The Dream of Ao James Polus, 2021-05-06 An imaginary historical tale set in the historic civilizations of East Asia The Dream of AO depicts the challenges of a moral and ethical life the fight for equality and the human drive for purpose The backdrop is the clash and convergence of four vastly different peoples each claiming cultural superiority It is also a romantic tale of the genuine love of three couples who bridge these cultural divides At the heart of the story is an epic mental battle of survival between two leaders of warring peoples one led by a woman of superior intelligence and insight versus her deadly opponent a man of extreme cunning The fictional events and characters convey classical themes of courage and treachery love and hate and the power of redemption and deep motivations of revenge This story of creative and fanciful imagination is the detailed recitation of a dream by a young man called AO who lived on the south eastern edge of the Indian subcontinent The dream was told through the words of professional storytellers itinerant preachers and mystics with powerful memories and magical verbal skills Audiences would sit quietly for hours even days absorbing every word of the tale Epic stories memorized and recited for centuries in the oral tradition eventually appeared in writings The narrator of this story called Akshay a distant descendant of AO assumes the task to write the entire story in precise detail faithfully reproducing into a written manuscript every word as spoken by trained storytellers for hundreds of years

Consider the Octopus Nora Raleigh Baskin, Gae Polisner, 2022-04-05 When chance or fate throws two twelve year olds together on board a scientific research ship at the edge of the Great Pacific Garbage Patch it's not all smooth sailing Jeremy JB Barnes is looking forward to spending the summer before seventh grade hanging on the beach But his mother a scientist has called for him to join her aboard a research ship where instead he'll spend his summer seasick and bored as he stares out at the endless plastic microbeads and other floating debris both visible and not that make up the Great Pacific Garbage Patch Miles and miles away twelve year old Sidney Miller is trying to come up with an alternate activity worthy of convincing her overprotective parents that she can skip summer camp When Jeremy is asked to find the contact information for a list of important international scientists and invite them to attend a last minute Emergency Global Summit he's excited to have a chance to actually do something that matters to the mission How could he know that the Sidney Miller he messages is not the famous marine biologist he has been tasked with contacting but rather a girl making podcasts from her bedroom let alone that she would want to sneak aboard the ship Nora Raleigh Baskin and Gae Polisner's Consider the Octopus is a comedy of errors mistaken identity and synchronicity Above all it is a heartfelt story about friendship and an empowering call to environmental protection especially to our young people who are already stepping up to help save our oceans and our Earth The Elevator Dreams Vishnuvarthanan Moorthy,2013-06-06 This is story about four people who gets stuck in an old elevator The Elevator takes them to different worlds and gives them tasks to achieve They have to demonstrate kindness truthfulness and honesty to come back to their own worlds The Journey involves many vanishing worlds and each world has fascinating characters and characteristics Ishita the 10 year old child is the lead who helps them to get back to their world Suitable for Children and readers of fantasy Journey in 7 different worlds Ideal short read for an hour reading The Universal Dream Key Patricia Garfield,2009-10-13 Book description to come The Octopus Scientists Sy Montgomery,2015 Looks at the work of renowned octopus scientist Jennifer Mather and a team of researchers on the island of Moorea where they work to learn more about octopuses and their behavior The Octopus Frank Norris,1901 Deals with the war between the wheat grower and the railroad trust The Octopus in the Parking Garage Rob Verchick,2023-04-11 Winner 2023 Choice Outstanding Academic Title One morning in Miami Beach an unexpected guest showed up in a luxury condominium complex s parking garage an octopus The image quickly went viral But the octopus and the combination of infrastructure quirks and climate impacts that left it stranded is more than a funny meme It s a potent symbol of the disruptions that a changing climate has already brought to our doorsteps and the ways we will have to adjust Rob Verchick examines how we can manage the risks that we can no longer avoid laying out our options as we face climate breakdown Although reducing carbon dioxide emissions is essential we need to adapt to address the damage we have already caused Verchick explores what resilience looks like on the ground from early humans on the savannas to today s shop owners and city planners He takes the reader on a journey into the field paddling through Louisiana s bayous hiking in one of the last refuges of Joshua trees in the Mojave Desert and diving off Key Largo with citizen scientists working to restore coral reefs The book emphasizes disadvantaged communities which bear the brunt of environmental risk arguing that building climate resilience is a necessary step toward justice Engaging and accessible for nonexpert concerned citizens The Octopus in the Parking Garage empowers readers to face the climate crisis and shows what we can do to adapt and thrive

Flannery O'Connor's South Robert Coles,1993 Flannery O Connor s South offers a forceful analysis both literary and philosophical of Flannery O Connor s life and literature First published in 1980 this study draws upon Robert Coles personal experiences in the South during the civil rights movement of the late 1950s and early 1960s his brief acquaintance with Flannery O Connor and his careful readings of her works The voices and gestures of the people Coles met in the South help illuminate the social scene that influenced one of the region s most valuable and interesting writers The Octopus Frank Norris,1981 Based on an actual bloody dispute between wheat farmers and the Southern Pacific Railroad in 1880 this is the story of the waning days of the frontier West Good things, for the young of all ages ,1876 All of Us or None Monisha Das Gupta,2024-08-21 In All of Us or None Monisha Das Gupta tells the story of contemporary antideportation organizing in the United States by migrants and refugees labeled as criminal aliens These activists who live daily with criminalization work against forms of deportation that Das Gupta calls settler carcerality the United States use of deportation to exert territorial control in the face of Indigenous self determination Drawing on fieldwork with antideportation organizing groups in New York Los Angeles Long Beach and Honolulu Das Gupta documents the inventive methods of struggle against settler carcerality Das Gupta shows how the organizers actions and visions depart from the settler colonial nature of the mainstream demands for a pathway to citizenship and civil rights Through direct action storytelling political education and youth and queer leadership these organizations and collectives conceptualize an abolitionist vision of migration justice that rejects the settler state and encompasses all those who are disavowed By highlighting this work Das Gupta demonstrates the transformative promise offered by a dissident migrant led politics working toward dismantling settler structures and logics

Outer Space and Popular Culture Annette Froehlich, 2023-03-01 This book provides detailed insights into how space and popular culture intersect across a broad spectrum of examples including cinema music art arcade games cartoons comics and advertisements This is a pertinent topic since the use of space themes differs in different cultural contexts and these themes can be used to explore various aspects of the human condition and provide a context for social commentary on politically sensitive issues With the use of space imagery evolving over the past sixty years of the space age this is a topic ripe for in depth exploration The book also discusses the contrasting visions of space from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and the reality of today and analyzes space vehicles and habitats in popular depictions of space from an engineering perspective exploring how many of those ideas have actually been implemented in practice and why or why not a case of life imitating art and vice versa As such it covers a wide array of relevant and timely topics examining intersections between space and popular culture and offering accounts of space and its effect on culture language and storytelling from the southern regions of the world Man in the Glass Octopus J.
