The Pacific Monthly William Bittle Wells, Lute Pease, 1909 Stories From My Career Lynne Gross, 2014-02-20 Stories From My Career is a compilation of 50 illustrated stories about the author's career as a college professor and media practitioner. Her career began in the 1960s when very few women were employed in either area and spanned six decades until her retirement. The initial stories take place in Pittsburgh where she grew up and Chicago where she went to college but most of the stories are centered in the Los Angeles area. A fair number also take place in other countries where she taught and consulted. The stories encompass topics such as combining career and family, the evolution of electronic technology, the civil rights movement, maternity leave practices, television production techniques, the Academy of Television Arts Sciences, beginnings of cable TV, teaching challenges, media functions in developing nations, and career advice. Ikats of Savu Geneviève Duggan, 2001 The book explores the links between mythology and weaving of the island of Savu and examines how textiles have formed the fabric of Savunese society throughout time. Ikat weavings of Savu are exceptional in the sense that they act as markers of historical events. They have a heraldic significance and can be read like a text. They also form a language expressing the socio-political structure of Savunese society. In this era of globalization and the resulting threat to small-scale societies, it is the author's hope that this book will contribute to the protection of the work of traditional weavers and to the recognition of their unique cultural heritage from Amazon. Gangster Planet Linda Minor, Daniel Hopsicker, 2024-10-31 Gangster Planet is a wild ride exploring the ever-evolving world of drug trafficking, money laundering, and stock swindles. Written in an engaging and accessible style, this book not only informs but entertains as it delves into the historical progression of criminal activities. As technology rapidly advances, so too do the methods of those engaged in illegal enterprises. The book reveals how modern criminals adapt their strategies, seamlessly integrating new techniques into their operations. It also uncovers the collaboration between drug traffickers and so-called professional white-collar criminals who play a crucial role in laundering illicit profits through global public corporations. Crisis and Creativity Piet Konings, D. Foeken, 2006 At times of economic and political crisis in Sub-Saharan Africa, urban dwellers display a large degree of creativity in their survival strategies by developing social networks and constructing imaginative and original practices and ideas. This volume views the urban neighbourhood from two different perspectives and explores the importance of these creative processes. The first approach considers the neighbourhood as a geographical domain in which people are engaged in a variety of activities to advance their material and immaterial well-being, making use of their wealth of opportunities, assets, and diverse forms of natural, physical, financial, human, and social capital. The second angle sees the neighbourhood as not necessarily geographically located or bounded but as having been created and defined by human beings. These neighbourhoods may take on the form of self-help organizations, associations, or churches, or may be based on gender generational ethnic or occupational identities As the contributions from all over Sub Saharan Africa show the two approaches do not necessarily exclude each other Martin Eden Jack London,1965 The Shilluk People, Their Language and Folklore Diedrich Westermann,1912 American Journalism Review ,2008-02 The Mid-Pacific Magazine ...
