Women Klimt Schiele Kokoschka:

The Naked Truth Tobias Günter Natter, Max Hollein, Leopold Museum, 2005 Centrada en el tema del espacio público y la desnudez la muestra presenta obras de Klimt Schiele Kokoschka y otros artistas de la Viena de fines del siglo XIX que en su día chocaron con las concepciones morales y estéticas de una sociedad muy conservadora traspasando los límites establecidos acerca de lo que puede ser exhibido públicamente y contribuyendo a la emancipación del desnudo The Woman Question, 2017 The Female Secession Megan Brandow-Faller, 2020-06-22 Decorative handcrafts are commonly associated with traditional femininity and unthreatening docility However the artists connected with interwar Vienna's female Secession created craft based artworks that may be understood as sites of feminist resistance In this book historian Megan Brandow-Faller tells the story of how these artists disrupted long established boundaries by working to dislodge fixed oppositions between art and craft decorative and profound and masculine and feminine in art Tracing the history of the women's art movement in Secessionist Vienna from its origins in 1897 at the Women's Academy to the Association of Austrian Women Artists and its radical offshoot the Wiener Frauenkunst Brandow-Faller tells the compelling story of a movement that reclaimed the stereotypes attached to the idea of Frauenkunst or women's art She shows how generational struggles and diverging artistic philosophies of art craft and design drove the conservative and radical wings of Austria's women's art movement apart and explores the ways female artists and craftswomen reinterpreted and extended the Klimt Group's ideas in the interwar years Brandow-Faller draws a direct connection to the themes that impelled the better known explosion of feminist art in 1970s America In this provocative story of a Viennese modernism that never disavowed its ornamental decorative roots she gives careful attention to key primary sources including photographs and reviews of early twentieth century exhibitions and archival records of school curricula and personnel Engagingly written and featuring more than eighty representative illustrations The Female Secession recaptures the radical potential of what Fanny Harlfinger Zakucka referred to as works from women's hands It will appeal to art historians working in the decorative arts and modernism as well as historians of Secession era Vienna and gender history The Power of Art Caroline Campbell, 2023-10-12 To read most histories of art you might be forgiven for supposing that great artists are superhuman and the knowledge of different movements periods and styles is essential to truly appreciate art It's time to look at art in a new way THE POWER OF ART delves into the stories behind remarkable acts of creation in fifteen global cities at pivotal moments of artistic brilliance It shows how art is an integral part of our daily lives embedded in the very fabric of our existence From the enduring wonders of ancient Babylon to the menacing pastel architecture of contemporary Pyongyang eminent curator Caroline Campbell intertwines the stories of artists with the broader social cultural and political landscapes of their time In each vivid episode Campbell reveals how art in all its forms is a testament to humanity's inventiveness and ingenuity it has served our fundamental needs for shelter sustenance spirituality pleasure order and community But it can also evoke envy anger greed and even be used as a means of social control Spanning thousands of years of creativity THE POWER OF ART will ignite your imagination and open your eyes to the art that surrounds us whether it be a painting in a gallery a public sculpture or an everyday object with hidden beauty Design Dialogue: Jews, Culture and Viennese Modernism Elana Shapira, 2018-10-01 The Design Dialogue anthology is a remarkable exploration of the decisive role of Jewish patrons professionals architects designers and authors in shaping modern Viennese architecture design and material culture Leading cultural historians museum curators art historians and architects present cutting edge research examining how famous and less known protagonists created new cultural languages identifications and networks engaged in social debates and contributed to the cultural renewal of Vienna a major capital in Central Europe between 1800 and 1938 Austrian Information ,1993

Erasures and Eradications in Modern Viennese Art, Architecture and Design Megan Brandow-Faller, Laura Morowitz, 2022-09-23

Erasures and Eradications in Modern Viennese Art Architecture and Design challenges the received narrative on the artists exhibitions and interpretations of Viennese Modernism. The book centers on three main erasures the erasure of Jewish artists and critics erasures relating to gender and sexual identification and erasures of other marginalized figures and movements. Restoring missing elements to the story of the visual arts in early twentieth century Vienna authors investigate issues of gender race ethnic and sexual identity and political affiliation. Both well studied artists and organizations such as the Secession and the Austrian Werkbund and iconic figures such as Klimt and Hoffmann are explored as are lesser known figures and movements. The book's thought provoking chapters expand the chronological contours and canon of artists surrounding Viennese Modernism to offer original nuanced and rich readings of individual works while offering a more diverse portrait of the period from 1890 through World War II and into the present. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history design history architectural history and European studies.
