When Victims Become Killers Colonialism Nativism And The Genocide In Rwanda:

When Victims Become Killers Mahmood Mamdani, 2002-09 Rejecting easy explanations of the genocide as a mysterious evil force that was bizarrely unleashed one of Africa's best known intellectuals situates the tragedy in its proper context He coaxes to the surface the historical geographical and political forces that made it possible for so many Hutu to turn so brutally on their neighbors He finds answers in the nature of political identities generated during colonialism in the failures of the nationalist revolution to transcend these identities and in regional demographic and political currents that reach well beyond Rwanda In so doing Mahmood Mamdani broadens understanding of citizenship and political identity in postcolonial Africa Mamdani's analysis provides a foundation for future studies of the massacre His answers point a way out of crisis a direction for reforming political identity in central Africa and preventing future tragedies When

Victims Become Killers Mahmood Mamdani, 2002 Reconstructie van de genocide op de Tutsi's door de Hutu's in Rwanda in 1994 Who Must Die in Rwanda's Genocide? Kyrsten Sinema, 2015-09-11 This book provides a juridical sociopolitical history of the evolution of the 1994 Rwandan genocide Over one million citizens were massacred in less than 100 days via a highly organized efficiently executed genocide throughout the tiny country of Rwanda While genocide is not a unique phenomenon in modern times a genocide like Rwanda's is unique Unlike most genocides wherein a government plans and executes mass murder of a targeted portion of its population asking merely that the majority population look the other way or at most provide no harbor to the targeted population ex Germany the Rwandan government relied heavily on the civilian population to not only politically support but actively engage in the acts of genocide committed over the 100 days throughout the spring of 1994 This book seeks to understand why and how the Rwandan genocide occurred It analyzes the colonial roots of modern Rwandan government and the development of the political state of exception created in Rwanda that ultimately allowed the sovereign to dehumanize the minority Tutsi population and execute the most efficient genocide in modern history

Inequalities and Conflicts in Modern and Contemporary African History Jan Záhorký, 2018-11-16 The book deals with historical social economic political and international causes contexts and consequences of inequalities and conflicts in Africa In particular the book is to put conflicts and turbulences in Ethiopia in a broader African comparative perspective It also identifies and analyzes multiple causes of conflicts which cannot be studied only as a result of one variable Inequalities and conflicts have a whole set of causes stemming from historically inherited as well as global international socio economic political and other contexts which cannot be analyzed separately This book is vital for anyone who is interested in the study of African history comparative politics and conflict in Africa Experiments with Truth Okwui Enwezor, 2002 The catastrophic fate of European Jewry during the years of National Socialism in Germany and the subsequent calamity of the holocaust for both Jews and other minorities under the Third Reich have continued to press on contemporary thinkers and historians the difficult task of coming to terms with its features While the Holocaust or Shoah remains representative of a form of state crime its overwhelming singularity is today tested by many cases of state impunity systemic violence repression war crimes and gross human rights violations especially in the Balkans and Rwanda In the wake of the debates around such violations new and formidable categories of jurisprudence are emerging in which such notions as transitional justice global justice and universal jurisdiction are working to reshape the nature of judicial sovereignty on the one hand and accountability on the other in the post cold war period Experiments with Truth engages with the vicissitudes of the emerging debates around Truth and Reconciliation new forms of global justice testimonies and memories of communities In this volume a wide range of intellectuals artists filmmakers and historians respond to the challenge of transitional justice in often difficult but illuminating ways TDR, 2008 South African Yearbook of International Affairs, 2003 Jerusalem Quarterly File, 2003 Monthly Review, 2003 Displacement Risks in Africa Itaru Ohta, Gebre Yintiso, 2005 As the plight of refugees around the world looms large as one of the central problems facing the international political community at the beginning of the 21st century the situations facing displaced persons in Africa are both acute manifestations of this global trend and unique in their particularities As the powerful nations of the world are mobilized to tackle domestic conflicts and their ensuing refugee problems in the Balkans the Middle East Southeast Asia and elsewhere African societies have typically been abandoned by the international community to resolving their own conflicts through their own means The authors of this volume examine both causes and effects of displacement in terms of both local and global politics environmental risks socio economic costs and policy and identity issues Combined these papers provide a powerful if not comprehensive overview of the variety and complexity of circumstances concerning displaced persons Michigan State Journal of International Law, 2013 Trinity College Law Review, 2006 Kwasi Wiredu and Beyond Sanya Osha, 2005 Kwasi Wiredu is one of Africa's foremost philosophers whose thinking on conceptual decolonization in contemporary African systems of thought is well known Wiredu advocates a re examination of current African epistemic formations in order to subvert unsavoury aspects of tribal cultures embedded in modern African thought as well as deconstruct the unnecessary Western epistemologies to be found in African philosophical practices In this book Sanya Osha argues that Wiredu's apparent schematism falls short as a viable project and suggests that because of the very hybridity of postcoloniality projects seeking to retrieve the precolonial heritage are bound to be marred at several levels Language itself presents a major problem which Wiredu's thesis does not fully address BOOK JACKET Empire of Knowledge Vinay Lal, 2005 Offering a dissenting perspective on the politics of knowledge this book is a powerful critique of the intellectual and cultural assumptions that underline the current processes of development modernization and globalization The author demonstrates that the world as we know it today is understood largely through categories that are the product of Western knowledge systems His critique of the existing world order and his vision of possible futures encourage the reader to engage in the study of the West Rather than merely reversing Orientalism such a study would create a body of knowledge about the West that would enable people to better understand both themselves and the West This important and lucidly written book deconstructs the cultural assumptions that have emerged alongside capitalism and offers a devastating critique of the politics of knowledge at the heart of all powerbroking

Ethnicity and Politics in Africa Crawford Young,2002 Transition ,2002 Lesotho Law Journal ,2007 The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,2003 African Affairs ,1944 At the Cross, at the Crossroads Craig A. Smith,2007
