Tradition Concept And Claim:

Tradition Josef Pieper, 2008 The Limits of Liberalism Mark T. Mitchell, 2018-11-30 In The Limits of Liberalism Mark T Mitchell argues that a rejection of tradition is both philosophically incoherent and politically harmful The Limits of Liberalism identifies why most modern thinkers have denied the essential role of tradition and explains how tradition can be restored to its proper place Mitchell demonstrates that the rejection of tradition as an epistemic necessity has produced a false conception of the human person the liberal self which in turn has produced a false conception of freedom Together these false conceptions have facilitated both liberal cosmopolitanism and identity politics Mitchell uses the philosophies of Michael Oakeshott Alasdair MacIntyre and Michael Polanyi to construct a compelling argument for a reconstructed view of tradition and as a result a reconstructed view of freedom The Limits of Liberalism reveals that only by finding an alternative to the liberal self can we escape the incoherencies and pathologies inherent therein Ressourcement after Vatican II Nicholas J. Healy, Jr., Matthew Levering , 2019 Beginning with a personal recollection of the achievements of Joseph Fessio SJ this work includes twelve essays by theologians who acknowledge a debt to Father Fessio and Ignatius Press The writers treat a variety of topics including the Church the liturgy the interpretation of Scripture and the development of doctrine representing the interests of Father Fessio and the books he has published The essays touch upon the major twentieth century figures who influenced Father Fessio such as Hans Urs von Balthasar Louis Bouyer Henri de Lubac Joseph Ratzinger and Josef Pieper From its founding by Father Fessio in 1978 Ignatius Press has translated and printed works by these great thinkers and writers in order to make their contributions to the Church available to English speaking Catholics Forms of Representation in the Aristotelian Tradition. Volume Three: Concept Formation , 2022-04-11 The trilogy Forms of Representation in the Aristotelian Tradition investigates how Aristotle and his ancient and medieval successors understood the relation between the external world and the human mind It gives an equal footing to the three most influential linguistic traditions Greek Latin and Arabic and offers insightful interpretations of historical theories of perception dreaming and thinking This final volume focuses on intellectual operations and analyses some of the most exciting issues pertaining to the conceptual representation of the external world The contributions cover the historical traditions and their impact on contemporary philosophy of mind The Integral Philosophy of Aurobindo Brainerd Prince, 2017-01-20 Sri Aurobindo was an Indian nationalist philosopher yogi guru and poet This book is an enquiry into the integral philosophy of Aurobindo and its contemporary relevance It offers a reading of Aurobindo's key texts by bringing them into conversation with religious studies and the hermeneutical traditions The central argument is that Aurobindo's integral philosophy is best understood as a hermeneutical philosophy of religion Such an understanding of Aurobindo's philosophy offering both substantive and methodological insights for the academic study of religion subdivides into three interrelated aims The first is to demonstrate that the power of the Aurobindonian vision lies in its self conception as a traditional hermeneutical enquiry into religion the second to draw substantive insights from Aurobindo's enquiry to envision a way beyond the impasse within the current religious secular debate in the academic study of religion Working out of the condition of secularism the dominant secularists demand the abandonment of the category religion and the dismantling of the academic discipline of religious studies Aurobindo's integral work on religion arising out of the Vedānta tradition critiques the condition of secularity that undergirds the religious secular debate Finally informed by the hermeneutical tradition and building on the methodological insights from Aurobindo's integral method the book explores a hermeneutical approach for the study of religion which is dialogical in nature This book will be of interest to academics studying Religious Studies Philosophy of Religion Continental Hermeneutics Modern India Modern Hinduism as well as South Asian Studies

Modernity, the Environment, and the Christian Just War Tradition Mark Douglas, 2022-05-26 In this volume Mark Douglas presents an environmental history of the Christian just war tradition Focusing on the transition from its late medieval into its early modern form he explores the role the tradition has played in conditioning modernity and generating modernity's blindness to interactions between the natural and the political Douglas criticizes problematic myths that have driven conventional narratives about the history of the tradition and suggests a revised approach that better accounts for the evolution of that tradition through time Along the way he provides new interpretations of works by Francisco de Vitoria and Hugo Grotius and provocatively the Constitution of the United States of America Sitting at the intersection of just war thinking environmental history and theological ethics Douglas's book serves as a timely guide for responses to wars in a warming world as they increasingly revolve around the flashpoints of religion resources and refugees

Reforming Memory Robert Vosloo, 2017-10-12 Although we should acknowledge the fragility of memory we should nevertheless affirm the remarkable ability of memory to reform and transform our identity Our memories and ways of remembering are however often marked by trauma and violence Memory therefore not merely reforms it too is in need of reformation redemption and transformation With this emphasis in mind Reforming Memory grapples with the question what a responsible engagement with the past entails also for Christians and churches associated with the Reformed tradition The history of Reformed churches in South Africa is one can argue a deeply divided and ambivalent one The same figures are heroes to some and villains to others historic events are deeply ambiguous and conflicting views surround different discourses Yet the histories and perhaps futures of these churches and traditions are inextricably interwoven Reforming Memory fundamentally combines an interest in the notion of memory with an interest in South African Reformed theology and history Central is the question how should we remember and represent the past responsibly The essays collected in this book engage in different ways with this question attending in the process to some episodes in the history of the Dutch Reformed Church some influential Reformed theologians and some important Reformed practices and confessional documents

Consuming Tradition, Manufacturing Heritage Nezar Alsayyad, 2013-12-16 From the Grand Tour to today's packages holidays the last two centuries have witnessed an exponential growth in travel and tourism and as the twenty first century unfolds people of every class and from every country will be wandering to every part of the planet Meanwhile tourist destinations throughout the world find themselves in ever more fierce competition those places marginalized in today s global industrial and information economy perceiving tourism as perhaps the only means of surviving But mass tourism has raised the local and international passions as people decry the irreversible destruction of traditional places and historic sites Against these trends and at a time when standardized products and services are marketed worldwide there is an increasing demand for built environments that promise unique cultural experiences This has led many nations and groups to engage in the parallel processes of facilitating the consumption of tradition and of manufacturing tradition The contributors to this volume drawn from a wide range of disciplines address these themes within the following sections Traditions and Tourism Rethinking the Other Imaging and Manufacturing Heritage Manufacturing and Consuming Global and Local Their studies dealing with very different times environments and geographic locales will shed new light on how tourist gaze transforms the reality of built spaces into cultural imagery

The Philosophy of Emil Fackenheim Kenneth Hart Green, 2020-10-08 Fackenheim was one of the most philosophically serious knowledgeable and provocative contemporary Jewish thinkers His original focus as a philosophical theologian was mainly on revelation but in his later work he concerned himself primarily with the wide ranging implications of the Holocaust In this book Kenneth Hart Green examines Fackenheim s intellectual trajectory and traces how and why he focused so intently on the Holocaust He explores the deeper thought that Fackenheim developed about the Holocaust which he construed as a cataclysmic event that ruptured history and one that also brought about a change in the very structure of being As Green demonstrates the Holocaust according to Fackenheim s interpretation changes how we view all things from God to man to history It also radically affects Judaism Christianity and philosophy the major traditions that have shaped the Western world

Tradition Vs. Traditionalism Abraham Sagi, 2008 This book is a first attempt to examine the thought of key contemporary Jewish thinkers on the meaning of tradition in the context of two models The classic model assumes that tradition reflects lack of dynamism and reflectiveness and the present s unqualified submission to the past This view however is an image that the modernist ethos has ascribed to the tradition so as to remove it from modern existence In the alternative model a living tradition emerges as open and dynamic developing through an ongoing dialogue between present and past The Jewish philosophers discussed in this work Joseph B Soloveitchik Yeshayahu Leibowitz David Hartman and Eliezer Goldman ascribe compelling canonic status to the tradition and the analysis of their thought discloses the tension between these two models The book carefully traces the course they have plotted along the various interpretations of tradition through their approach to Scripture and to Halakhah Contents Editorial Foreword Introduction Returning to Tradition Paradox or Challenge The Tense Encounter with Modernity Soloveitchik Jewish Thought Confronts Modernity Compartmentalization From Ernst Simon to Yeshayahu Leibowitz The Harmonic Encounter with Modernity Religious Commitment in a Secularized World Eliezer
