currents of the period They also explore and problematize the modernization of world Jewry over this period from a global perspective covering Jews in the Islamic world and in the Americas as well as in Europe with many chapters straddling the conventional lines of division between Sephardic Ashkenazic and Mizrahi history The most up to date comprehensive and authoritative work in this field currently available this volume will serve as an essential reference tool and ideal point of entry for advanced students and scholars of early modern Jewish history Husbands Bosworth Polish Resettlement Camp

(1948-58) Urszula Szulakowska, 2020-06-04 This book presents the history of the Polish resettlement camps in the context of the post war reconstruction of Britain during the 1950s The Polish Resettlement Act 1947 concerned some 200 000 Poles stranded in the country after the war There are very few studies available in English concerning this migration to the UK and a limited number of Polish ones The focus of this study is the Husbands Bosworth camp in Northamptonshire which was located on a decommissioned RAF aerodrome at Sulby Hall between Welford and Naseby The text relies both on eye witness testimony including the author's own experiences as a child in the camp as well as on rare documentation located in private archives In particular the nationalistic culture of the Poles within the British Isles is examined critically as an indigenous development The Polish society that emerged out of the hundreds of rural Polish camps urban Polish clubs churches schools newspapers libraries museums and art galleries was a nationalistic culture of its own kind which drew on pre war life in Poland and yet also grew along quite different lines It was a culture created in reaction and in antagonism to the political authorities of the host country This study will be of interest to anyone concerned with the history of multicultural Britain
