Ethical Approaches to Preaching John S. McClure, 2021-02-23 Different ethical situations require different homiletical responses John McClure organizes recent literature on ethics and preaching into four ethical approaches Does your situation require public moral leadership Then a communicative ethic is best Does your situation require the development of countercultural moral character Then a witness ethic is best Does your situation require ethical consciousness raising and organizing for social justice Then a liberationist ethic is best Does your situation require genuine moral conversation and the discernment of shared commitments in spite of our differences Then a hospitality ethic is best Each ethical approach is briefly and carefully explored correlated with appropriate contexts and situations and demonstrated with model sermons The result is a useful handbook for quickly discerning what ethical approach is needed how to preach that approach and what to expect as a result

Preaching and Stewardship Craig A. Satterlee, 2011-06-29 Both new and veteran preachers alike find the annual stewardship sermon a challenge and are eager for encouraging practical advice In Preaching and Stewardship Craig Satterlee offers a nuts and bolts handbook on preaching stewardship raising issues preachers need to consider when preparing stewardship sermons and offering advice on how to address them Satterlee argues that stewardship preaching must include a bold and concrete proclamation of God's love will and justice as well as an invitation to grow as stewards in response to this proclamation He focuses each chapter on a question preachers ought to ask themselves as they prepare the stewardship sermon beginning with What do you mean by stewardship and Why should we give to the church In chapters 3 through 6 he explores what the Bible says about stewardship In chapter 7 he names some of the assumptions both preachers and worshipers bring to the stewardship sermon The final chapter a variety of ways congregations can support the stewardship sermon Satterlee illustrates the premise of each chapter with anecdotes from congregational life Preachers who desire examples of stewardship sermons will especially appreciate stewardship sermons he shares from various preachers to illustrate points in the main text

Dialogical Preaching Marlene Ringgaard Lorensen, Ph.D., 2013-11-20 Dialogical Preaching Bakhtin Otherness and Homiletics explores the genre of preaching in light of theories of dialogicity and carnivalization developed by Mikhail Bakhtin The Bakhtinian approach to preaching evokes ways in which historical acts and embodied experiences are transcribed in literary genres The theories of carnivalization manifest the dynamic other oriented interaction between reflexive texts and embodied acts Experiences of otherness and difference play a central role in human communication as well as in theological descriptions of the relationship between God and humans One of the central aims of this book is to explore ways in which others different from the designated preacher influence contemporary preaching practices and in that sense can be seen as co authors As material for this investigation the book provides analyses of four theologians who have contributed significantly to contemporary homiletical developments namely those of the American homileticians Charles Campbell John S McClure and James H Harris and the Danish Systematic Theologian Svend Bjerg The homiletical analyses lead to the thesis that the dialogical encounter between author and addressees analyzer and analyzed is one of the conditions of interpretation and communication rather than a disturbance The communication theoretical and practical theological analyses are discussed in light of Kierkegaard s Barth s and J ngel s emphasis on the qualitative difference between God and humans These concluding reflections suggest ways in which inter human otherness can function as a dynamically conjoining rather than mutually exclusive difference between God as the Wholly Other and other wise humans

Preaching to Teach Richard Voelz, 2019-08-06 Preaching to Teach merges the related functions of preaching and teaching and equips the reader to accomplish both Preachers stand up to speak each week in challenging times to unsettled congregations Each week seems to bring a new difficult subject mass shootings and other forms of violence hard conversations around race ethnicity and multi religious contexts immigration poverty climate change foreign and domestic terrorism and bickering about it all on social media Preachers are hungry for ways to envision the work of preaching in these times as well as for tools that will help them speak to difficult and contentious topics In a divided and weary world preachers struggle with the choice of any number of images to describe their preaching identity Responding to social crisis after social crisis preachers most often lean toward the roles of pastor prophet or somewhere on the spectrum in between the two Juggling between these images and their associated roles on a week to week basis can be exhausting But there is an ancient image of the preacher that may help the preacher as teacher The image of teacher has traditionally focused on content and rhetorical aspects of preaching the preacher is conveying information modeling theological reasoning or effecting a certain pulpit style But rather than focusing on traditional concepts of teaching to determine the content form style or delivery of sermons the field of critical pedagogy represented by notable figures such as Paulo Freire Henry Giroux Peter McLaren and bell hooks offers a way of re envisioning the preacher as teacher Recasting the preacher as teacher through the lens of critical pedagogy grounds the image of teacher in an ethical framework inviting preachers to redefine their public roles stand in relationships of solidarity with communities of faith break the silences of taboos tackle tough issues and re imagine the world in the shape of the kingdom of God

Broken Words Paul Scott Wilson, 2010-09-01 A look at what both our successes and failures in preaching can tell us about how to craft better sermons Paul Wilson has long been one of the most important figures among those who seek a richer and more complete understanding of what preaching is and how it might be made better In this new book he draws on his broad and deep work in homiletics to show preachers how to craft a variety of types of sermons How do you preach from the Old Testament What are the particular needs and challenges of preaching the Good Friday and then the Easter sermon What do you do when you want to address contemporary events Recognizing that all sermons are in some ways broken words he includes in each chapter an illustrative sermon some of which work well yet others of which don't If you stand in the pulpit long he reminds us you're going to preach your share of both You would do well to learn then how either kind of sermon the ones you're proud of and the ones you want to forget can provide ample opportunities to learn how to be a more effective and faithful preacher of the gospel Readers will learn how to vary the sources styles and substance of their sermons Key Benefits Will empower the reader to move outside their comfort zone in preaching thus engaging the broader possibilities for preaching Will help the reader to learn how to assess both their strong and weak sermons and learn from each Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021-05-25 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit

Reviving Evangelical Ethics Wyndy Corbin Reuschling, 2008-04 This accessible ethics text introduces students to classical models of ethics and evaluates them from a biblical perspective Preaching that Confronts Confederate Monuments

David M. Stark, 2025-10-30 Confederate monuments preach at times subtly at other times overtly about who we are who God is and how we should live together David M Stark looks at the way many Confederate monuments provided ongoing opportunities for commemorative speeches and ceremonies that would entrench racist and white supremacist ideologies in the American South Stark examines key speeches and proclamations given around monuments to the Lost Cause such as Julian Carr's Silent Sam speech 1913 and Archer Anderson's speech at the dedication of a monument to Robert E Lee 1890 reading these as theological and homiletic moments Stark then moves on to construct a homiletic that can confront such monuments and the racist preaching ideologies around them In developing this counter homiletic Stark analyzes the preaching strategies written into Confederate monuments and highlights best practices from recent counter proclamations that deconstruct the troubling rhetoric and theology of Confederate monument dedication speeches Finally Stark presents insights from naming commission reports and clergy interviews about the values mission and leadership needed to work for ongoing change Practicing with Paul Presian R.
