An Introductory Study on China's Cultural Transformation in Recent Times Yunzhi Geng, 2014-10-22 This book examines in detail the basic trajectory of the cultural transformation and brings to light the extrinsic conditions and intrinsic mechanisms involved. It focuses on the period from after the Opium Wars to the New Culture Movement, as the New Culture Movement can be considered a pivotal phase in the cultural transformation of modern day China. The New Culture Movement was a revolutionary eruption triggered by the accumulation of all the new qualitative cultural factors since the Opium Wars. Superficially, the movement's goal seemed to be to overthrow the traditional culture. But in essence, its true objective was to conduct an overall screening of that culture. The book elaborates a broad variety of points in this context, including the ideological and cultural evolution following the Opium Wars, the pressing challenges faced by Zhong Ti, the initial shaping of social public and cultural spaces, and major trends in ideological and cultural transformation at the end of the Qing Dynasty, the political disarray and conflicts between the new and old ideology in the first years of the Republic, the rise of the New

Culture Movement and the role of conservatism in the transition to a modern culture China's Grand Strategy Honghua Men, 2020-04-20 This book aims to build the ideal model of China's grand strategy framework which is based on three key variables: national power, strategic concept, and international institution. Taking the rise of China as an opportunity, this book adopts the assessment of national strategic resources as the beginning, focuses on the evaluation of strategic capability, the choice of strategic orientation, the establishment of strategic objectives, the planning of strategic content, and the implementation of strategic means. Further following this main line, this book establishes a China's grand strategy framework based on active participation and integration transformation shaping process. This book emphasizes that to achieve the goals of China's grand strategy, China should uphold this strategic attitude. It should not be seduced by praise and should not be made aggressive by criticism. It should learn to be glorious but remain humble, maintain a wealthy influential but modest position by restraint. This book can be regarded as the essence of the author's 20 years long term focus and research on the China's grand strategy. The author's postdoctoral tutor Professor Hu Angang's comment of this book can hit the nail on the head. This book is a pioneering theoretical study of China's great strategic research and makes a significant contribution to this research field. The basic arguments of this book have been submitted through various approaches to decision making references or published in academic papers and have received numerous positive responses and resonance. In my opinion, the basic ideas and important findings of this book will provide imperative reference to long term strategy decision making process. In addition, the fundamental theory and analysis method of the book will have an important influence in both domestic and international academic field. Innovations of China's Mainstream Media Convergence Peng Duan, 2022-03-11 This book offers fresh critical insights to the field of media convergence with a particular focus on the mainstream media of China. It begins with an exploration of the emerging change among the entire mediascape: the clear and distinct boundaries that used to demarcate media channels are gradually dissolved, and the widespread introduction and application of new communication technologies have brought both challenges and opportunities toward China. This is followed by a series of theoretical endeavors about the link between conventional media and new media. Drawing on President Xi Jinping's guiding opinions regarding media convergence, this book then analyzes the political task laid upon mainstream media in which challenges may be turned into opportunities. Given its conceptual focus and practical contribution, the book helps media professionals and related government agencies understand the wide variety of changes brought about by media convergence and the new direction for media development. Special Economic Zones and China's Development Path Yitao Tao, Zhiguo Lu, 2018-10-05 The book provides insights into the development of special economic zones, which are an important factor in the political and economic reforms in China. and what has not been adequately analysed is how the majority of ordinary people has reacted to and influenced the changes. This inadequacy has affected our understanding of Chinese society its dynamics and the changing trends. Drawing upon a new perspective of competitive social repositioning and the evidence recorded in numerous recent publications and interview data, this book seeks to re-examine the ever-changing but under-researched societal dynamics driving social transformations in China from 1964 when the communist heir narrative was rebranded and utilised to 2000 when Jiang Zemin formulated the Three Represents theory to modify the ideological political thinking of China's ruling elites. This analysis focuses on how a high proportion of aspirational citizens have kept repositioning themselves in China's changing distributions of social resources and social structure, how their attitudes and behaviours have been shaped over time, what characteristics of their choices are at different stages and how their preferences have resulted in the zig-zag patterns of China's recent social change.

Chinese Creative Writing Studies Rebecca Mo-Ling Leung, 2024-10-25. This book charts the development of creative writing, bringing it from China to the world. As the second volume of Chinese Creative Writing Studies, the first of which introduces Chinese creative writing to English-speaking readers, this book expands on the first in further developing theories and research on creative writing pedagogy in the Chinese context and in Hong Kong, particularly looking at creative writing within cross-media practices and the implications for creative writing in global contexts. The volume does so by presenting both local and international voices to expand the horizon of Chinese creative writing development. Structured in four parts, the book begins with leading Chinese scholars' reflections on research and field. The second part focuses on the interlinkages between creative writing and pedagogy in Hong Kong. The third section discusses poetic thinking and therapeutic writing to highlight their relationship with the personal and community. Lastly, the book takes a global perspective to examine the pedagogy and practice of creative writing through interviews with leaders in the field. It is relevant to researchers, teachers and students interested in creative writing, particularly Chinese creative writing, but also those working in comparative contexts, both culturally and in terms of cross-media perspectives.
