When Species Meet Posthumanities Paperback 2007 Author Donna J Haraway:

When Species Meet Donna J. Haraway, 2013-11-30 In 2006 about 69 million U S households had pets giving homes to around 73.9 million dogs 90.5 million cats and 16.6 million birds and spending more than 38 billion dollars on companion animals As never before in history our pets are truly members of the family But the notion of companion species knotted from human beings animals and other organisms landscapes and technologies includes much more than companion animals In When Species Meet Donna J Haraway digs into this larger phenomenon to contemplate the interactions of humans with many kinds of critters especially with those called domestic At the heart of the book are her experiences in agility training with her dogs Cayenne and Roland but Haraway's vision here also encompasses wolves chickens cats baboons sheep microorganisms and whales wearing video cameras From designer pets to lab animals to trained therapy dogs she deftly explores philosophical cultural and biological aspects of animal human encounters In this deeply personal yet intellectually groundbreaking work Haraway develops the idea of companion species those who meet and break bread together but not without some indigestion A great deal is at stake in such meetings she writes and outcomes are not guaranteed There is no assured happy or unhappy ending socially ecologically or scientifically There is only the chance for getting on together with some grace Ultimately she finds that respect curiosity and knowledge spring from animal human associations and work powerfully against ideas about human exceptionalism

Posthuman Glossary Rosi Braidotti, Maria Hlavajova, 2018-02-22 If art science and the humanities have shared one thing it was their common engagement with constructions and representations of the human Under the pressure of new contemporary concerns however we are experiencing a posthuman condition the combination of new developments such as the neoliberal economics of global capitalism migration technological advances environmental destruction on a mass scale the perpetual war on terror and extensive security systems with a troublesome reiteration of old unresolved problems that mean the concept of the human as we had previously known it has undergone dramatic transformations The Posthuman Glossary is a volume providing an outline of the critical terms of posthumanity in present day artistic and intellectual work It builds on the broad thematic topics of Anthropocene Capitalocene eco sophies digital activism algorithmic cultures and security and the inhuman It outlines potential artistic intellectual and activist itineraries of working through the complex reality of the posthuman condition and creates an understanding of the altered meanings of art vis vis critical present day developments It bridges missing links across disciplines terminologies constituencies and critical communities This original work will unlock the terms of the posthuman for students and researchers alike
