compassionate and evocative book of poems about topics which touch all of us in some way over a lifetime but which we often have a hard time talking about The poems speak of dealing with loss and love mental health depression suicide and how to get up when you've been knocked down The raw emotion of these experiences is worded in straight forward language which connects directly with the reader and includes surprising but recurrent elements of deftly wielded humour Sometimes Chloe Martin Snell's poems are like the messages carved into gravestones other times like a diary entry an inspirational quote a blues song Whatever the form her poetry is an affirmation that things do get better that things do turn around Written from the perspective of someone who has known depression themselves and witnessed the terrible devastation wrought by depression on a loved one Chloe Martin Snell's poetry will be a boon to everyone who has struggled or is struggling to make it through opening up a much needed conversation Begun as a personal project We Miss You Giving All My Flowers to a Ghost is ultimately uplifting and a paean to friendship faithfulness family and human connection With this first book of poetry Chloe Martin Snell extends this connection to others especially other young adults reaching out with evocative language an original and dynamic style courage honesty and an unerring vision of what really matters When
