kersti Yllö, M. Gabriela Torres, 2016-05-09 Marital Rape is the first book to examine rape in marriage as a global problem affecting millions of women While legal and cultural conceptions of marital rape vary widely from criminal assault to wifely duty the authors document that forced sex undermines the physical and psychological well being of women in all cultures Provocations Susan Bordo, M. Cristina Alcalde, Ellen Rosenman, 2015-03-21 The first collection of its kind Provocations A Transnational Reader in the History of Feminist Thought is historically organized and transnational in scope highlighting key ideas transformative moments and feminist conversations across national and cultural borders Emphasizing feminist cross talk transnational collaborations and influences and cultural differences in context this anthology heralds a new approach to studying feminist history Provocations includes engaging historically significant primary sources by writers of many nationalities in numerous genres from political manifestos to theoretical and cultural analysis to poetry and fiction These texts range from those of classical antiquity to others composed during the Arab Spring and represent Asia the Middle East Latin America Western Europe and the United States Each section begins with an introductory essay that presents central ideas and explores connections among readings placing them in historical national and intellectual contexts and concluding with questions for discussion and reflection Rural Women's Sexuality, Reproductive Health, and Illiteracy Gisele Maynard-Tucker, 2014-12-11 Based on twenty five years of fieldwork Rural Women's Sexuality Reproductive Health and Illiteracy A Critical Perspective on Development examines rural women's behaviors towards health in several developing countries These women are confronted with many factors gender inequalities violence from partners and lack of economic independence The book also gives insight into the general weakness of the health systems in place and questions the progress of numerous international conferences ICPD International Conference on

Population and Development and MDGs Millennium Development Goals along with WHO The World Health Organization Frame Work for Action UNFPA United Nations Population Fund and CEDAW Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women all supporting women s empowerment as related to violence education and reproductive health Chapters provide numerous concrete examples and vignettes describing constraints on women in a variety of countries related to their intimate lives and their struggle between traditional and modern medicine Widely practiced clandestine sex work is a challenge to HIV AIDS programs The book examines the women who choose clandestine sex work and their clients sexual behavior and attitudes toward prostitution and HIV prevention It also explores the negotiations between promiscuous migratory men and the ties of sexuality and fertility that women use to tie them to a male partner The book argues for effective delivery of healthcare programs accompanied by multi lateral responses from the civil society governments donors and agencies Rural Women s Sexuality Reproductive Health and Illiteracy is a useful resource scholars as well as consultants and staff working in development agencies and public health

Writing Terror on the Bodies of Women Sarah England, 2018-08-15 Writing Terror on the Bodies of Women Media Coverage of Violence against Women in Guatemala analyzes the scope and dynamics of violence against women in Guatemala and how it is represented in the print media Using nearly two thousand Guatemalan newspaper reports covering murders and assaults on women this book contextualizes violence against women within the history of violence in Guatemala gender ideologies and patriarchal social structures and the contemporary demands of the women s movement for social and legislative change It shows that while some newspapers cover violence against women with investigative reports and editorials that use feminist analysis and language these are overshadowed by the large number of individual reports that reproduce narratives of terror and conceal the gendered nature of violence against women by suggesting that delinquents gangs unknown men and inexplicably violent husbands are the main culprits while simultaneously upholding dichotomous gendered narratives of good and bad wives and daughters

Battering States Madelaine Adelman, 2021-04-30 Battering States explores the most personal part of people s lives as they intersect with a uniquely complex state system The book examines how statecraft shapes domestic violence how a state defines itself and determines what counts as a family how a state establishes sovereignty and defends its borders and how a state organizes its legal system and forges its economy The ethnography includes stories from people places and perspectives not commonly incorporated in domestic violence studies and in doing so reveals the transformation of intimate partner violence from a predictable form of marital trouble to a publicly recognized social problem The politics of domestic violence create novel entry points to understanding how although women may be vulnerable to gender based violence they do not necessarily share the same kind of belonging to the state This means that markers of identity and power such as gender nationality ethnicity religion and religiosity and socio economic and geographic location matter when it comes to safety and pathways to justice The study centers on Israel where a number of factors bring connections between the cultural politics of the state and domestic violence into stark relief the presence of a contentious multinational and multiethnic population competing and overlapping sets of religious and civil laws a growing gap between the wealthy and the poor and the dominant presence of a security state in people s everyday lives The exact combination of these factors is unique to Israel but they are typical of states with a diverse population in a time of globalization In this way the example of Israel offers insights wherever the political and personal impinge on one another
