Louisa May Alcott

Where Have You Been Hood:

Oh, Hamlet, Hamlet, where Have You Been? Bess Sherman Cowden, 1923 Where The Hell Have You Been? Tom Carver, 2013-08-22 A terrific read Andy McNab In November 1942 two nights after the Battle of El Alamein a young British army officer was captured As the Nazis deliberated about what to do with him Richard Carver had particular reason to be afraid unknown to anyone he was the stepson of Field Marshal Bernard Montgomery the Allied Commander who had just inflicted the first defeat on the Third Reich This gripping story tells of Richard s internment in a POW camp in northern Italy Having decided to risk making his way back to Allied HQ in the south he embarked on a gruelling 500 mile journey through German occupied territory evading capture again and again and ultimately being saved by a family of brave Italians who jeopardised not just their own lives but those of an entire village to hide him In the winter of 1943 a year after he disappeared he staggered back into Army HQ to be greeted by his stepfather with the words Where the hell have you been This is a great adventure story a reminder of a lost age and of a generation forced to rise to extraordinary feats of valour in the service of a cause greater than themselves Riveting and remarkable Ben Macintyre author of Operation Mincemeat This account is a gem It reminds one of the gallantry and devotion to duty of a generation that has left us Patrick Cordingley Commander of the Desert Rats Iraq 1991 Where the Hell Have You Been provides a completely new way of seeing the prickly old warrior Monty The Daily Telegraph Report from the Select Committee on East India Communications Great Britain.
