Why You Shouldn't Send Your Child to School Carole Richards, 2018-10-21 Fire and brimstone is this what school is it has potential Ah your thinking yes quality of teaching And no I mean to wreck your child's life Here are a few reasons why it is bad Bullying not just from other children but also teachers bullying and prejudice Everybody talks about kids bullying never about teachers doing so or picking on the child Both my husband and I were subjected to prejudices even cruelty from teachers A child cannot succeed or even show up as capable of a subject if their teacher just doesn't like him/her for personal reasons they are human What does school failure lead to bad reports who are the reports for the teacher the child the parent well if they are for the parent and the parent has issues about their child's success the child will be told off or worse Why persecute a child maybe they are doing their best really do the parents need to know to have a written report My mother tore up my reports and threw them on the floor My class teacher was the maths teacher and the music teacher I was bottom of bottom in maths so she presumed I was bad at music which I am not and without checking it out gave me bad reports for both She along with another teacher overtly disliked me Again it was a subject I was very capable of but the teacher never recognised it wouldn't see didn't want to know Children who are quiet get ignored children who are alpha get all the attention Children should not be sat on their bums most of the day they will with pc games later too The hours are way too long they don't need it mine did two to three a day a passed out their school taught friends Homework is absurd why not keep them at school another hour or two Poor kids have to do more than a job's worth of hours p.d and no regards except hypothetically in the distant future do they even have a sense that there is a remote outcome A school child is branded for life by how they get on at school Schools once so badly needed are militaristic take away initiative intentionally don't provide for creativity are outdated in music lessons train for compliance and obedience and to crush individuality Exams should not exist like reports who are they for they distress the child until they might need support therapy A child might feel ill or not their best on exam days or week and everything rests on it that is highly unfair An assessment of over the years work should be adequate and much fairer They are outdated still running on Victorian principals Uniform does not create the appearance of equality it is another way of smothering identity we say who we are through our clothes Also poor parents cannot supply the quality of uniform better off ones can and it shows It puts poor families under pressure I could and did get on and on streaming what is that for to make sure the child knows he is inferior or superior The whole system needs modernising Read this then see what you think yourself I educated my three and complied to little if anything that a school curriculum specified but they are all successful in all aspects of their lives A child needs to have the freedom to find things and themselves out not have every
