Tree Spirituality An Introduction To Trees Humans And The Realm They Share:

Tree Spirituality Darcy MacPherson, 2015-07-21 In a fun filled approach this book is a beginner's reflection of the myths and stories from the trees and the cultures that integrate with them. Passing old and new stories to all generations from both ancient and modern times perhaps with an aha moment. It is a look at old enemies and new ones, traditional industry and development and the new onslaught of insects or unwelcomed plants that rapidly change the environment. Trees have provided for humans, fairies, gnomes and others from mysterious realms. They continue to act as doorways or portals though the places of passages are dwindling. But as humans we can help them to come back or create new ones. The stories and knowledge presented in this book and the following series will help to enliven the spirit to find or create new portals. We are stewards of each other and helping each keeps the magic afloat. Through these writings you may be reminded of what was in the past and to what the future can bring. By walking thru the woods with new eyes and maybe old eyes that are reminded of a favorite childhood story or tree we can stand in amazement once again amongst saplings and ancient elders asking to be heard and willing to hear to integrate all the realms. This introductory book will provide some of the magical properties that surround trees and how to understand them. Using stories, myths and science from ancient to modern time pieces of the puzzles around trees can be identified and understood. Here we see the complexity of the Greeks, Egyptians and Japanese nature cultures and their intricate structure of tree nymphs, gods and goddesses that integrated with their surrounding environments. The glimpse of tree spirituality from across the globe provides an introduction to the myths, cultures and trees in regional meanings to whole cultural experiences. It is the author's hope that this offering provides an introduction of why trees are and have been revered in certain areas, what they do for the earth and even more importantly how other realms interact with trees and humans and becoming part of local knowledge. Did you know that trees were seasonal markers? They were considered so significant that calendars, alphabets and healing properties were assigned to them. Marking both physical and invisible crossroads, trees have been used to, whether naturally or man-made, to build foundational structures creating physical archways or distinctive paths for the traveler. In their way, trees are the keepers of time; when allowed to age, they share those stories from around the world with each other and those who can hear them speak. As we honor and appreciate them, they become sacred. This series aims to help bring us back to our center, honoring the natural seasonal changes, lore, powers, attributes and more. To describe the interaction of trees with one's spirit is a personal journey, but their habitat, they provide impacts everyone and all realms. As the 21st century progresses with invasive plants and insects and changing climates, what does this mean to ancient stories? What new stories are coming about for the future generations? How are those stories shared or integrated into new knowledge? Let's embark on this journey together, integrating tree energy and knowledge from a time when trees and forests were thought to be inhabited by spirits and divine beings and go forward.

Ecologies in Southeast Asian Literatures: Histories, Myths and Societies Chi P. Pham, Chitra Sankaran, Gurpreet

Kaur,2019-09-09 Ecocriticism in relation to the Southeast Asian region is relatively new So far John Charles Ryan s Ecocriticism in Southeast Asia is the first book of its kind to focus on the region and its literature to give an ecocritical analysis that volume compiles analyses of the eco literatures from most of the Southeast Asian region providing a broad insight into the ecological concerns of the region as depicted in its literatures and other cultural texts This edited volume furthers the study of Southeast Asian ecocriticism focusing specifically on prominent myths and histories and the myriad ways in which they connect to the social fabric of the region Our book is an original contribution to the expanding field of ecocriticism as it highlights the mytho historical basis of many of the region s literatures and their relationship to the environment The varied articles in this volume together explore the idea of nature and its relationship with humans The always problematic questions that surround such explorations such as why do we regard nature as external or how is humankind a continuum with nature emerge throughout the volume either overtly or implicitly As Pepper 1993 points out what Karl Marx referenced as first or external nature gave rise to humankind But humanity worked on this first nature to produce a second nature the material creations of society plus its institutions ideas and values Pepper 108 Thus our volume constantly negotiates this field of ideas and belief systems in diverse ways and in various cultures attempting to relate them to the current ecological predicaments of ASEAN It will likely prove an invaluable resource for scholars and students of ecocriticism and more broadly of Southeast Asian cultures and literatures Between Earth and Sky Nalini Nadkarni,2008 In Between Earth and Sky a rich tapestry of personal stories information and illustrations world renowned canopy biologist Nalini M Nadkarni becomes our captivating guide to the leafy wilderness above our heads Through her luminous narrative we embark on a multifaceted exploration of trees that reveals the profound connections we have with them the dazzling array of things they can provide us and the powerful lessons they teach us Ancestor Christology Cletus Chukwuemeka Nwaogwugwu,2011-01-07 The study of the application of the title ancestor to Christ permits the author to delve into the Christological reflection in Africa today through one of the principal ways At play here is the inculturation of the faith which cannot be fully achieved without a process of theological assimilation of the fundamental parameters in the African life The thesis therefore is not only limited to a mere description of the contemporary panorama in that respect but attempts to offer a theological evaluation of the real expressive capacity of the title as it has been proposed The criterion used is therefore double In the first place the thesis tried to show that the human and the divine natures of Jesus Christ can be maintained in such a way that there is no rupture with the great tradition of the Christological councils In the second place if it is capable of responding to demands of Christology from above and from below In all this however the horizon of the debate is not occidental exegetical investigation well known by the author but from the theological ambient of sub Saharan world The conclusion is positive pondering the terms involved The work can be of great use in the christoogical endeavors of contemporary Africa as well for those who desire to delve into it Don Alfonso Carrasco Rouco director of the thesis and now

Bishop of the Diocese of Lugo Spain The work of Don Cletus Chukwuemeka contains a clear description of what we may call African traditional religiosity as well as the theological efforts to inject Christianity into this cultural and religious tradition The central point of these efforts revolves around the understanding of Christ The most original aspect of this work is in the critical recourse to the figure of the ancestor or proto ancestor to present the identity of Christ in a way that is faithful to the Church tradition and at the same time significant for the religious and cultural tradition of Africa Dr Don Gerardo del Pozo Abejn Censor of the thesis

Botanical Imagination Jon L. Pitt,2025-04-15 Botanical Imagination explores the complicated legacy and enduring lure of plant life in modern Japanese literature and media Using critical plant studies Jon L Pitt examines an unlikely group of writers and filmmakers in modern Japan finding in their works a desire to become botanical in both content and form For nearly one hundred years a botanical imagination grew in response to moments of crisis in Japan's modern history Pitt shows how artists were inspired to seek out botanical knowledge in order to construct new forms of subjectivity and attempt to resist certain forms of state violence As he follows plants through the tangled histories of imperialism and state control Pitt also uncovers the ways plants were used in the same violence that drove artists to turn to the botanical as a model of resistance in the first place Botanical Imagination calls on us to rethink plants as significant but ambivalent actors and to turn to the botanical realm as a site of potentiality
