Mincheva, 2016-01-15 This book is a case study in the literary psychoanalytic and theological encounters between diasporic Muslim intellectuals and secular western modernity It centres on the simultaneous search for the possibility of both a reformation of Islamic fundamentalism and a transformation of the exclusionary limitations of western public institutions With roots in original research in the fields of comparative religion and cultural studies and drawing on sources in English

French and Arabic the author introduces and elaborates the concept of Western Islamic public sphere This concept defines what is at stake in the formative play of public representations where traditionalist foundations and modernist adaptations meet clash and produce discourse around their common disequilibrium The Western Islamic public sphere which is secular but not secularist and which is Islamic but not Islamist within which a critical Islamic intellectual universe can unfold deals hermeneutically with texts and politically with lived practices It emerges from within the arc of two alternative conflicting yet equally dismissive suspicions defined by a view that critical Islam is the new imperial rhetoric of hegemonic orientalism and the opposite view that critical Islam is just fundamentalism camouflaged in liberal rhetoric This innovative and original scholarly apparatus offers a third view one that arises in its practice from ethical commitment to intellectual engagement creativity and imagination as a portal to the open horizons of conflictual history

Muslims in Western Politics

Abdulkader H. Sinno, 2009 Looking closely at relations between Muslims and their host countries Abdulkader H Sinno and an international group of scholars examine questions of political representation identity politics civil liberties immigration and security issues While many have problematized Muslims in the West this volume takes a unique stance by viewing Muslims as a normative and even positive influence in Western politics Squarely political and transatlantic in scope the essays in this collected work focus on Islam and Muslim citizens in Europe and the Americas since 9 11 the European bombings and the recent riots in France Main topics include Muslim political participation and activism perceptions about Islam and politics Western attitudes about Muslim visibility in the political arena radicalization of Muslims in an age of apparent shrinking of civil liberties and personal security in politically uneasy times

Rethinking Islamic Studies

Carl W. Ernst, Richard C. Martin, 2012-11-27 A groundbreaking response to the challenges of interpreting Islamic religion in the post 9 11 and post Orientalist era Rethinking Islamic Studies upends scholarly roadblocks in post Orientalist discourse within contemporary Islamic studies and carves fresh inroads toward a robust new understanding of the discipline one that includes religious studies and other politically infused fields of inquiry Editors Carl W Ernst and Richard C Martin along with a distinguished group of scholars map the trajectory of the study of Islam and offer innovative approaches to the theoretical and methodological frameworks that have traditionally dominated the field In the volume s first section the contributors reexamine the underlying notions of modernity in the East and West and allow for the possibility of multiple and incongruent modernities This opens a discussion of fundamentalism as a manifestation of the tensions of modernity in Muslim cultures The second section addresses the volatile character of Islamic religious identity as expressed in religious and political movements at national and local levels In the third section contributors focus on Muslim communities in Asia and examine the formation of religious models and concepts as they appear in this region This study concludes with an afterword by accomplished Islamic studies scholar Bruce B Lawrence reflecting on the evolution of this post Orientalist approach to Islam and placing the volume within existing and emerging scholarship Rethinking Islamic Studies offers original perspectives for century to the present the major religious issues that have led to disputes between the two faiths and the political implications of religious differences at various stages through history as well as in the present It includes analysis of scriptural and theological themes and explores the characteristics of relations at important points in history and also in various parts of the world today Chapters are devoted to the most significant intellectual interpretations and encounters the main armed clashes including the Crusades and the important documents issued by each faith that in recent years have led the way towards new developments in recognition and acceptance With chapters written by some of the foremost experts in the field the book traces the largely dark history of relations and explains the underlying reasons why Muslims and Christians have found tolerance and respect for the other difficult It is an excellent resource for understanding the past and for highlighting lessons for future relations between the world's two largest religions

Islam and Peacemaking in the Middle East Nathan C. Funk, Abdul Aziz Said, 2009 Islam and Peacemaking in the Middle East begins with a set of provocative questions How for example do Muslims conceive of peace To what degree do differences in the interpretation of Islam affect the ways in which peace is sought in the contemporary Middle East Through analysis of regional trends and case studies the authors explore various Islamic ideas of peace and their bearing on difficult ethnic nationalist and civic conflicts The result widens the parameters for serious discussion of Islam's contributions real and potential to ongoing negotiations The authors explore varying Islamic conceptions of peace and their bearing on ethnic nationalist and civil conflicts in the contemporary Middle East The New German Jewry and the European Context Y. Michal Bodemann, 2008-06-30 Among Jews in the Diaspora recent years and especially recent months have seen a growing disenchantment with Israeli politics and with Israel's claim as the only legitimate basis for Jewish existence At the same time

European Jews have begun to reassert their own traditions in contrast to both America and Israel As the case of German Jewry makes clear much of this return of Diaspora comes from the Jewish periphery women Russian Jewish immigrants Jews not recognised by Jewish law and Gays and Lesbians But German Jews are also facing the involvement of non Jewish Germans in Jewish culture as both a boost and as an irritant Ten internationally distinguished scholars are addressing these and other issues The World's Religions After September 11 Arvind Sharma,2009 Convening on the fifth anniversary of the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center the global congress The World s Religions after September 11 explored the negative and positive possibilities of the religious dimensions of life The presentations from the congress have been pulled together in this set which addresses religion s intersection with human rights spirituality science healing the media international diplomacy globalization war and peace and more This comprehensive set includes contributions from such well known scholars of religion as Arvind Sharma and a host of others from all the world s religious traditions This set is an unprecedented examination of religion s influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Because of the attack on the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 the very concept of religion underwent a paradigm shift Instead of standing for virtue and piety peace and harmony the word religion also came to be inextricably associated with evil aggression and terror People around the world began to question whether the religious and secular dimensions of modern life can be reconciled whether the different religions of the world can ever coexist in harmony Indeed the very future of religion itself has sometimes seemed to be uncertain or at least suspect The volumes are 1 Religion War and Peace 2 Religion and Human Rights 3 The Interfaith Dimension 4 Spirituality Handbook of Multicultural Counseling Joseph G. Ponterotto,2010 This handbook is considered a classic text in American counselling and is the world s most often cited scholarly work on multicultural counselling The First Muslims Asma Afsaruddin,2008 The First Muslims reconstructs the first century of Islam to offer a fascinating exploration of the origins and development of the religion Using a wealth of classical Arabic sources it chronicles the lives of the Prophet Muhammad his Companions and the subsequent two generations of Muslims together known as the Pious Forbears Focusing on both the people and their beliefs Afsaruddin presents a critical examination of the continuing influence of these first Muslims in contemporary times as figureheads for a variety of causes from liberal Islam to hard line fundamentalism Essential reading for anyone interested in the earliest history of Islam and its impact on Muslims today this important book will captivate the general reader and student alike

Islamophobia and Anti-Semitism Hillel Schenker,2006 Islamophobia and anti-Semitism based on often interchangeable historic stereotypes fan the flames of fear and hatred against the other Thus Jews and Muslims serve as convenient scapegoats for many of society s ills and leaders misguided agendas In the post 9 11 world the Iraq War the breakdown of homogeneous societies in Europe the rise of fundamentalism and the lack of a resolution to the Israeli Palestinian conflict have only served to exacerbate Islamophobia and anti-Semitism. Anti-Semitism and Islamophobia are breeding hatred and creating more difficulties in the face of any serious effort to solve the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. They are threatening to transform it from a political into a religious conflict and thereby cloud the judgment of anyone attempting to resolve it both in the region and in the broader international arena. In this context a group of Israeli and Palestinian scholars and journalists joined together to start the Palestine-Israel Journal of Politics, Economics and Culture. Their goal is to clarify the positions of both sides and work toward a solution. Islamophobia and Anti-Semitism furthers the debate on these topics in its full complexity marked at once by sharp differences and considerable common ground.
