Working And Mothering In Asia Images Ideologies And Identities:

Working and Mothering in Asia Theresa W. Devasahayam, Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 2007 Large numbers of women in Asia engage in paid work in many cases outside the home Some of them simply need to support their families Others particularly educated women hope to develop rewarding careers Many of these women also continue to shoulder the home and family responsibilities that social and cultural norms define as their primary concern In an effort to balance the conflicting demands of these roles women in various Asian societies are negotiating contesting and reconfiguring motherhood Back cover The Globalization of Motherhood Wendy Chavkin, Jane Maree Maher, 2010-09-13 Brings together research from the Global North and the Global South to illuminate how contemporary motherhood is changed by the processes of globalization

Gender, Emotions and Labour Markets - Asian and Western Perspectives Ann Brooks, Theresa Devasahayam, 2010-12-14 The concept of emotional labour has largely emerged from the analysis of organizations in the West However little has been written about the issue of what defines emotional labour and how it is configured in different cultural contexts This book addresses this gap in the literature and considers how and in what ways emotional labour characterises formal and informal work environments in Southeast Asia Family Ambiguity and Domestic Violence in Asia Maznah Mohamad, Saskia Wieringa, 2013 Domestic violence in Asia is explored in this analysis through questions of family ambiguity and the relationship between concept law and strategy Comparative experiences in the Asian context enable an examination of the effectiveness of family regulations and laws in diverse national cultural and religious settings Key questions relate to the limits and relevance of the human rights discourse in resolving family conflicts the extent to which power and control in intimate relationships can actually be regulated by a set of inanimate homogeneous and uniform policies and legislations and how the state relates to the family as an ambiguous unit given state rules of governance that perpetuate unequal gender relations Carefully considering the many components of domestic violence such as state intervention versus the private domain and differences in legislation across Asia the book offers new theoretical insights to the conceptualization of the family culture and law and provides reasoned new perspectives on the effectiveness or inadequacy of present policies and enforcement strategies against domestic violence in Asia Asian Migrations Tony Fielding, 2015-07-16 This textbook describes and explains the complex reality of contemporary internal and international migrations in East Asia Taking an interdisciplinary approach Tony Fielding combines theoretical debate and detailed empirical analysis to provide students with an understanding of the causes and consequences of the many types of contemporary migration flows in the region Key features of Asian Migrations Comprehensive coverage of all forms of migration including labour migration student migration marriage migration displacement and human trafficking Text boxes containing key concepts and theories More than 30 maps and diagrams Equal attention devoted to broad structures e g political economy and individual agency e g migration behaviours Emphasis on the conceptual and empirical connections between internal and international migrations Exploration of the policy implications of the trends and processes discussed Written by an experienced scholar and teacher of migration studies this is an essential text for courses on East Asian migrations and mobility and important reading for courses on international migration and Asian societies more generally

Growing up Female in Multi-Ethnic Malaysia Cynthia Joseph, 2014-08-21 This book provides a rich detailed analysis of the experiences of young women growing up in post colonial rapidly modernizing Malaysia It considers the impact of ethnicity socio economic status and school experiences and achievement It discusses the effects of Malaysia's ethnic affirmative action programmes and of the country's Islamisation It sets out and compares the life trajectories of Malay Indian and Chinese young women making use of interview and questionnaire data gathered over a long period It thereby depicts individuals transformations as they experience maturing into adulthood against a background of social and economic changes and varying levels of inter racial tension

Working Women and their Rights in the Workplace Naeima Faraj A.A. Al-Hadad, 2016-03-09 This book addresses women's rights to work and motherhood in Libya from a legal and international human rights perspective In an attempt to solve the problem posed by the perception that there is an unsolvable conflict between the right of women to work and their right to motherhood the author considers how these two sets of rights as protected under international human rights law can and should be recognised and promoted within the Libyan legal system Including first hand accounts of experiences of Libyan women the study voices their struggle for their rights as guaranteed by domestic law international conventions and Islam Providing a rare insight into a region striving to find its new identity the author assesses the adequacy of existing Libyan laws and where warranted offers proposals for legislative amendments to Libyan policy makers and its new Parliament at such a crucial time in the nation's history

Handbook on Transnationalism Yeoh, Brenda S.A., Collins, Francis L., 2022-01-18 Providing a critical overview of transnationalism as a concept this Handbook looks at its growing influence in an era of high speed globalised interconnectivity It offers crucial insights on how approaches to transnationalism have altered how we think about social life from the family to the nation state whilst also challenging the predominance of methodologically nationalist analyses

Handbook on the Geographies of Globalization Robert C. Kloosterman, Virginie Mamadouh, Pieter Terhorst, 2018-11-30 Processes of globalization have changed the world in many often fundamental ways Increasingly these processes are being debated and contested This Handbook offers a timely rich as well as critical panorama of these multifaceted processes with up to date chapters by renowned specialists from many countries It comprises chapters on the historical background of globalization different geographical perspectives including world systems analysis and geopolitics the geographies of flows of people goods and services and capital and the geographies of places including global cities clusters port cities and the impact of climate change

Histories of Health in Southeast Asia Tim Harper, Sunil S. Amrith, 2014-10-01 Health patterns in Southeast Asia have changed profoundly over the past century In that period epidemic and chronic diseases environmental transformations and international health institutions have created new connections within the region and the increased interdependence of Southeast Asia with China and India In this volume leading scholars provide a new approach to the history of health in Southeast Asia Framed by a series of synoptic pieces on the Landscapes of Health in Southeast Asia in 1914 1950 and 2014 the essays interweave local national and regional perspectives They range from studies of long term processes such as changing epidemics mortality and aging and environmental history to detailed accounts of particular episodes the global cholera epidemic and the hajj the influenza epidemic of 1918 WWII and natural disasters The writers also examine state policy on healthcare and the influence of organizations from NGOs such as the China Medical Board and the Rockefeller Foundation to grassroots organizations in Thailand Indonesia and the Philippines
