Chang, 2019-11-26 In this meticulously researched volume Vincent Chang resurrects a near forgotten yet pivotal chapter of Dutch Chinese ties to narrate how World War II the civil war in China and Indonesia's decolonization redefined and remade this age old bilateral relationship Drawing on a unique range of hitherto unexplored archives the book explains how China's nascent rise on the global scene and the Netherlands simultaneous decline as a colonial power shaped events in Dutch controlled Indonesia and vice versa and prompted a recalibration of their mutual ties culminating in the Netherlands recognition of the People's Republic and laying the foundations for Dutch and Chinese policies through to the present Offering insightful analyses of power dynamics and international law at the close of empire this book is a critical resource for historians and China specialists as well as scholars of international relations      War, Trade and Piracy in the China Seas (1622-1683) Weichung Cheng, 2013-05-13 Approaching its demise the Ming imperial administration enlisted members of the Cheng family as mercenaries to help in the defense of the coastal waters of Fukien Under the leadership of Cheng Chih lung also known as Nicolas Iquan and with the help of the local gentry these mercenaries became the backbone of the empire's maritime defense and the protectors of Chinese commercial interests in the East and South China Seas The fall of the Ming allowed Cheng Ch eng kung alias Coxinga and his sons to create a short lived but independent seaborne regime in China's southeastern coastal provinces that competed fiercely if only briefly with Spanish Portuguese Dutch and English merchants during the early stages of globalization      Han-Mongol Encounters and Missionary Endeavors Patrick Taveirne,2004 The study describes the origins of the Southwest Mongolia vicariate beyond the Great Wall and along the Yellow River Bend during the transition period from Lazarist missionary activities in the 1840s to the Scheutists in the early 1870      The Making of the Humanities Rens Bod,Jaap Maat,Thijs Weststeijn,2025-10-01 This much awaited second volume investigates the changes in subject method and institutional context of the humanistic disciplines around 1800 offering a wealth of insights for specialists and students alike Point of departure is the pivotal question whether there was a paradigm shift in the humanities around 1800 or whether these changes were part of a much longer process The authors provide an overarching perspective including philology musicology art history linguistics historiography philosophy and literary theory They also make clear that the influence from the East from the Ottoman Empire to China was crucial for the development of the European humanistic disciplines      The Eclipse of Liberal Protestantism in the Netherlands Tom-Eric Krijger,2019-09-16 In The Eclipse of Liberal Protestantism in the Netherlands Tom Eric Krijger is the first to offer a synthesis of the development of the Protestant modernist movement in Dutch religious social cultural and political life between 1870 and 1940 In historiography the liberal Protestant community is said to have lost appeal and influence in these decades due to a lack of theological clarity inner harmony and organisation Analysing liberal Protestants self perception vis vis Christian orthodoxy self understanding as a faith community attitude towards other alternatives to orthodoxy class consciousness literary criticism political commitment and involvement with foreign mission Krijger challenges this view Making an international comparison he argues that the Dutch modernist movement failed to make headway primarily due to liberal Protestant expectations and discourse      Reading Asia Frans Huskin,Dick van der Meij,2013-10-11 This volume presents a wide variety of articles in the broad field of Asian Studies covering the latest results of research within the social sciences and the humanities reflecting the rich diversity within these areas of research The contributions stem from research carried out by scholars who are or have been affiliated with the International Institute for Asian Studies Leiden Amsterdam      Other People's Anthropologies Aleksandar Bošković,2008-03-01 Anthropological practice has been dominated by the so called great traditions Anglo American French and German However processes of decolonization along with critical interrogation of these dominant narratives have led to greater visibility of what used to be seen as peripheral scholarship With contributions from leading anthropologists and social scientists from different countries and anthropological traditions this volume gives voice to scholars outside these great traditions It shows the immense variety of methodologies training and approaches that scholars from these regions bring to anthropology and the social sciences in general thus enriching the disciplines in important ways at an age marked by multiculturalism globalization and transnationalism      Europe, China and the Two SARs M. Neves,B. Bridges,2000-07-12 This book is a detailed study of contemporary economic political and security relations between Western
