What To Do About Aids What To Do About Aids:

HIV/AIDS Lorraine Henke Jones, 1996 Waiting for a vaccine that will keep people from getting AIDS is not the answer Health experts have warned that even after a vaccine is available many more years will pass before the epidemic is under control Most people do not fully understand what could be done right now to limit the spread of HIV infection But with education information and programs that are currently available Lorraine Jones shows how the spread of HIV infection can be prevented This current book defines HIV infection and AIDS provides accurate up to date facts about HIV infection and the AIDS epidemic presents information on signs symptoms and how HIV is and isn't spread and also discusses testing and protecting oneself against getting the disease shows how education is key to controlling the epidemic and gives special attention to national and state perspectives the schools role outreach programs and HIV on college campuses includes Messages from Persons Living with HIV that provide a very real human look at what it's like to have the disease and offers Steps for Action A Community HIV Prevention Checklist concrete things you can do to help prevent the spread of the disease in your own community In addition a chapter called Where to Find Help gives names and phone numbers of organizations that can provide personal help about the disease testing and treatment

Developing Effective Policies for HIV/AIDS Education practice in Sub Saharan Africa: The Case of Urban Schools of Malawi: A synergy of pupils needs, policies and practice Paul Makocho, 2014-11-01 HIV AIDS has been named the Sub Saharan disease In countries that have achieved significant declines in HIV prevalence young people have registered the biggest behavioural changes It means they hold the keys not only to our understanding of the epidemic but more importantly to the efforts required to stem the tide of infections However the majority of young people are ignorant of how to prevent transmission have low compliance to condom use which is in some cases accentuated by misconceptions about HIV AIDS transmission and have insufficient knowledge regarding transmission and avoidance behaviours As such consensus on feasible preventive interventions target young people particularly those in schools It is on this premise that the book unlocks the key pillars in effective HIV AIDS education policies and practices The study has drawn upon the experiences of selected Urban Schools in Malawi to explore the needs of young people in classroom the extent to which the classroom practices respond to the needs and the factors influencing these using questionnaires interviews lesson observations and document analysis Malawi typically represents most Sub Saharan African countries in terms of challenges faced by education systems Given the similar cultural settings of the people of Sub Saharan Africa the findings and recommendations of the study generalises to the education systems of Sub Saharan Africa to a greater extent The book shows the need for open discussion climates on HIV AIDS issues despite a conservative cultural and religious adult world that is not open It has also identified a need for explicit and accurate knowledge on HIV AIDS issues opportunities to acquire behavioural skills for HIV prevention and involvement of external speakers in classroom HIV AIDS education Current classroom practice does not address the pupils needs adequately Factors influencing this can be linked to lack of policies responsive to culture and religion ineffective and inadequate teaching policy guidelines and lack of a policy prioritising HIV AIDS education The findings suggest that in future effective HIV AIDS Education needs to be informed by the pupils needs To address these needs support from the wider society and related policies coupled with appropriate management and classroom practice will be required The book is therefore an indispensable tool for education systems in Sub Saharan Africa It provides an effective model for HIV Plus ,2002-06 HIV Plus offers the latest stories on research economics and treatment The magazine raises awareness of HIV related cultural and policy developments in the United States and throughout the world Prevention of HIV Transmission United States.
