W. Brunskill, 2004 A celebrated introduction to vernacular architecture Every type of plan of building material of roof structure and covering of window design of doorway is described both text and drawings are models of clarity Alec Clifton Taylor This superb guide which is built around a series of fundamental questions relating to the nature of building exteriors and interiors is now available again and is as useful as ever Traditional Buildings of Britain Ronald William Brunskill, 1983 Vernacular Heritage and Earthen Architecture Mariana Correia, Gilberto Carlos, Sandra Rocha, 2013-10-04 In a continuously changing world there has been a growing interest in the protection of vernacular heritage and earthen architecture The need to protect and enhance this fragile heritage via intelligent responses to threats from nature and the environment has become evident Historically vernacular heritage research focussed on philosophical aspects The Oxford Companion to Family and Local History David Hey, 2010-02-25 The Oxford Companion to Family and Local History is the most authoritative guide available to all things associated with the family and local history of the British Isles It provides practical and contextual information for anyone enquiring into their English Irish Scottish or Welsh origins and for anyone working in genealogical research or the social history of the British Isles This fully revised and updated edition contains over 2 000 entries from adoption to World War records Recommended web links for many entries are accessed and updated via the Family and Local History companion website This edition provides guidance on how to research your family tree using the internet and details the full range of online resources available Newly structured for ease of use thematic articles are followed by the A Z dictionary and detailed appendices which include further reading New articles for this edition are A Guide for Beginners Links between British and American Families Black and Asian Family History and an extended feature on Names With handy research tips a full background to the social history of communities and individuals and an updated appendix listing all national and local record offices with their contact details this is an essential reference work for anyone wanting advice on how to approach genealogical research as well as a fascinating read for anyone interested in the past

The Courtyard House Nasser O. Rabbat, 2017-07-05 The courtyard house is one of the most enduring architectural forms transcending regional historical and cultural boundaries Its balance of simple appropriate construction environmental control and social and familial structures continues to engage architects and architectural historians That the courtyard house is still relevant today is indicated through its ability to accommodate continual transformation without losing any of its formal integrity and cultural roots This book presents a series of viewpoints on courtyard houses from different periods and in different regions around the world from the Harem courtyards of the Topkapi Palace and the low cost housing settlements of

Protectorate Casablanca to contemporary design strategies for courtyard houses in the arid Gulf region Together the essays illuminate issues of particular relevance in architectural art historical and conservation discourses today Surveying Historic Buildings David Watt,2015-07-17 This bestselling book has been fully revised and updated to include valuable new case studies and examples which help to demonstrate the common problems found in older buildings It features many additional photographs illustrating the decay mechanisms and individual issues associated with damp timber decay masonry defects roofing problems and many other aspects The book begins by summarizing the basics of surveying practice including the inspection assessment defect diagnosis and monitoring of defects It then examines the building elements discussing their construction typical faults and their diagnoses This section provides specific advice on assessing industrial monuments and features concise inspection checklists for ease of reference In the final section the author looks to the future considering the specific challenges faced by property professionals when employed to survey historic buildings The book is accompanied by comprehensive appendices including sample survey forms and a list of useful contacts is followed by an extensive bibliography This book will be of particular interest to conservation officers surveyors architects archaeologists and planners

Timber-framed Buildings Richard Hayman,2021-02-18 Timber framed buildings are a distinctive and treasured part of Britain's heritage with such noteworthy examples as Little Moreton Hall Anne Hathaway's Cottage and Lavenham Guildhall The oldest are medieval but their numbers peaked in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries with a revival in the nineteenth The majority of timber framed buildings are houses but wood was used in all kinds of other buildings including shops inns churches town halls and farm buildings In this beautifully illustrated book Richard Hayman outlines the history of timber framed designs and considers the techniques used in their construction the regional variations in style that can be found and how these buildings displayed social status He also guides the reader in identifying structures now concealed behind later work and explores how these buildings have been treated in subsequent centuries British and Irish Archaeology,1994

Reader's Guide to British History David Loades,2020-12-17 The Reader's Guide to British History is the essential source to secondary material on British history This resource contains over 1 000 A-Z entries on the history of Britain from ancient and Roman Britain to the present day Each entry lists 6-12 of the best known books on the subject then discusses those works in an essay of 800 to 1 000 words prepared by an expert in the field The essays provide advice on the range and depth of coverage as well as the emphasis and point of view espoused in each publication
