The Forged Coupon, and Other Stories Leo graf Tolstoy, 2019-11-21

In The Forged Coupon and Other Stories, Leo Tolstoy intricately weaves together a series of poignant narratives that explore the moral dilemmas and existential crises faced by individuals in a rapidly modernizing society. Tolstoy employs a realist literary style characterized by deep psychological insight and a philosophical inquiry into the nature of morality, personal responsibility, and the consequences of deceit. The titular story, The Forged Coupon, serves as a powerful allegory about the repercussions of a seemingly trivial act, reflecting Tolstoy's preoccupation with the ethical dimensions of human life against the backdrop of 19th-century Russian society. Leo Tolstoy, one of literature's most profound moral philosophers, drew on his own transformative experiences, including a crisis of faith and a commitment to simplicity and ethics, to inform his writing. His deep questioning of societal norms and personal integrity is reflected in these stories, illustrating the tension between materialism and spiritual fulfillment that preoccupied him throughout his life. Tolstoy's ability to depict ordinary life imbued with profound ethical questions resonates throughout his works. Highly recommended for scholars and general readers alike, this collection invites reflection on the intricacies of human morality and the far-reaching impacts of one's decisions. Tolstoy's masterful storytelling, combined with his philosophical insights, ensures that readers emerge from this compelling work with a deeper understanding of the ethical complexities that govern human existence. What Men Live By, and Other Tales (Illustrated) Leo Tolstoy, 2020-06-28 What Men Live By is a short story written by Russian author Leo Tolstoy in 1885 It is one of the short stories included in his collection What Men Live By and Other Tales published in 1885 A kind and humble shoemaker called Simon goes out one day to purchase sheep skins in order to sew a winter coat for his wife and himself to share Usually the little money which Simon earns would be spent to feed his wife and children Simon decides that in order to afford the skins he must go on a collection to receive the five rubles and twenty kopeks owed to him by his customers As he heads out to collect the money he also borrows a three rouble note from his wife s money box While going on his collection he only manages to receive twenty kopeks rather than the full amount Feeling disheartened by this Simon rashly spends the twenty kopeks on vodka and starts to head back home drunkenly stumbling and talking to himself cursing the coat dealer He states that he is warm without the vodka and that he won t make it through the winter without a fur coat While approaching the chapel at the end of the road Simon stops and notices something pale looking leaning against it He looks harder and notices that it is a naked man who appears poor of health At first he is suspicious and fears that the man may have no good intentions if he is in such a state believing that he is just a drunk man He proceeds to pass the man until he sees that the man has lifted his head and is looking towards him Simon debates what to do in his mind and feels ashamed for his disregard and heads back to help the man Simon takes off his cloth coat and wraps it around the stranger He also gives him the extra pair of boots he was carrying He aids him as they both walk toward Simon s home Though they walk together side by side the stranger barely speaks and when Simon asks how he was left in that situation the only answers the man would give are I cannot tell and God has punished me Meanwhile Simon s wife Matryona debates whether or not to bake more bread for the night s meal so that there is enough for the following morning s breakfast She decides that the loaf of bread that they have left would be ample enough to last until the next morning As she sees Simon approaching the door she is angered to see him with a strange man who is wrapped in Simon s clothing Matryona immediately expresses her displeasure with Simon accusing him and his strange companion to be drunkards and harassing Simon for not returning with the sheep skin needed to make a new coat Once the tension settles down she bids that the stranger sit down and have dinner with them After seeing the stranger take bites at the bread she placed for him on his plate she begins to feel pity and shows so in her face When the stranger notices this his grim expression lights up immediately and he smiles for one brief moment After hearing the story from the stranger of how Simon had kindly robed the stranger after seeing him in his naked state Matryona grabs more of Simon s old clothing and gives it to the stranger
